Your Yearbook Staff Guarantees

The yearbook, to many students, is a book of memories. To others, it is just a $20.00 book. However, to the Annual Staff, it means long hours of hard work and some fun. The biggest this year was that of student apathy. Out of a possible 1281 students only 450 bought a yearbook. To promote sales the staff sold personal ads where the student could buy a page, a half page, or a fourth page. It did not go over as well as planned.

Two photographers from Monarch Photography, the company that handled the senior pictures, discuss how long it will take to go through all the classes.

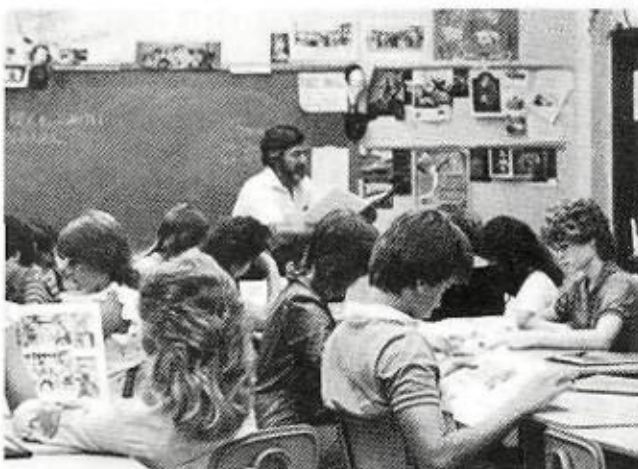

The yearbook staff uses the display case in the rotunda as one of their many forms of advertising.

Without Rex Smith, sponsor, the annual staff would not be successful.

Alisha Wile silently ponders the pictures she is going to use for one of her layouts.

On the first day of school the yearbook class looks over the past year's book for mistakes and improvements.

The yearbook class works together to identify pictures for each section.

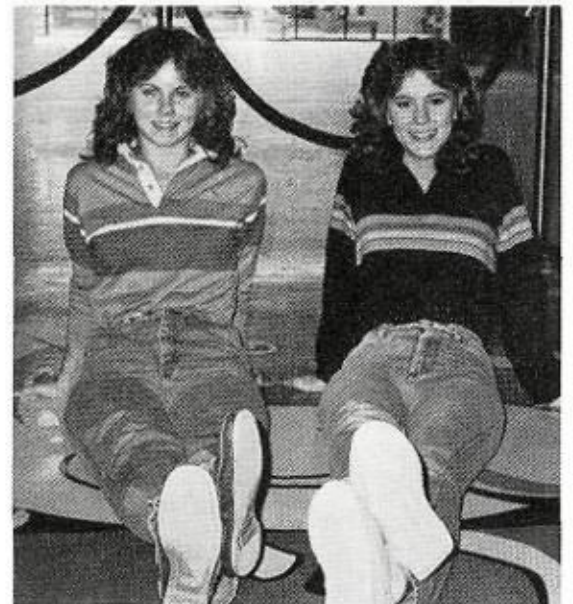

As a new annual staff student, Stephanie Schultz acquaints herself with the computer list of the student body.

Denise Kaderka (Guppy) looks over the 1983 football schedules to see when she can get the pictures for her section.

On Friday afternoon before school lets out for the weekend, the staff talks about the upcoming weekend.

The 1983-84 yearbook editors Lisa Borak and assistant editor Natalie Michulka.

You an Insight into Lamar High

Yearbook students learn to work as a team to get their jobs done faster. As fast as one finger will go Oralia Perez types as Donna (dimples) Johnson feeds her information.

Denise Kaderka looks through another yearbook to give Stephanie Schultz an idea for a cutline.

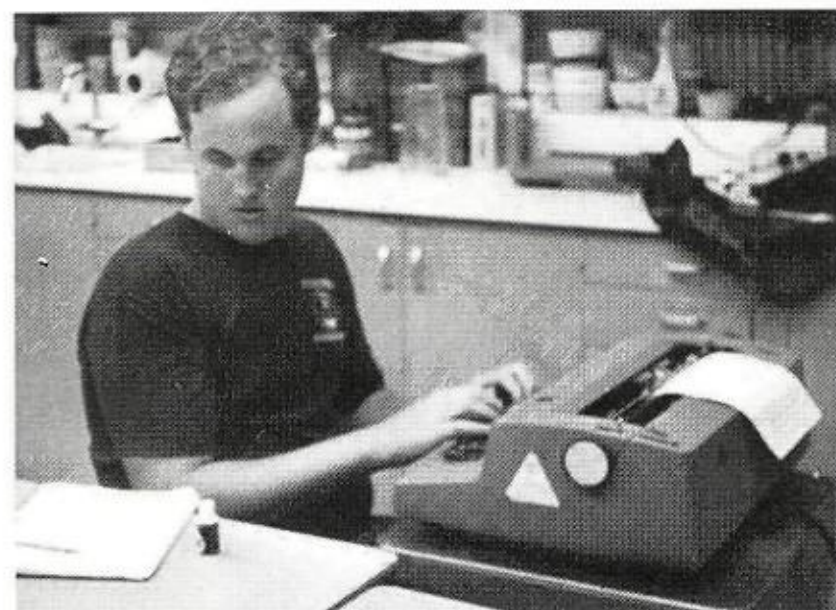

Lisa Borak sorts underclassmen pictures for the mug shot pages of the yearbook.

Mr. Smith discusses how he will handle credit for the students who forgot their money for underclass pictures.

Natalie Michulka sells a yearbook while Denise Kaderka and Allyson Matheus discuss how they will make their next sale.

Liquid Paper in hand Corey Cmajdalka reads over his handwritten cutlines and types them.

Jeanette Bauman and Lisa Hollon explain how much each underclassmen pictures packet costs and how it can be paid for.

Denise Kaderka reads a newly written cutline to Jerry Manuel and Stephanie Schultz to see if they think it fits the picture.

Through the Eyes of Lamar

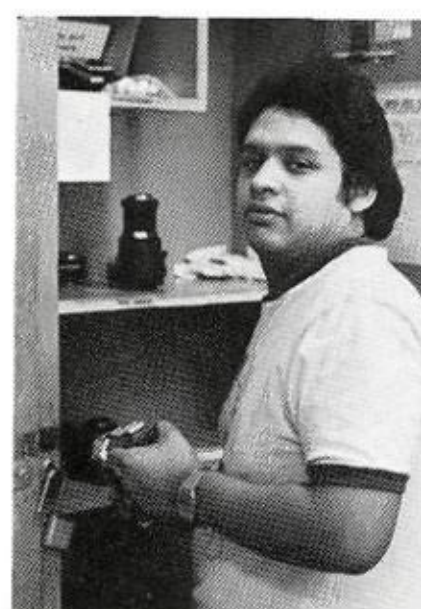

We, the yearbook staff, would like to take this time to thank our 1983-84 photographers. They have spent a lot of hard work and many hours shooting and developing all pictures. The yearbook is a pictorial book and without them we could not make it.

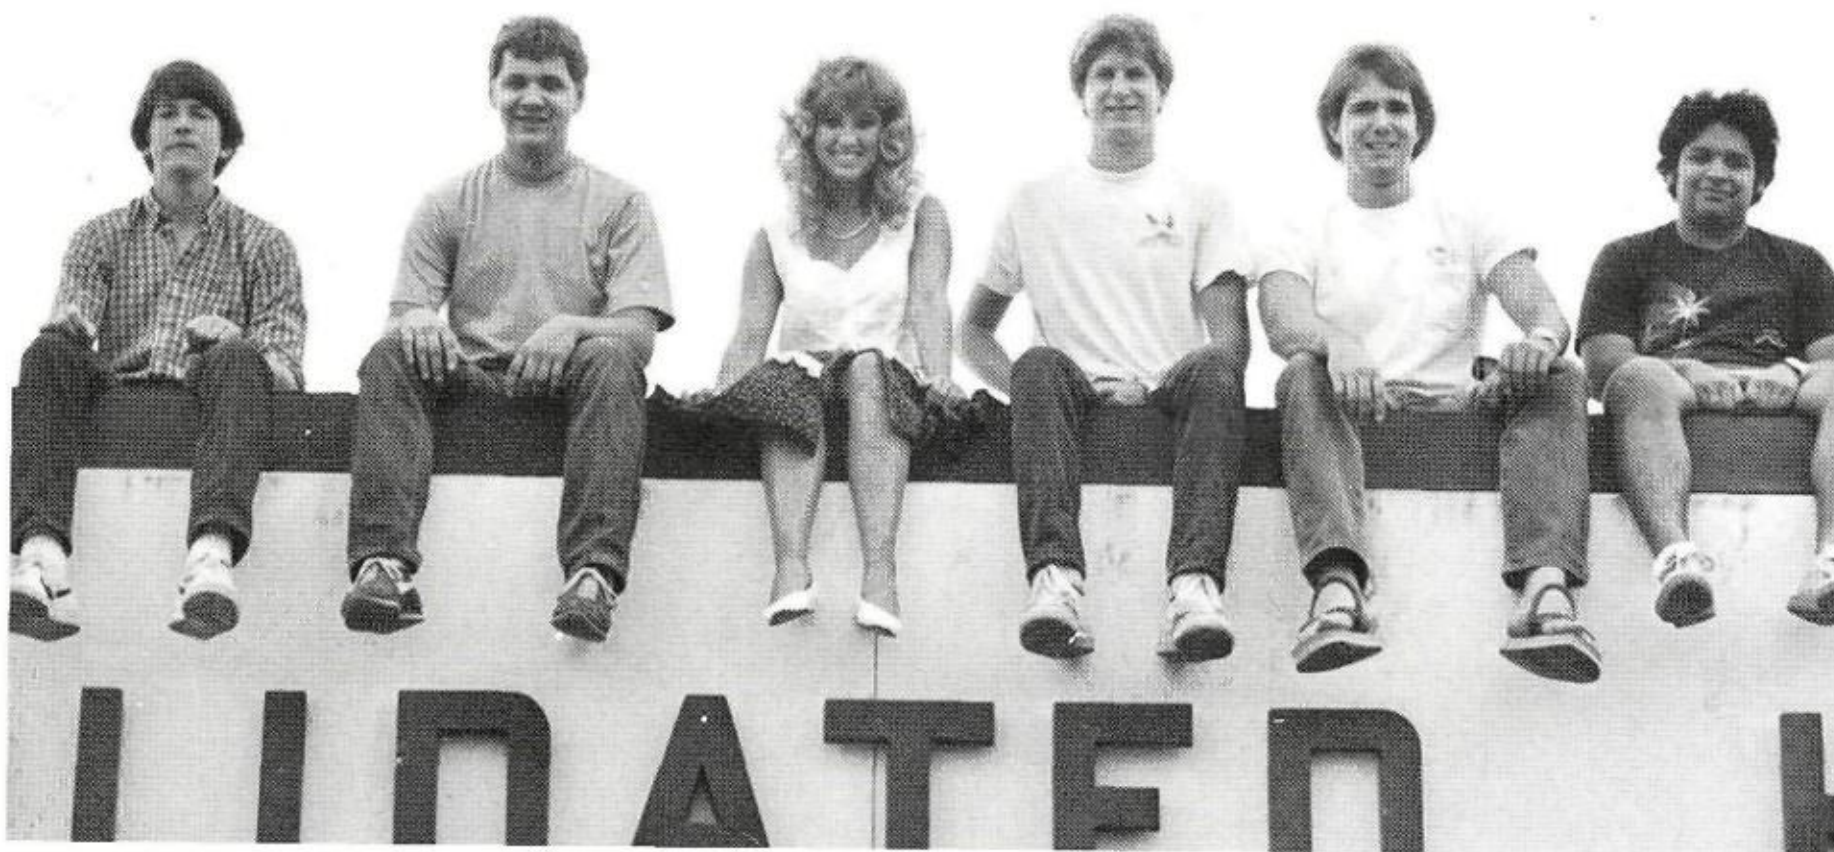

Jill Traylor looks over a magazine to find new approaches to taking pictures.

Scott Wilson is pouring developer into the film tank to develop a roll of film.

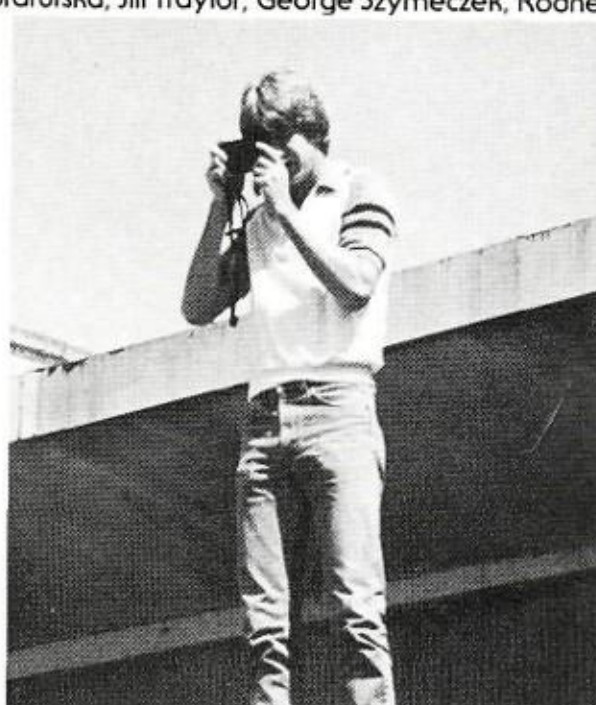

Lee Weisheimer gets a camera ready to go so he can take pictures.

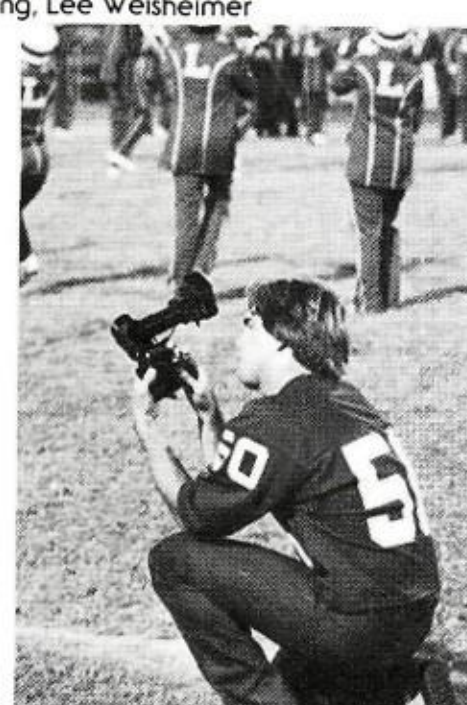

Scott Wilson, Randy Starutka, Jill Traylor, George Szymeczek, Rodney Young, Lee Weisheimer

Randy Starutka cuts borders for the pictures he has taken throughout the year.

With a steady hand, George Szymeczek focuses his camera and gets ready to snap a picture.

Since Rodney Young is unable to play football, due to a football injury, he keeps up with the action on the sidelines by taking pictures.

Hot Fashions Burn Lamar

At Lamar you find a variety of people and where there is a variety of people there is a lot of different fashions. At Lamar the most prominent of the fashions was that of the "punk" or "new wave" styles.

Kate Magee models her eardrop which just dlops on the ear, there is no piercing involved.

Frequently in the halls you could see guys and girls with "tails" like Forrest Bible's.

Sharon Ward proudly displays her "new wave" look.

One of the end of the year fashions was twist-a-beads. Here Stephanie Pugh shows off hers.

Argyle sweaters and socks was seen more often in the winter than any other month.

Keith Dewitt displays his parachute pants which feel like a windbreaker to the touch.

Teenage high fashion is represented by Lara Bible as she wears her pointed toe shoes, bobby socks and a clear, plastic purse.

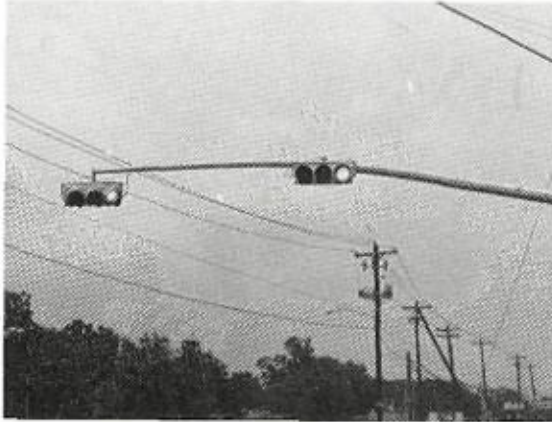

What's New in Town?

With the coming of a new year came the coming of a new town. A lot of new stores and new places just popped up out of nowhere it seemed like. Many old parts of town were replaced with new structures.

The Wal-Mart store was the biggest attraction of the year and it provided many jobs for high school students.

A traffic light was put up on Ave. I by Safeway to help keep down afterschool traffic and accidents.

The Richmind Professional Building added three new stories to make it one of the highest structures in town.

In the 200 hall at school, three new water fountains replaced three old, ancient ones.

The senior class of 1984 dipped into its funds to buy the school a beautiful new Christmas tree.

Where the drive-in theatre once stood is now occupied by a two story office building.

A new strip mall was put up on Ave. I by the stadium where you could see many students stop at before school.

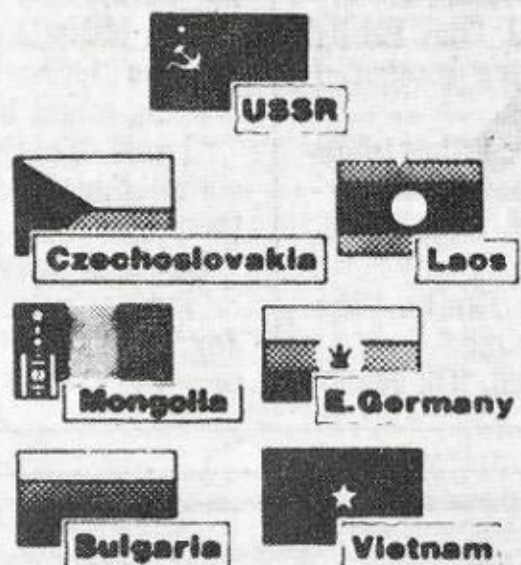

Sutherlands Lumber Co. was built on Ave. H and held its grand opening on Wednesday May 23, 1984.

Around the World

Nations that will not be participating in this summer's Olympic games in Los Angeles

In The Past

In past Olympic summer games, these nations chose not to participate

1980	USA, 62 others
1976	Iraq, Guyana, several African Nations
1964	Indonesia, North Korea
1956	Egypt, Iraq, Switzerland

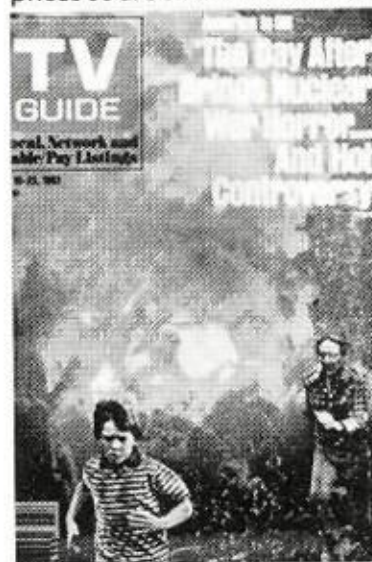

As school closed out so did the Russians from the summer Olympics games taking with them the above listed nations.

Clare Peller, the ole gal who spoke up for Wendy's, put "Where's the Beef" on everyones lips.

The craze for the cabbage patch doll around Christmas time overwhelmed the public and prices soared to new levels for dolls.

The TV movie (above) which millions tuned into gave the stark realism of the fragility of our world.

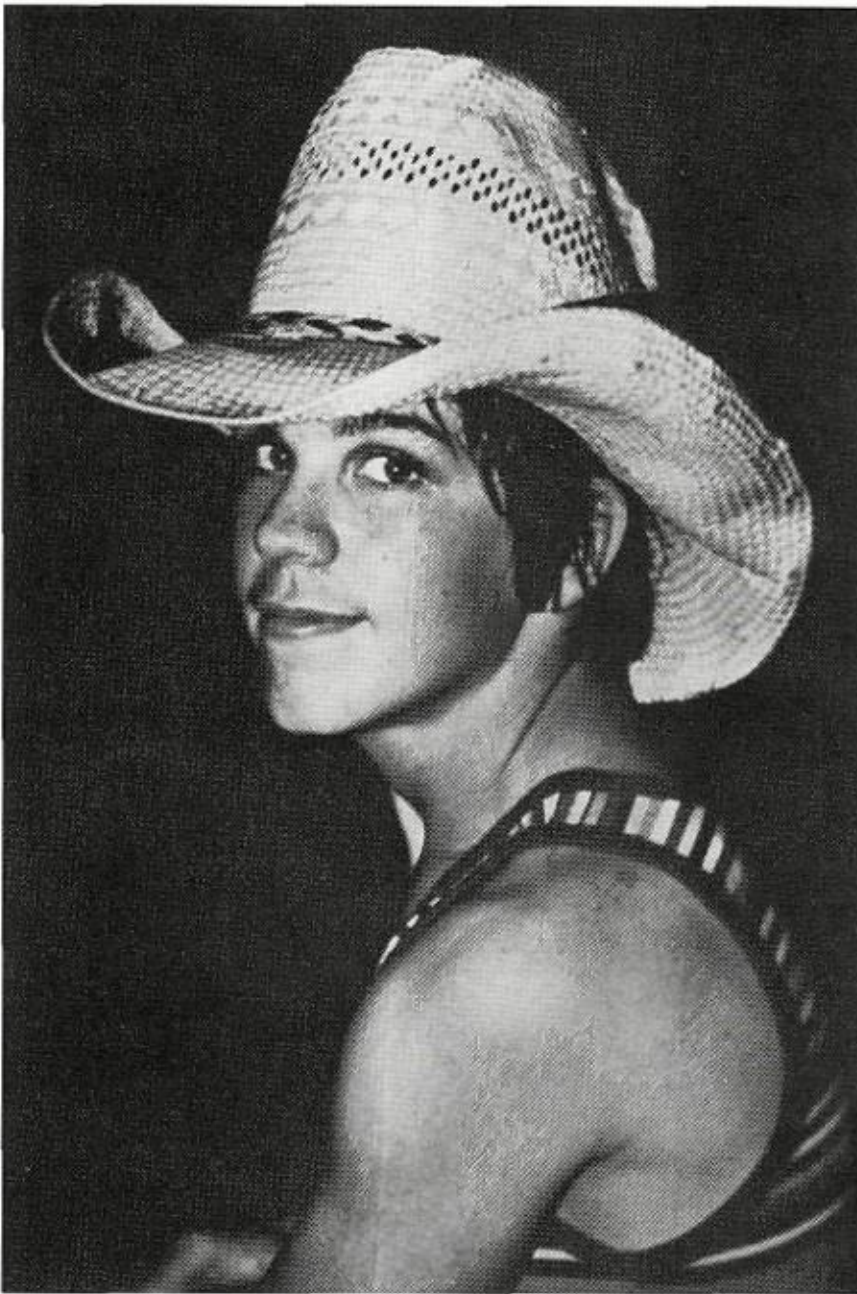

With small black patches on their arms, Frances Ramirez and Hilaria Ramirez show concern for the Marines who lost their lives in Beirut by terrorists.

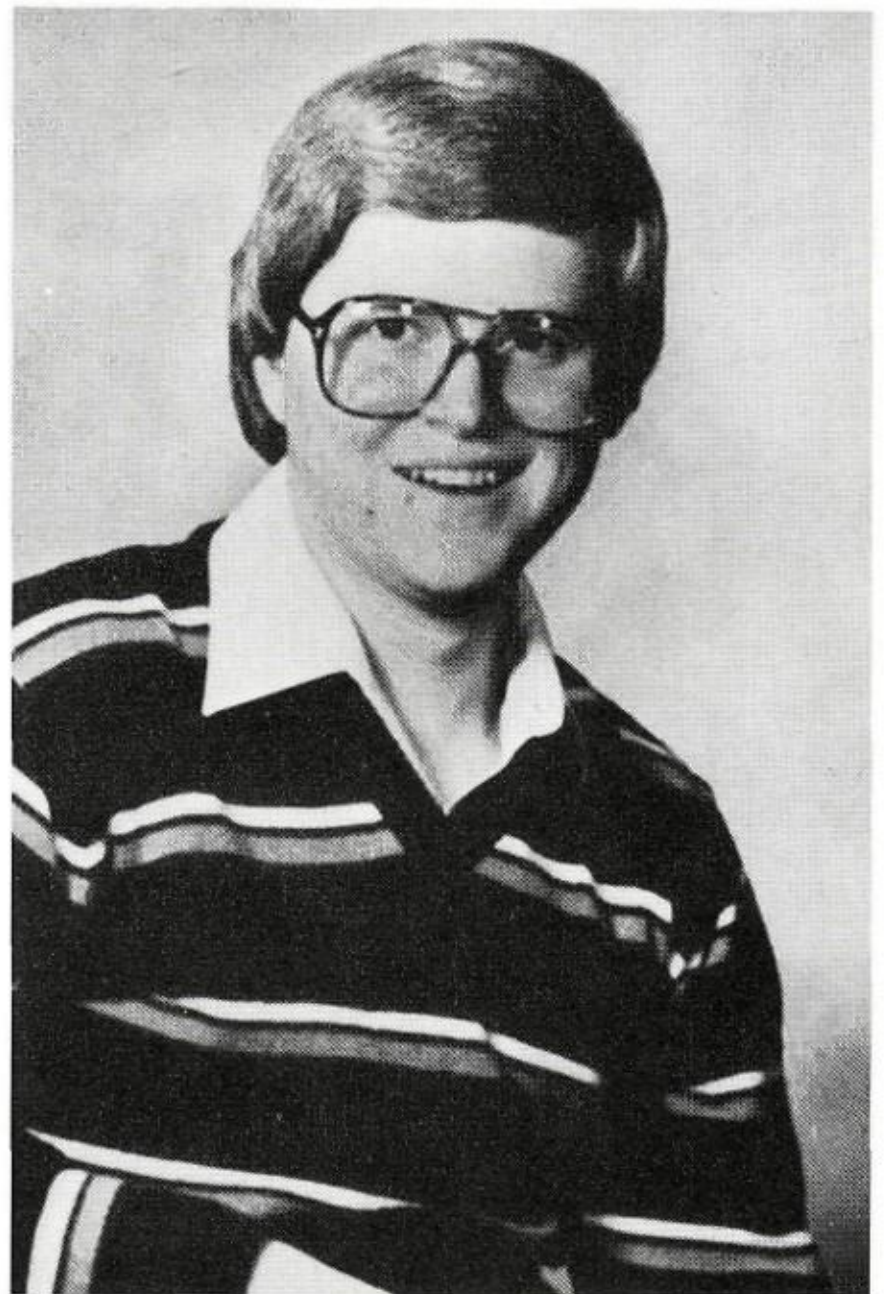

WORTH

We can curse the fate that made us, or love each living hour
If we do the job God gave us, be we humble weed or flower;
There is fragrance in the roses, and shade beneath the pine,
Softness in the clover, and food upon the vine.
Each one serves a different need, just as you and I,
Be we creeping in the valley, or climbing to the sky.

Clearing the court for action Trisha Overgoner toughens up her forearm technique during practice.

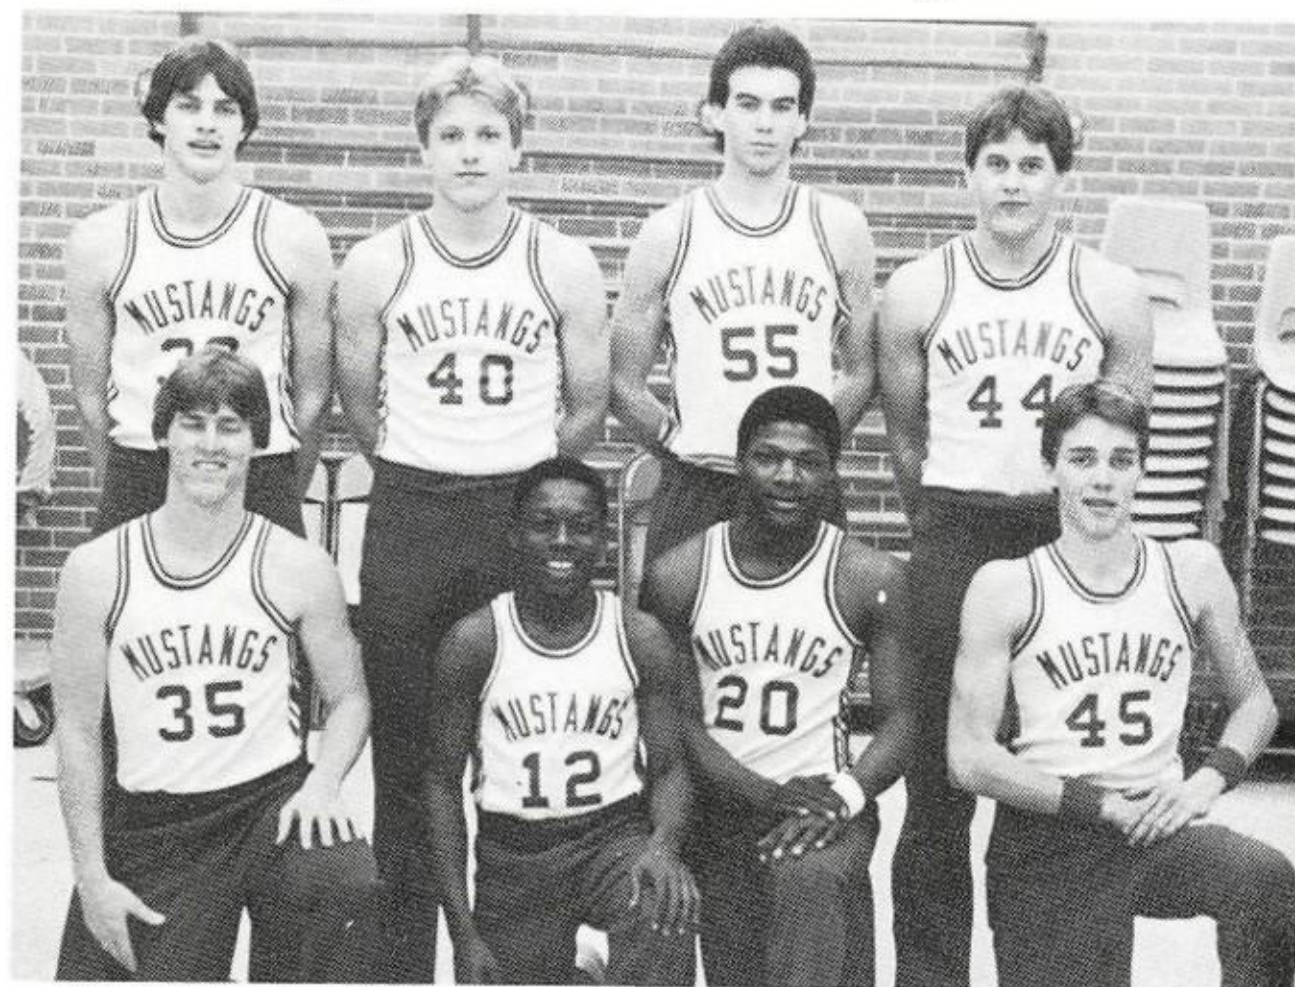

During a home game, Bobbie Jo Jones awaits the ball for a return to victory.

With practice beginning in the late summer, the Freshman Volleyball team was ready for action by the start of school. For the Freshman's first season in high school, they had an overall record of 14-5 and a district record of 9-3. The Freshman team went to 2 tournaments and placed at both. They placed 2nd at the Terry Tournament and 4th at the Alvin Tournament.

The fillies, while strutting their stuff, performed many routines in the long, hot parade.

The "punk craze" invaded the fillies while performing at the basketball game.

Many Faces, Many Stages!

Exciting expressions show evidence of a well performed show.

The 1983-84 drill team officers proudly crown the future Fillie officers as they are announced.

Many different styles and preps are used for the variety of dances.

At the Fillie Spring Review, many people had prepared solo and group performances. The excitement of the night was awaiting for the announcement of the 1984-85 Fillie officers.

Proudly dancing with pointing toes and smiling faces are Amy Abendroth, Sherri Segers, Michelle Smith, and Jill Traylor.

The Fillies proudly show their ratings.

Mustang Spirit Runs Wild

On the exciting day of Homecoming, the cheerleaders proudly exhibit their many mums.

The day of Homecoming during school was a day for making plans and dreaming of the night to come.

The 7th period Business Law class helped in blowing up the balloons for the dance that night.

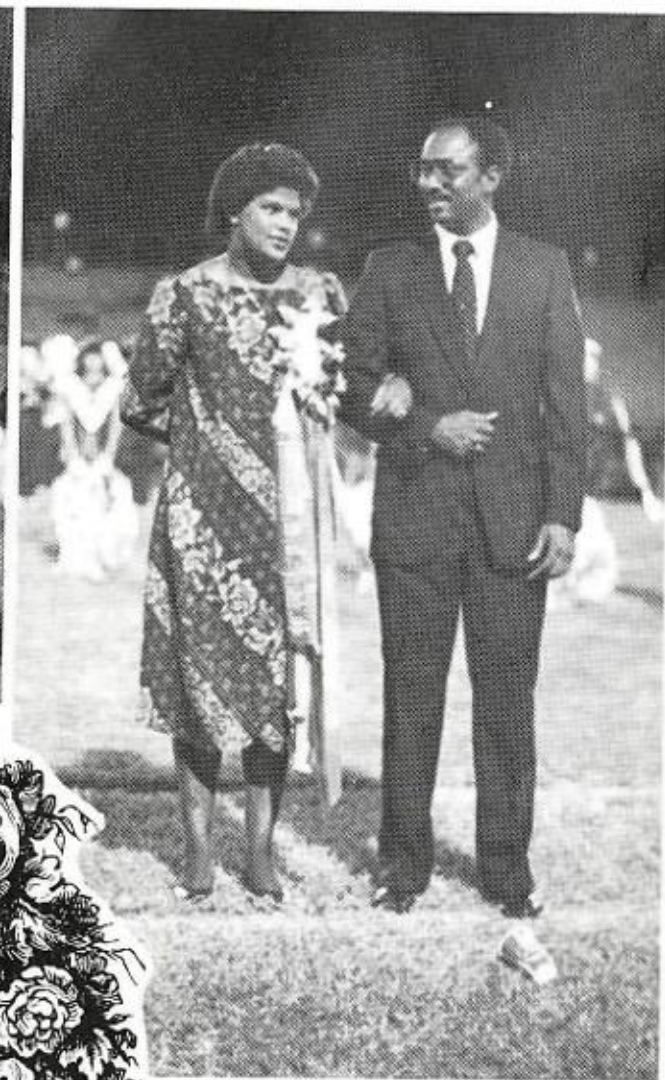

The library was also filled with the sweet fragrance of mums and the sound of cowbells.

Stephanie Pew with an original you and me mum.

A Night to Remember

Night of glitter and mums filled the air as the crowd anxiously awaited for the announcement of Homecoming Queen. The 1983-84 Homecoming Queen was Gina Tomas.

1. Cynthia Derr, escorted by her father, smiling and dreaming of what a wonderful night it is.
2. Gina Thomas, escorted by her father, sings along with the opening "National Anthem."
3. Berndrette Dawson proudly standing at her father's side, anxiously awaits the announcement of Homecoming Queen.

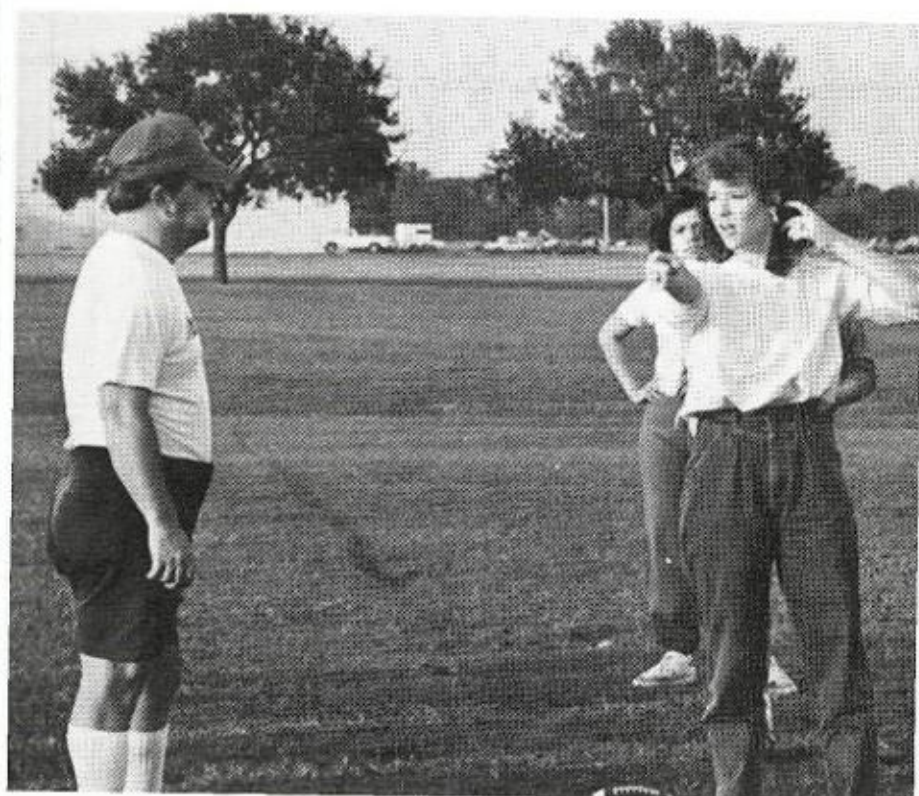

Riding through the parade, Homecoming Queen, Gina Tomas is escorted by the President of Student Council; Keith Gresham.

Cynthia Derr, Gina Tomas, and Berndrette Dawson are chauffeured around the field to be seen by their audience.

Don't Worry Guys, Help Is on the Way!

Mysterious smiles are expressed from Debbie Olive and Lisa Jankowiak before the tackle!

Much practice went into the entertainment for the powderpuff game. Afternoons were spent after school planning and practicing. Much thanks to everyone who participated.

Wendy Hoffeke and Alix Knauth help in selling tickets to the Powder Puff game and pep-rally.

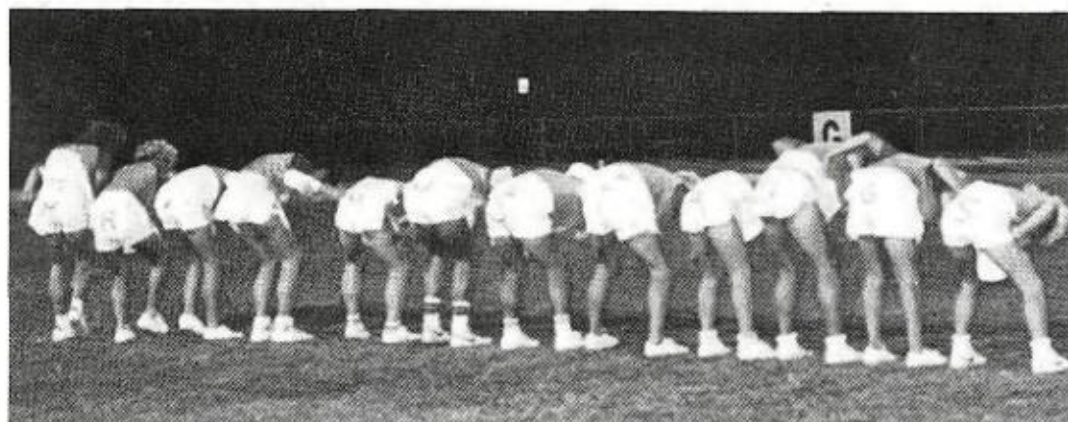

This isn't as hard as we thought it would be, but how long do we have to stay this way?

It's all in the back!

We've Got What It Takes

The many moons of Lamar Mustangs were shown at the Powder-Puff game!

There was much competition in the gym as the Senior cheerleaders attempt to prove that experience makes a difference.

What's wrong? Haven't you ever seen anybody's legs before?!?

The junior powder puff cheerleaders show their skill and talent at the pep-rally.

Can you believe we actually did it right this time!

Allen and Narciso are responsible for getting the drum major's box to the sidelines. 4. One of the glamorous jobs of the crew is to attempt to remove the flags in one haul so no stray flag poles appear later. 5. As part of the case throwing chain, Allen grabs a baritone to pass to the next in line. 6. The vast array of cases in the truck gives John a reason to avoid being trapped behind endless instruments by climbing over while James tries to carry out 14 flags. 7. Although John does not want to interrupt the flow of the chain, he passes the cymbals (or "frisbees") to Lee who stops to pose for the camera. 8. Sol, the spirit horse, rides along with the instruments on the loading truck. 9. Jeff, the last man in the case chain, puts a trumpeter alongside the others before looking up to grab another cage.

Concert Choir: A Classic

All the choirs join together for a great concert.

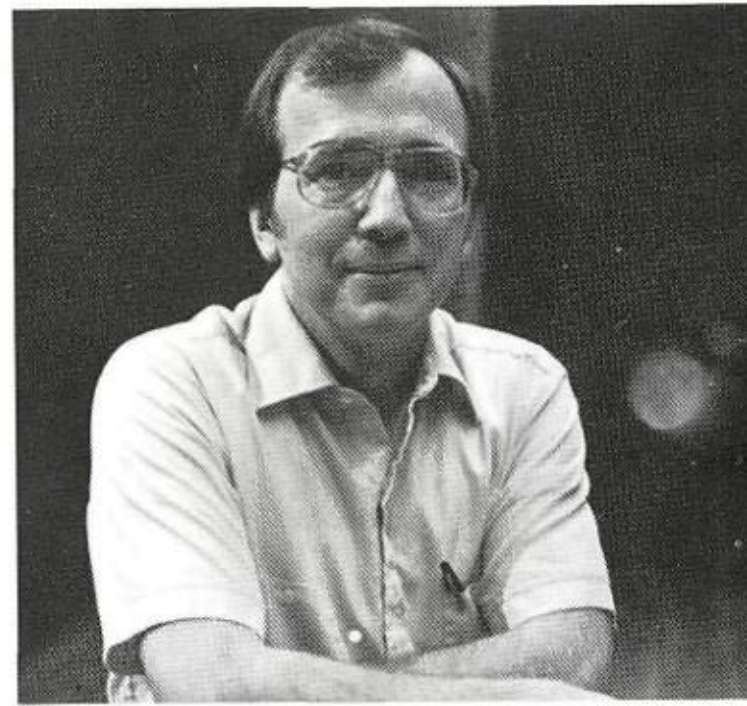

During third period Concert Choir performed for the school, which was a new experience.

CONCERT CHOIR — (Back Row) Robert Spears, Alfred Mendoza, Edward Rolosen, Spencer Kern, Joey Slawinski, Ricky Delos Santos, Billy Alexander, Shane Hennesy, Jeff Swallers, Chad Cosby, Billy Spears, Mark Hail. (Middle Row) Julie Clark, Rhonda Anderson, Stacy Higginbotham, Rosemary Houston, Katherine Pittman, Felicia Swallers, Kasey Walger, Angie Edwards, Dora Quiones. (Front Row) Jocelyn Kurtz, Kaylen Peterson, Elaine Pousson, Leslie Lee, Lisa Stone, Melissa Wagner, Gil Gibson, Julie Barr.

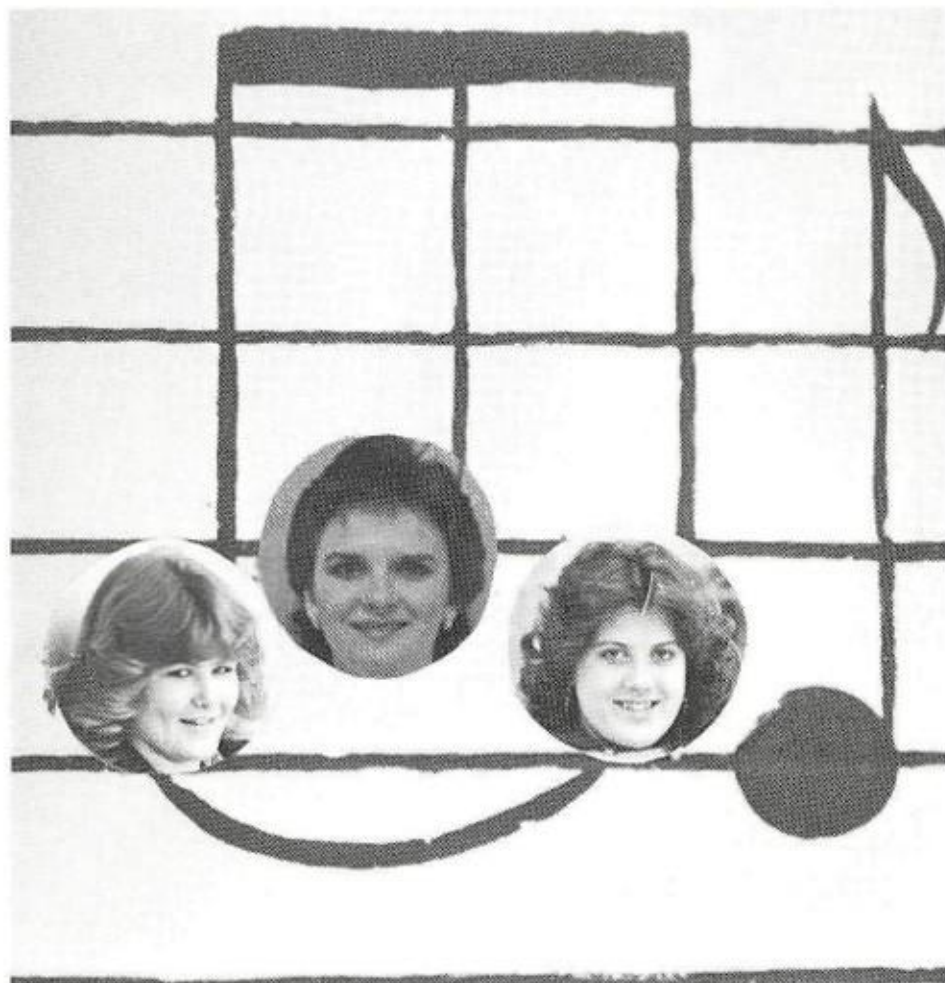

OFFICERS — 1983-84 — Felicia Swallers — Vice President, Stacy Higginbotham — President, Kaylen Peterson — Sect/Treasure.

Mr. McDaniel, Lamar Choir Director, put in many extra hours of his own time just to make the Choirs a big success.

Great Sounds From a Great Choir

TREBLE CHOIR OFFICERS 1983-84 — Cindy Harrison — Pres., Sherry Bailey — Vice-Pres., and Cinnamon Peschel — Sec./Treas.

Naomi Santos, Cindy Jones, Yolanda Chaverria, and Johanna Compean do their daily routine of practicing their sheet music.

Treble Choir practices for weeks to make the musical a hit.

While accompanying the Chorale Choir, Mr. McDaniel leads them to perfection.

Together forever, Greg Smith, and Ben Trevino.

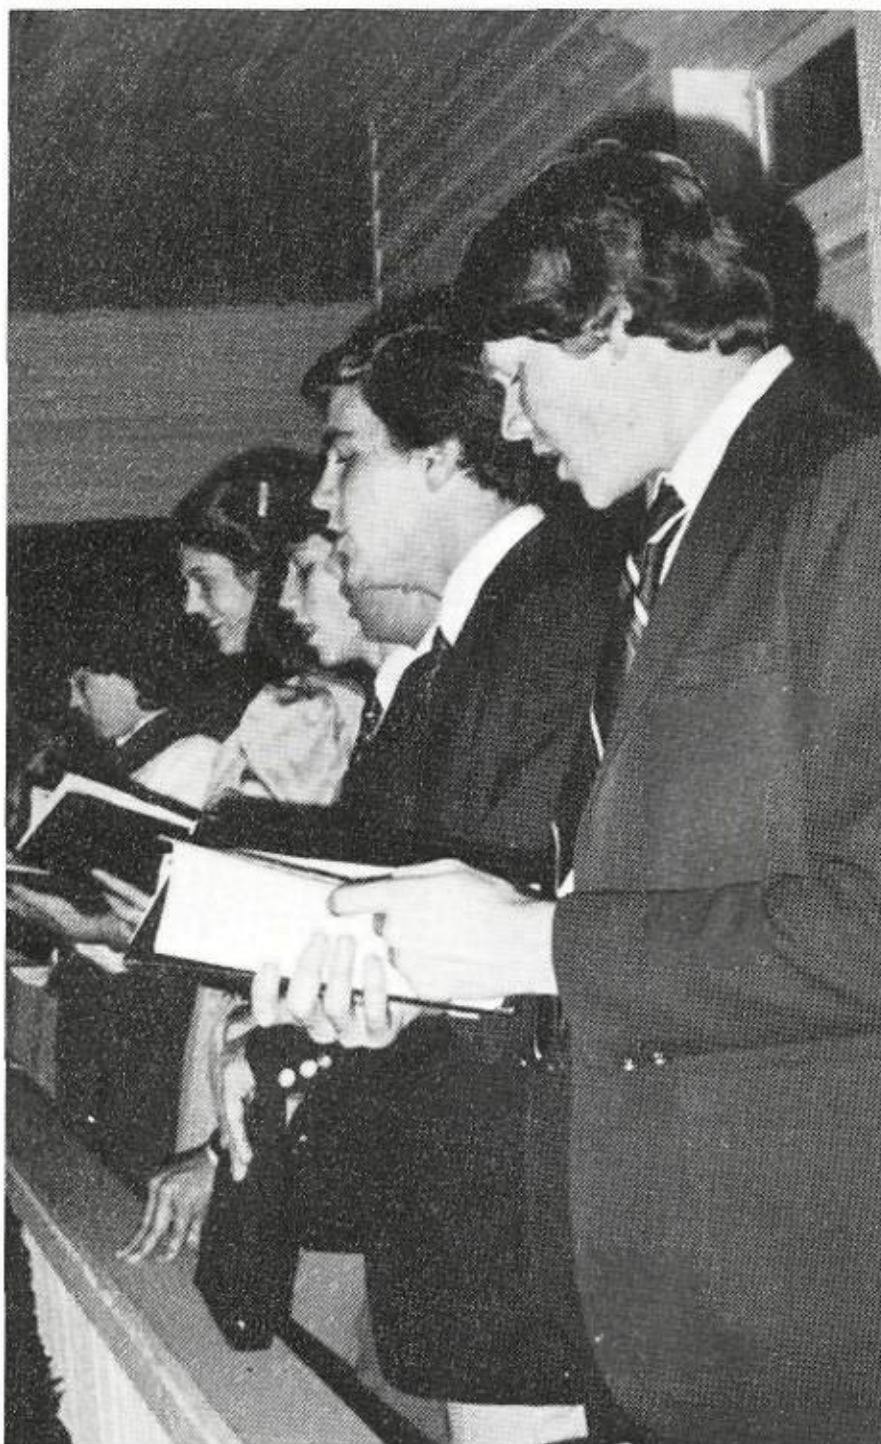

OFFICERS 1983-84 — Ben Trevino — President, Kelle Carden — Chaplain, Cynthia Derr — Vice President, Greg Smith — Sect/Treasurer.

Mr. McDaniel gets into the fun by singing along with Whitney Pittman.

Madrigal Choir Performs Like Magic

Cari Lamensky leads the Madrigal Choir as they sing at the Moore House, during a candlelight ceremony.

Daniel Jezek, Kathi Gonzales, Robin Talasek, Greg Smith, and Lori Reed perform at Fort Bend Fedral during the Christmas Holidays.

U.I.L. Winners

CLASS I SOLOS — Debbie Benes, Lisa Benton, Leah Haynes.

CLASS II AND III SOLOS — Monica Almendarez, Ginger Borowiak, Karen Dyer, Lyn Gardner, Kathy Gonzales, Katherine Johnson, Spencer Kern, CoCo McCoulskey, Lori Reed, Donna Slawinski, Sarah Steffee, Robin Talasek, and Sabrina Ward.

BOYS' ENSEMBLE — Daniel Jezek, Kenny Davis, Ben Trevinio, and Darin Wheeless.

Swing Choir; Promotes Songs Through Action

SWING CHOIR MEMBERS — Spencer Kern, CoCo McCoulskey, Debbie Benes, Kyle Donham, Cynthia Derr, Darin Wheelless, Whitney Pittman, Kenny Davis, Amy Montoya, Ben Trevino, Leah Haynes, and Chris Bullen.

Darin Wheelless and Whitney Pittman hold their position during their performance.

Kyle Donham and Darin Wheelless act like bulls during the Fair, so the Spanish dancers could perform.

Raising their arms for praise, Swing Choir relaxes after the number.

Swing Choir puts on a stunning performance for a greatful audience.

A trio of stars, CoCo McCoulskey, Whitney Pittman, and Ben Trevino.

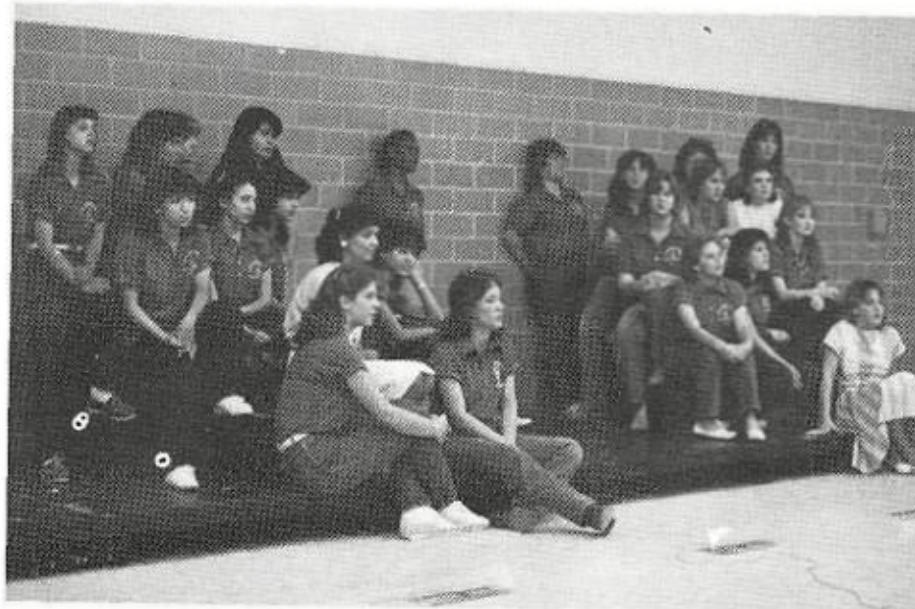

Dancing to the beat is Chris Bullen, Amy Montoya, Darin Wheelless, and Whitney Pittman.

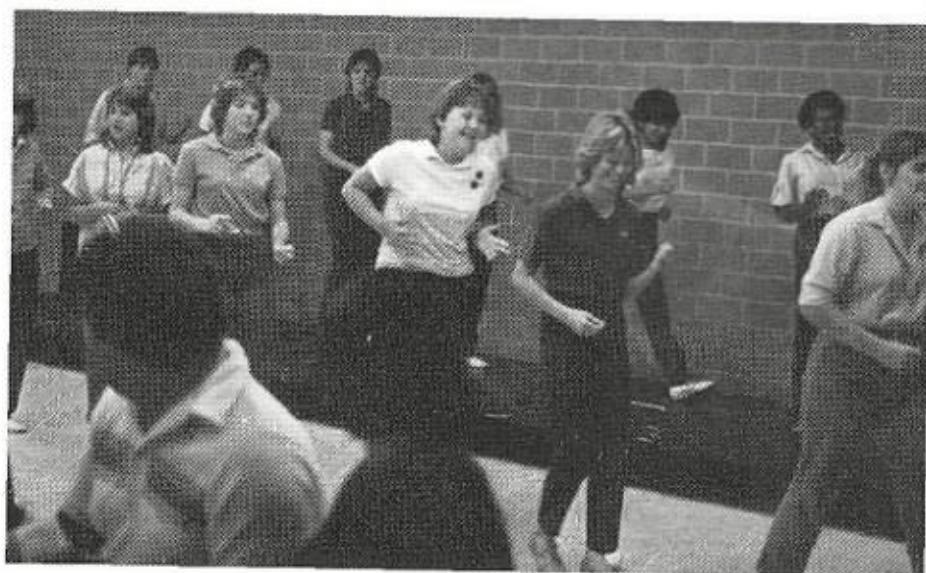

Lunch Periods Get Choir Treat

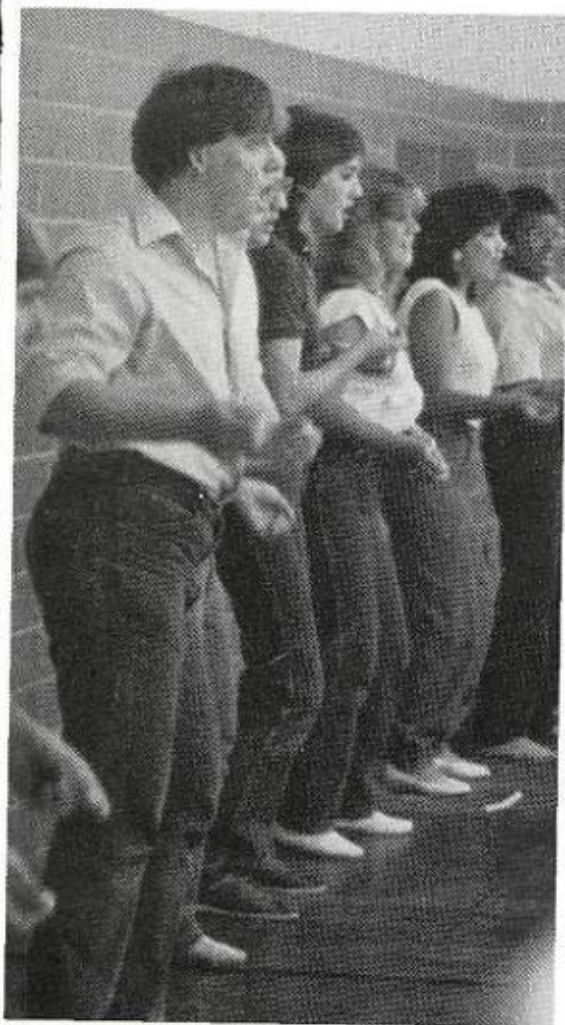

Felicia Swallers performs solo during the lunch periods.

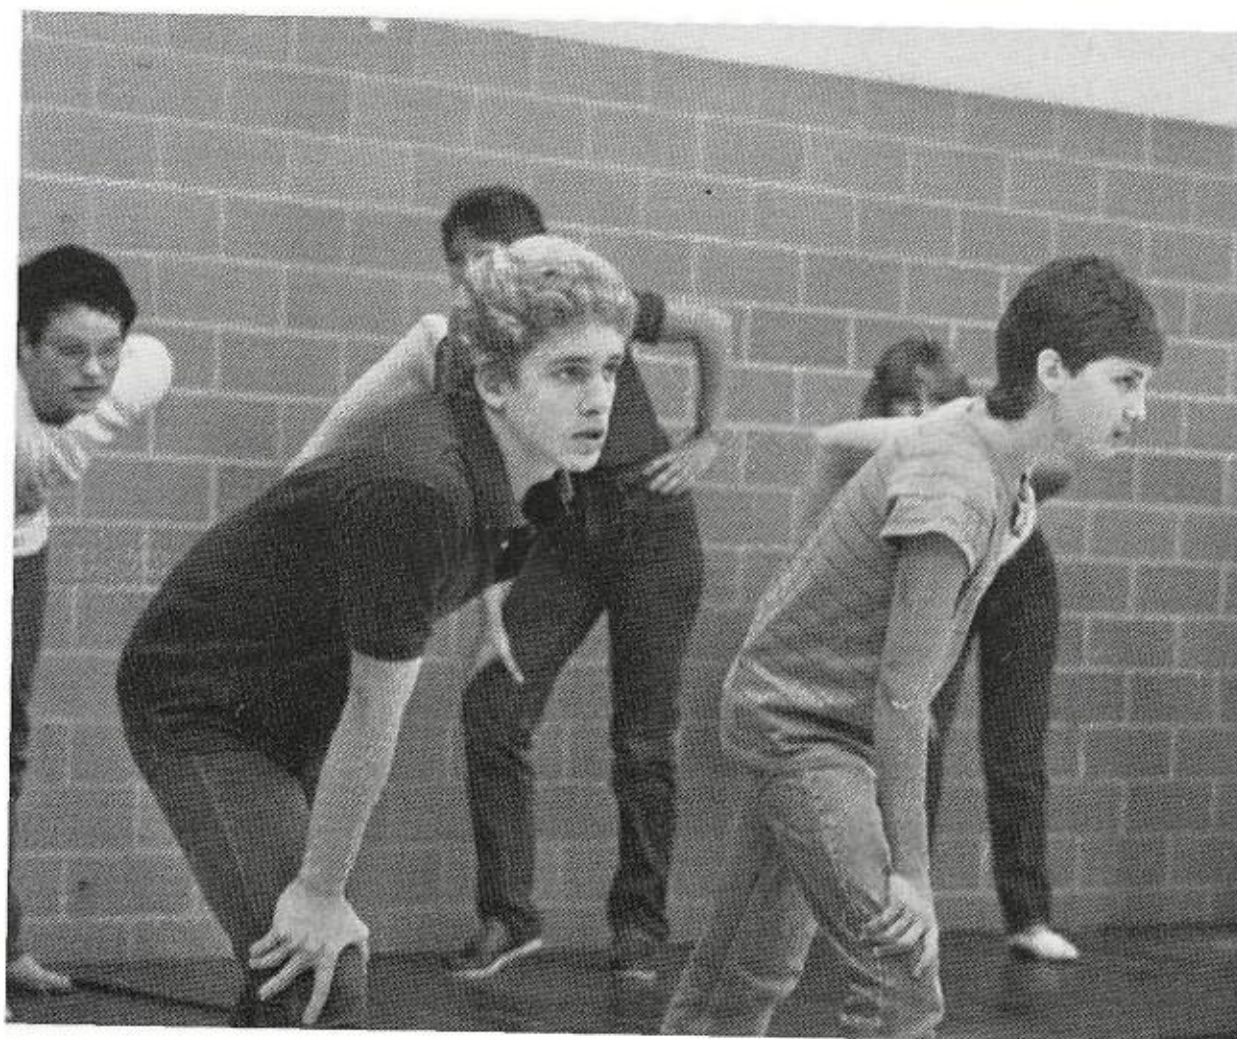

Treble Choir entertains as the lunch crowd looks on.

To keep in step, hours of practice were given by Concert Choir.

The big day had arrived when Concert Choir got to show off their talents to the students of Lamar.

Butterflies and all, Joey Slawinski and Victor Ochoa finally got enough courage to be on the front line.

A Smash Hit Becomes a Lamar

Layered in lace, Amber Brown stays in the character of the times by adding color and design to the production.

Catching the fancy of a packed house, Allison Lindblade (Dolly) makes all eyes turn while entering the restaurant.

Making notice of herself, Michele Smith (Ermengarde) throws a fit because she wants to get married.

Hello Dolly, the smash hit musical that was performed by Lamar High School Choir members and Thespian Club members, went off great. The elaborate costumes and the fancy makeup added to the performance of the musical. The cast and crew were a big help in the success of Hello Dolly. Organization, patience, and endless work is the key to a super musical. The musical always makes the school year an everlasting memory for the people involved and the people that watched it.

Cheery, like their costumes, Whitney Pittman (Ernestine Money), and Chris Allio, contribute their effort to the play.

In a delightful mood, Ben Trevino (Horace Vandergelder) explains to CoCo McCoulskey (Irene Molloy) about how they should go their different ways.

Making the musical authentic as possible, Julie Clark wears a costume which gives a professional glow to the stage.

Tradition of Good Taste

Impatiently waiting is Horace Vandergelder while wondering where Dolly is.

A duet to remember, Darin Wheelles (Cornelius Hackl) and Billy Spears (Barnaby Tucker) add entertainment to the presentation of Hello Dolly.

A way to make a living, Laura Britton (Rose) pushes her cart of flowers down the village street.

Savoring the memories, Dolly recalls her fond memories of her past.

Frozen in motion, Dolly exclaims her feelings to the audience.

During the musical, Brenda Slavinski (Front) and Donna Slavinski (Back) do a little horsing around.

Talented and Creative, Lamar Choir Students.

Arms held high, some of the Lamar High School choir members, sing and sway to a happy tune.

Friends forever, Leah Haynes, Cynthis Derr, and Debbie Benes, reminisce in the town square.

Decked out in black and white, Kevin Council, Lauren Hail, Joe Fendley, Monica Almendarez, Spencer Kern, and Julie Lane line up for the finale during a standing ovation.

A trio of stars . . . Joe Fendley, Dolly, and Chris Bullen

Many thanks should be given to Mr. McDaniel, choir director, Lamar H.S. choir students, and Thespian club members for the great job everyone did.

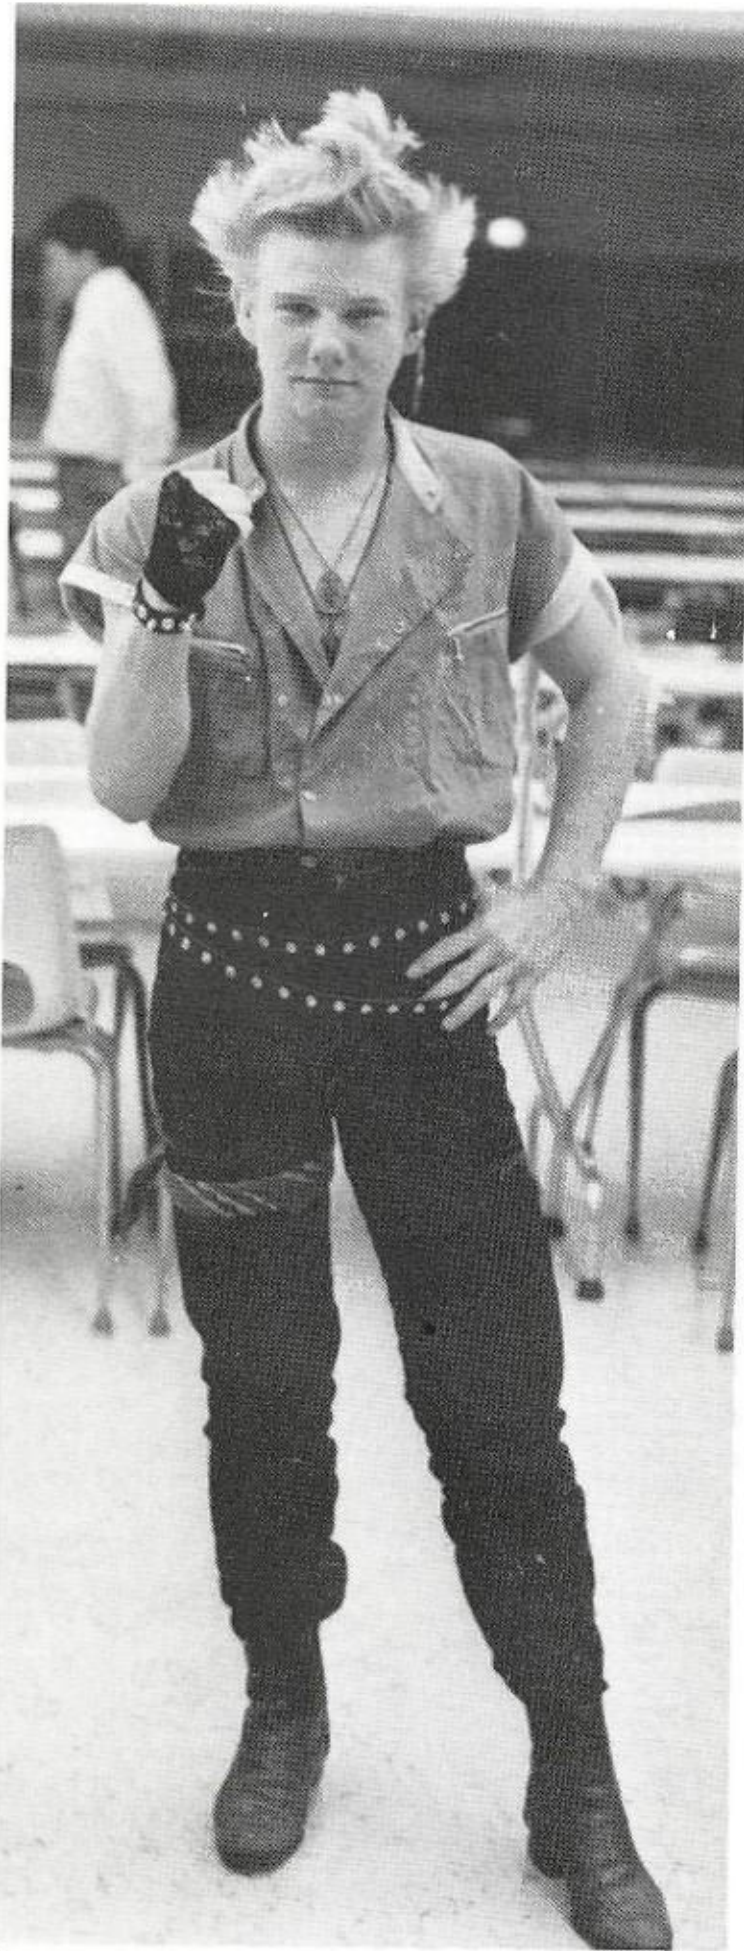

Dolly, with fluffy hat, and curley locks, puts her best into the musical.

Dolly gleams with success.

Choir Banquet, Another Success

Raised hand reveals the toughness of Kevin Council at the Choir Banquet.

In the Choir Banquet students dressed as rock singers and received awards for Beau, Sweetheart, Outstanding Dancer, Rookie of the Year, Potty Patrol, and Air Head.

Boy George, Billy Idol, Woody Allen, and Michael Jackson were some of the characters that appeared at the Banquet.

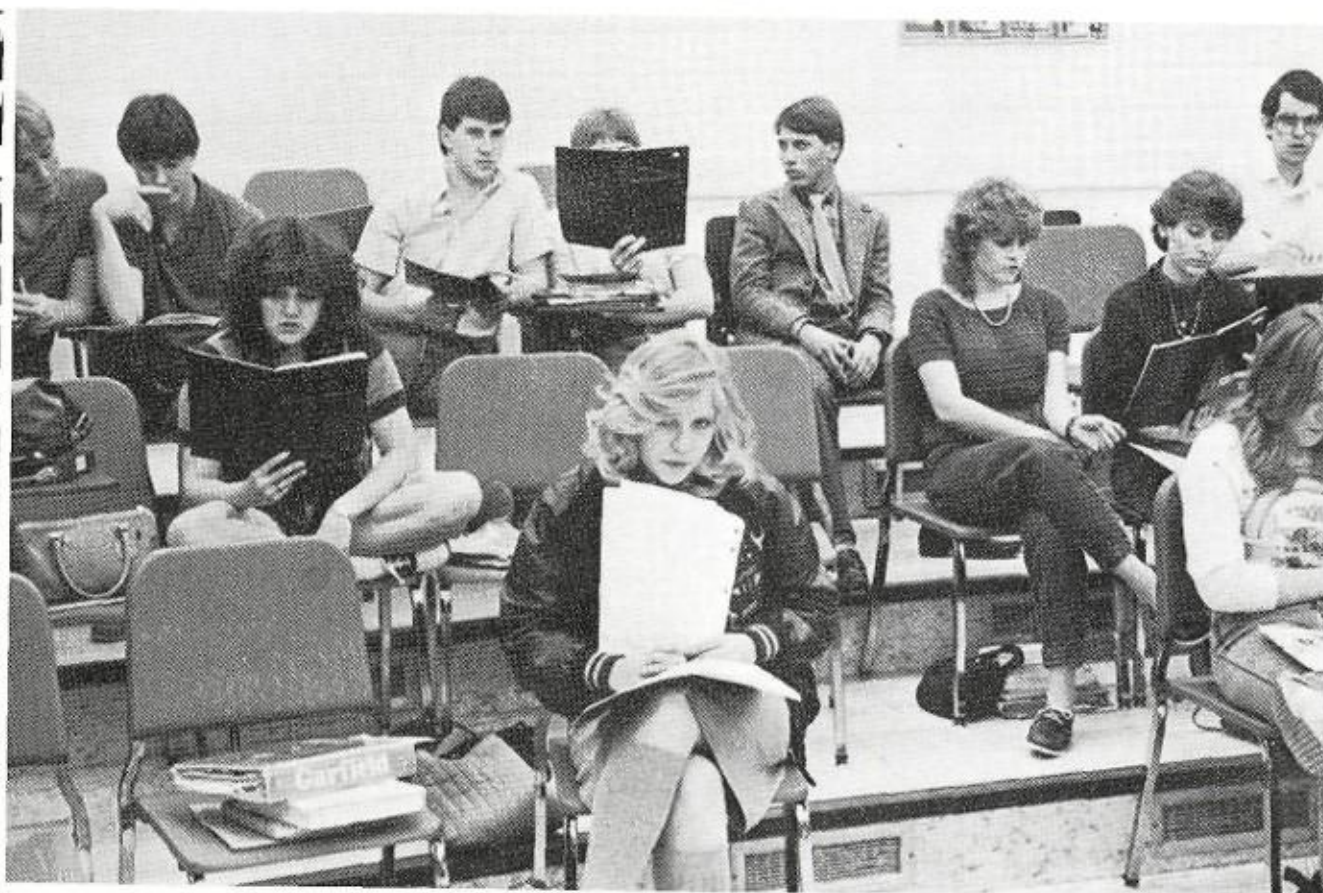

Heads and shoulders above everyone, Mr. McDaniel presents the awards.

Kyle Donham and Cynthia Derr deserve recognition for their outstanding awards of Beau and Sweetheart.

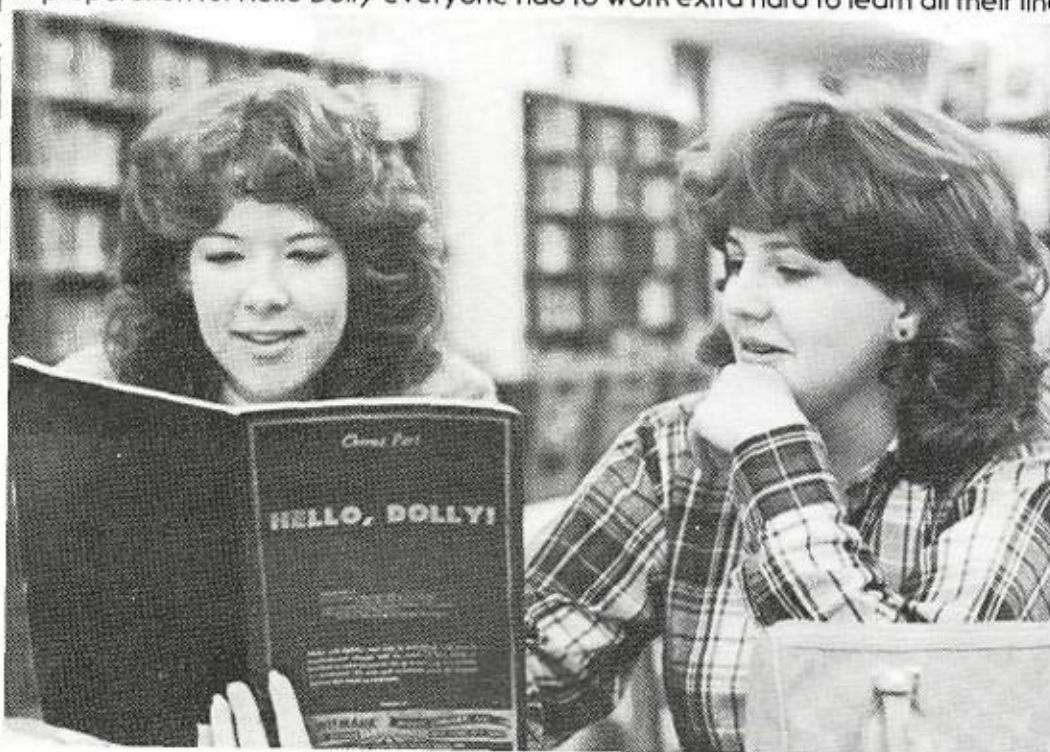

The Singers of the School!

In preparation for Hello Dolly everyone had to work extra hard to learn all their lines.

Concentrating, is Darin Wheelless of Madrigal Choir.

Laura Brittan, and Cynthia Derr, practice to make sure they have it right.

Weeks before the musical this was the scene, many hours of practice.

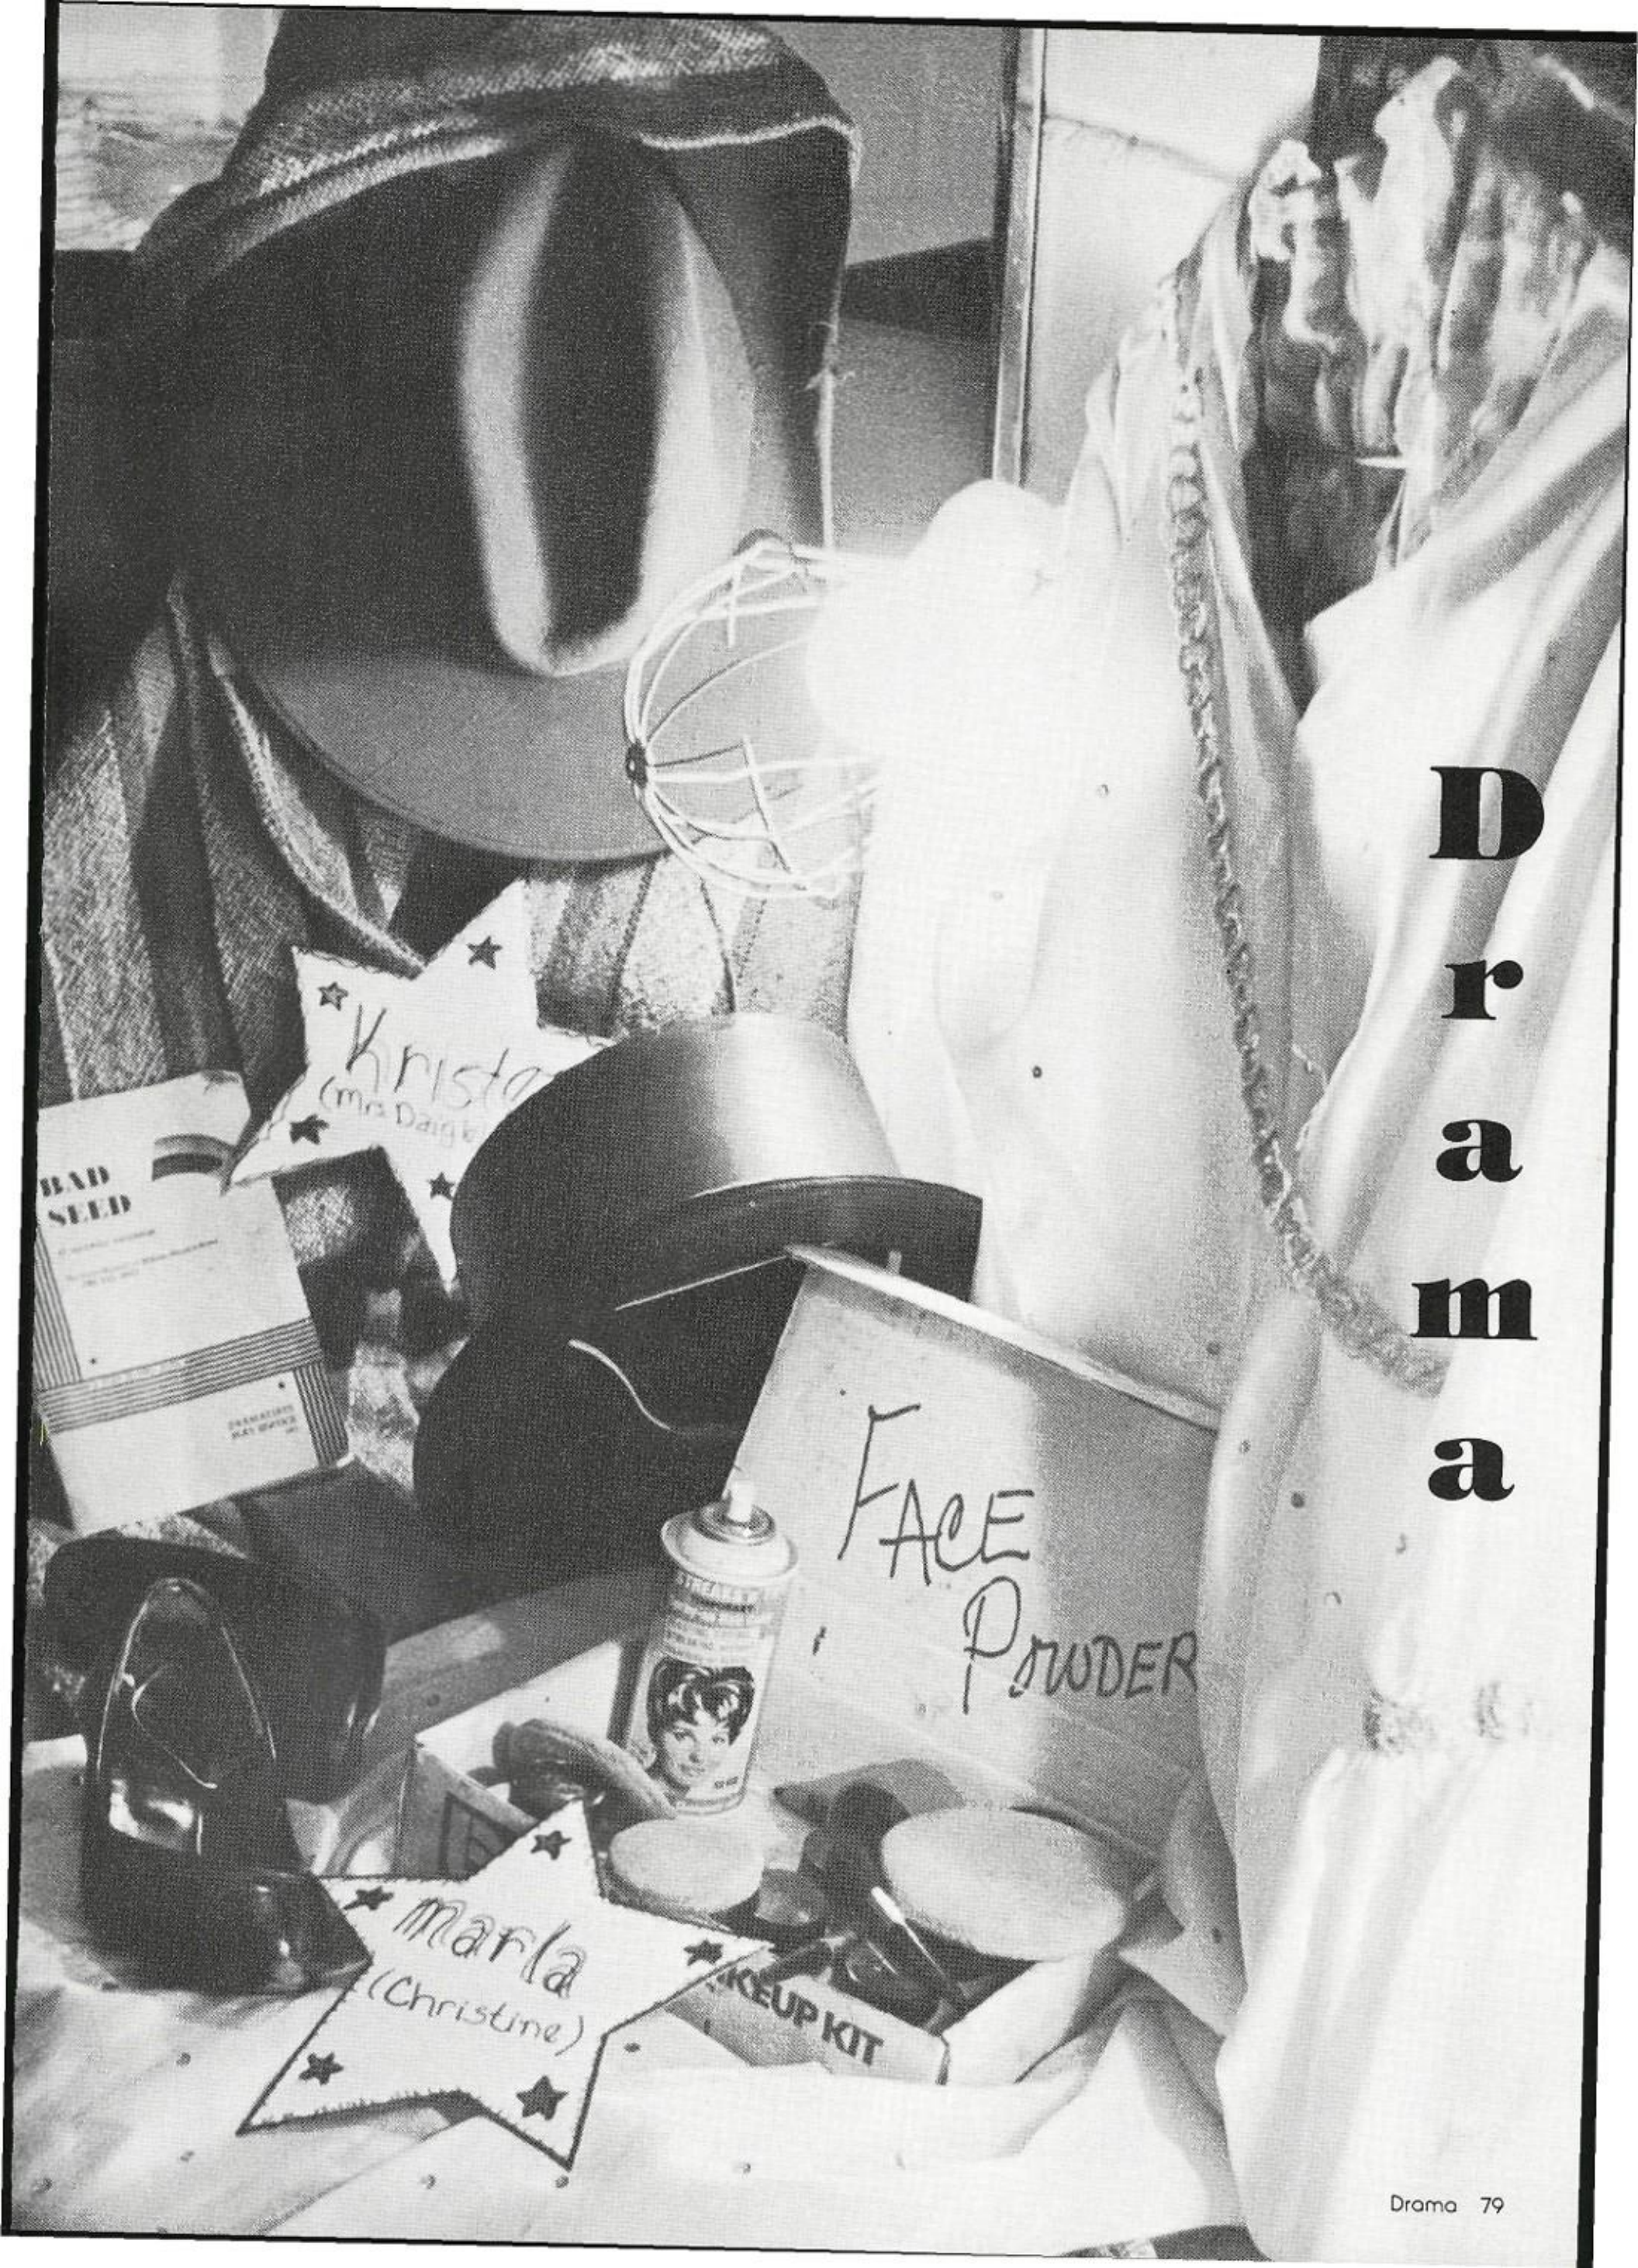

With hand in air, Mr. McDaniel shows his class which note they should be on.

Mr. McDaniel and Daniel Jezek look for the right sheet music.

Comedy Is One Thing. Quality Is Everything

Ivanha replies to Trudy, "What do you mean, you're not squirrely!"

Friar Fred asks Ivanha, "What's a woman?"

Viscera exclaims, "What do you mean this is not a Geoffrey Beene original?"

"Where's the beef?" asks Viscera.

"I won't let anyone hurt you Teddy!" says Viscera while Medulla looks on.

The Only Time You See Them at Their Worst

As Medulla glares from the background, Astrid declares "Oyez, Oyez, Oyez! All hail King Viscera."

"The Worst High School Play in the World" By Sir William Gleason

The story begins in the year 1243 A.D. and all is not well in the land of Saxonia. The King Isadore is off to the Crusades. In his place, his creep brother, Prince Viscera, brings sorrow and fear to every hearth. There is also joy in Saxonia, for Isadore has not only left town, but he has also left a son, Ivanha. Prince Viscera is plotting to do away with Ivanha, by employing Medulla. Ivanha's mother learns of the plot and takes her baby to the deep, dark forest where she leaves him with only a kiss and a royal diaper. Ivanha is raised by a family of squirrels. They teach him a deep love of nature. Then Ivanha is found by a friendly Friar who helps him regain his birthright. Then Ivanha meets Lady Lenore and the rest becomes history!

Stagehand, Belinda and Chester get stage experience during rehearsal and opening night.

Belinda and Rico play to an empty house during dress rehearsal.

Ivanha asks Lady Lenore, "Are you a woman?"

Friar Fred replies to Ivanha, "Babies come from watermelon seeds, Any more questions?"

The Talk of the School!

Jackie Modine, Shari Segers, and Yvette Melchor are wondering about "The end of the show."

Yvette Melchor replies, "I'm not a beautiful butterfly!"

Gail Gibson says, "Here comes da Queen!"

Jackie Modine and Shari Segers discuss what they are going to do with the spider (Jamie Keller) now that they have caught her.

"Play! I never want to hear that word again," exclaims Gail Gibson.

Jason Sweatt graciously accepts the award he received at the Drama Banquet for trying to be the club lover.

Mrs. Slowinski, better known as Mrs. S. is the Drama sponsor for the 1983-84 school year.

Future Stars of Braodway

Kenneth Salinas (Col. Kenneth Penmark), Sharon Scopel (Monica Breedlove), and David Neigsh (Emery Wages) suffer over the loss of Leroy.

Jason Sweatt (Leroy) is accusing Stephanie Zierke (Rhoda Penmark) of murdering Kristen Peterson's (Mrs. Daigles) son, but Rhoda thought she would get away with it before anyone would find out.

Rhoda, watching from behind, listens as her parents discuss their future.

Lamar Drama students went to U.I.L. with the play, The Bad Seed. Sharon Scopel made the All Star Cast, and Marla Mahlmann made honorable mention for the All Star Cast. These students also did a great job of performing the play during third period for the entire student body.

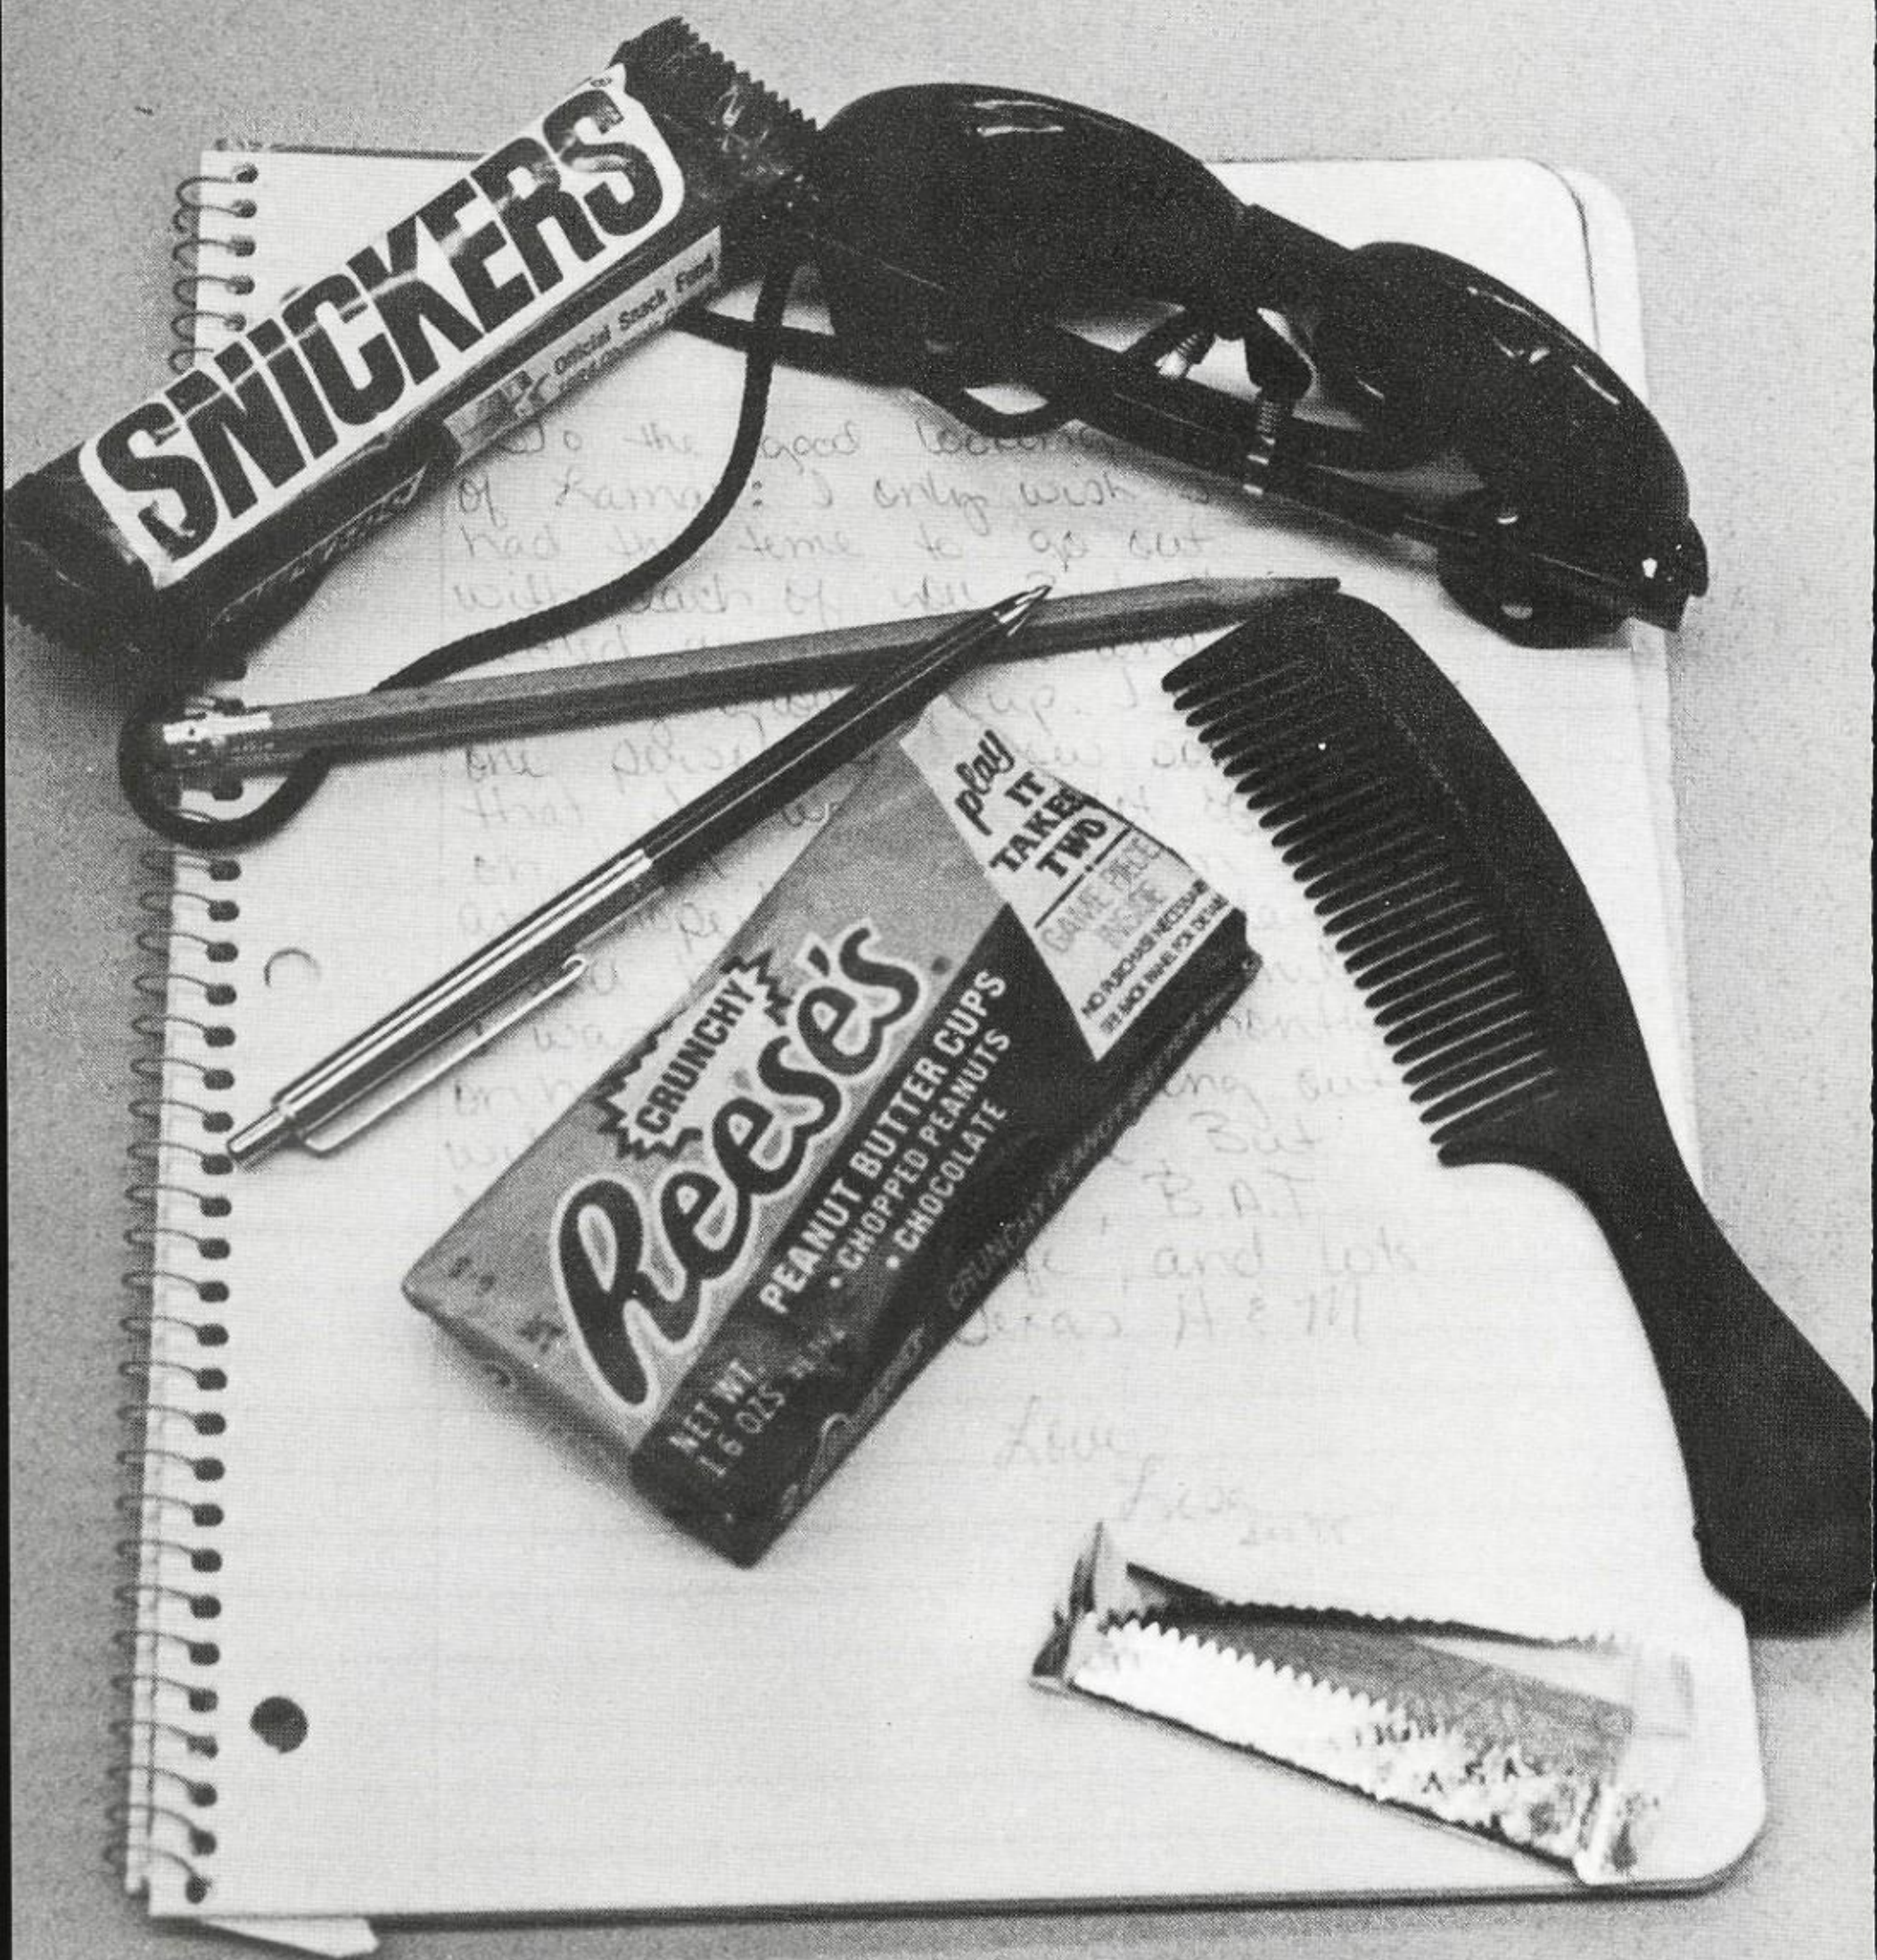

Christine panics over the loss of Leroy, while Monica tries to calm her.

A serious talk between father and daughter, Daniel Jezek (Richard Bravo) and Christine.

Making a nuisance of herself, Mrs. Daigle makes Marla Mahlmann (Christine Penmark) feel bad about her son's death.

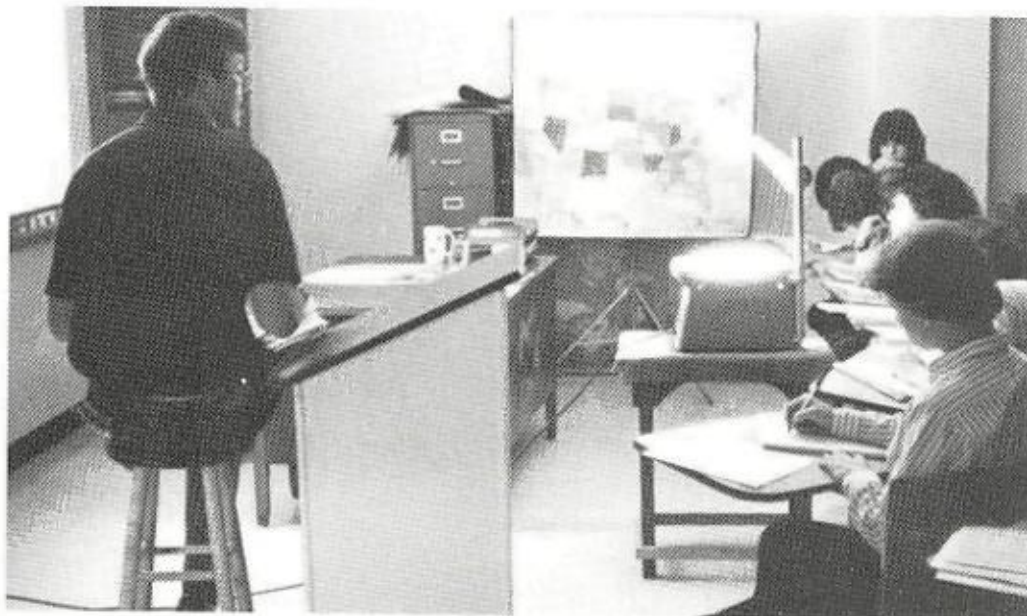

Travel and Excitement Within a Classroom

Students must have four years of English to graduate. They learn proper grammatical usage and apply this in writing paragraphs and themes. Students also learn to interpret and appreciate plays, poems, novels, and short stories by various famous authors.

It's an uneasy moment for Philip Gardousky as Mrs. Morris grades his test.

Mr. House keeps a close eye on everyone to see that they are taking notes from the overhead projector.

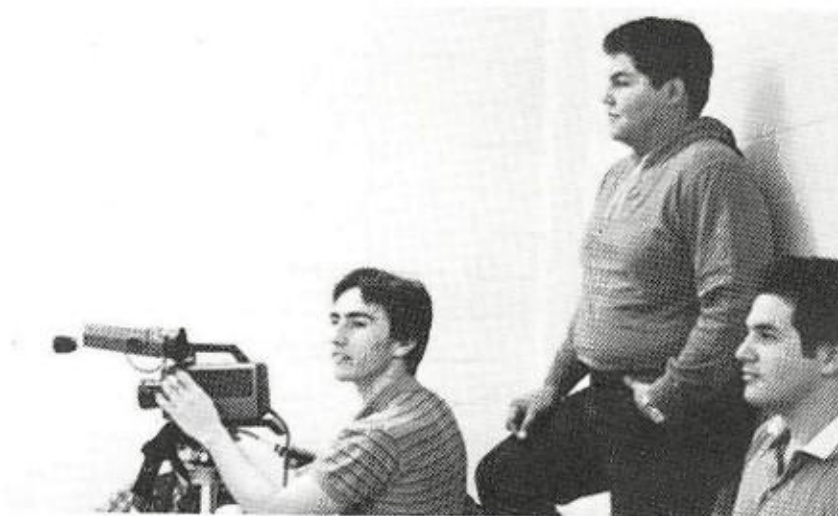

Mr. Wade tries to grade papers as Victor Ochoa and Thomas Dobbins are trying to get his attention.

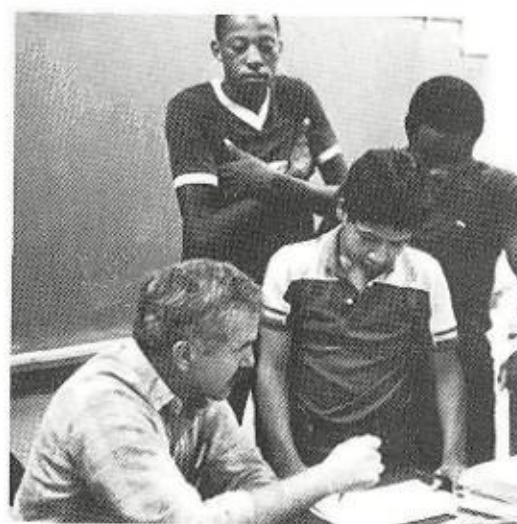

Students gather around Mr. House to see what he is working on.

English classes consist of research papers and the checking of note cards which are vital to passing.

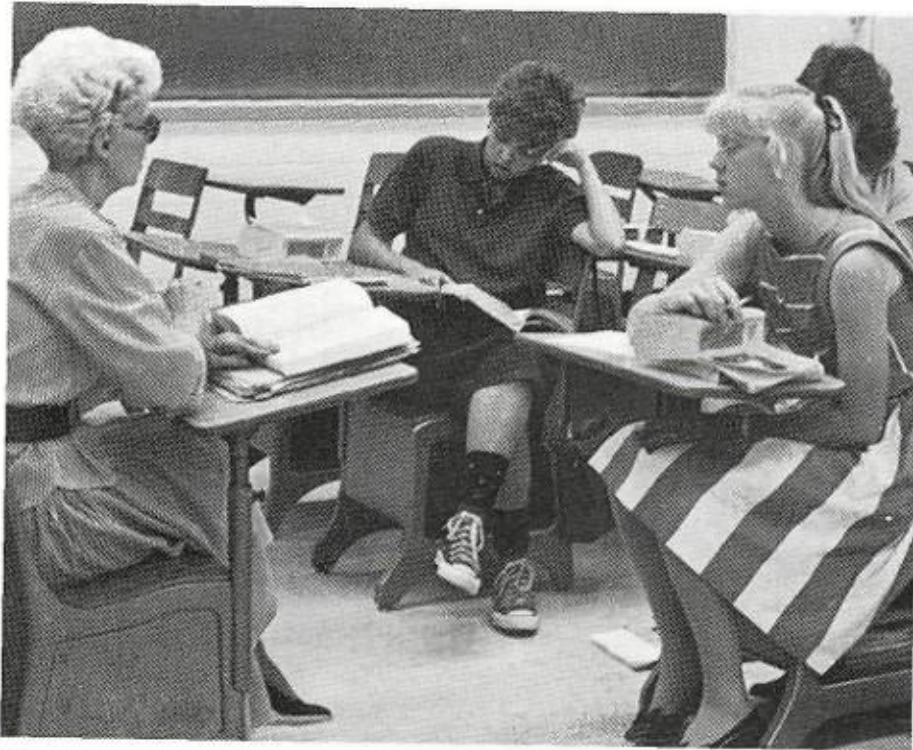

Roy Mixon puts on a show as Joel Aguilar and Ricky Acosta lean back and enjoy.

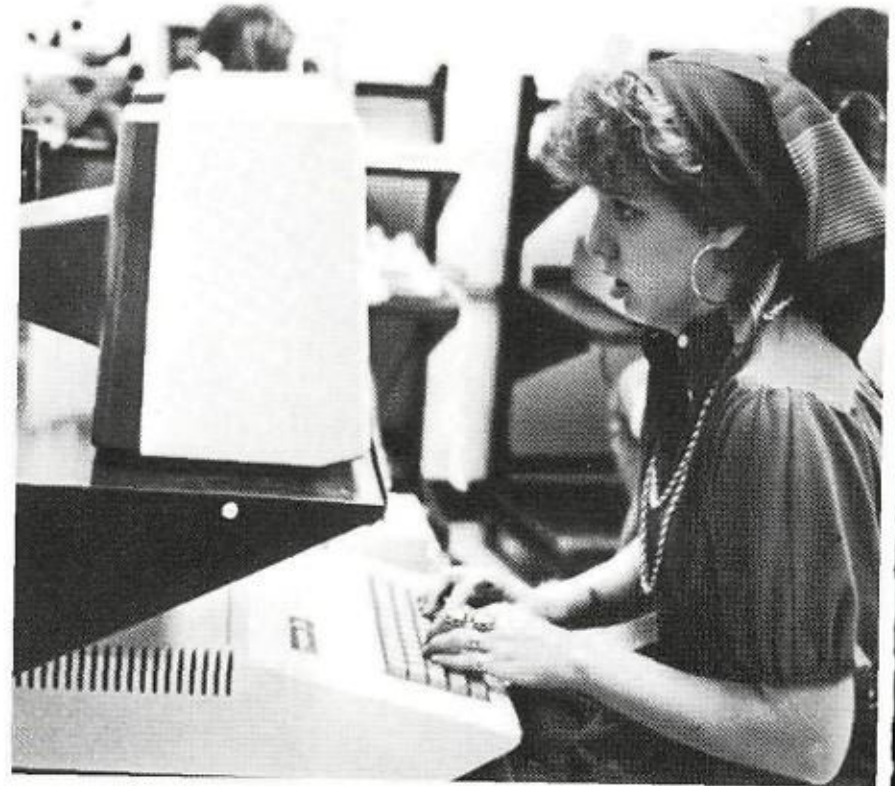

Mr. Sandifer helps Regulo Fernandez with his work as Derrick Daniels and James Harris wait in line.

English Expertise

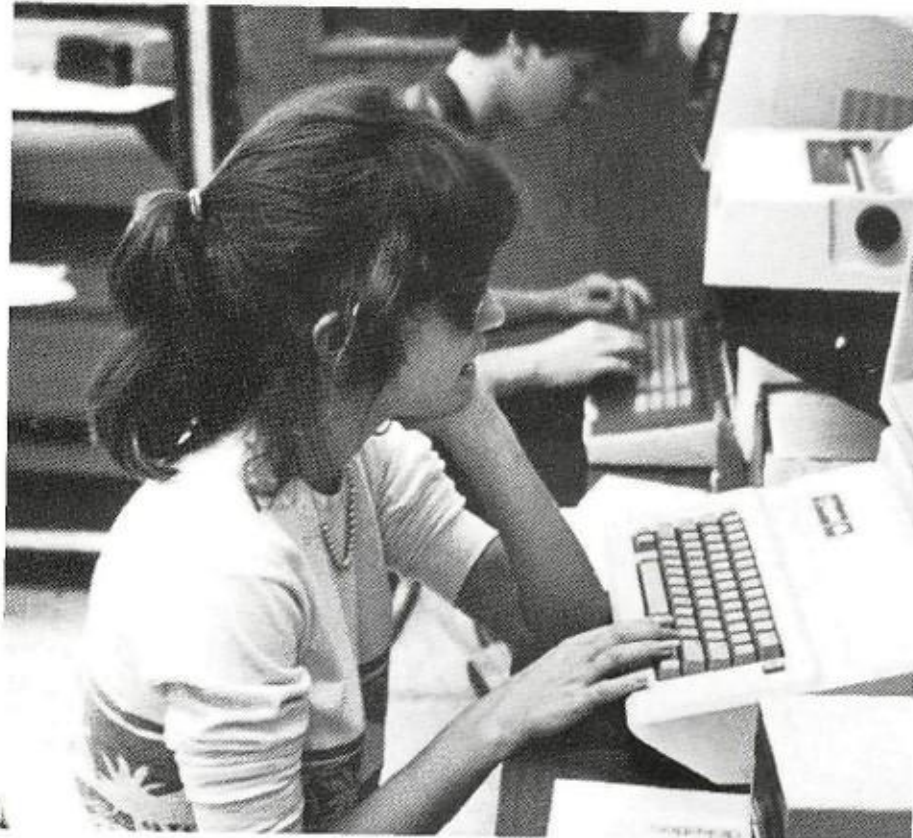

Wendy Hoefke and Melissa Blackburn find it hard to keep up with Mrs. Bowers.

The Gifted and Talented course is for students who do exceptionally well in English. Students work on computers and do many writing assignments such as research and creative writing. Reading criticism and strengthening the ability to reason and express oneself is also part of GnT.

Wendy Hoefke types in the input gypsy style.

Whitney Pittman sees the output on the computer through rose-colored glasses.

Mrs. Bowers checks Chris Colihan's procedure.

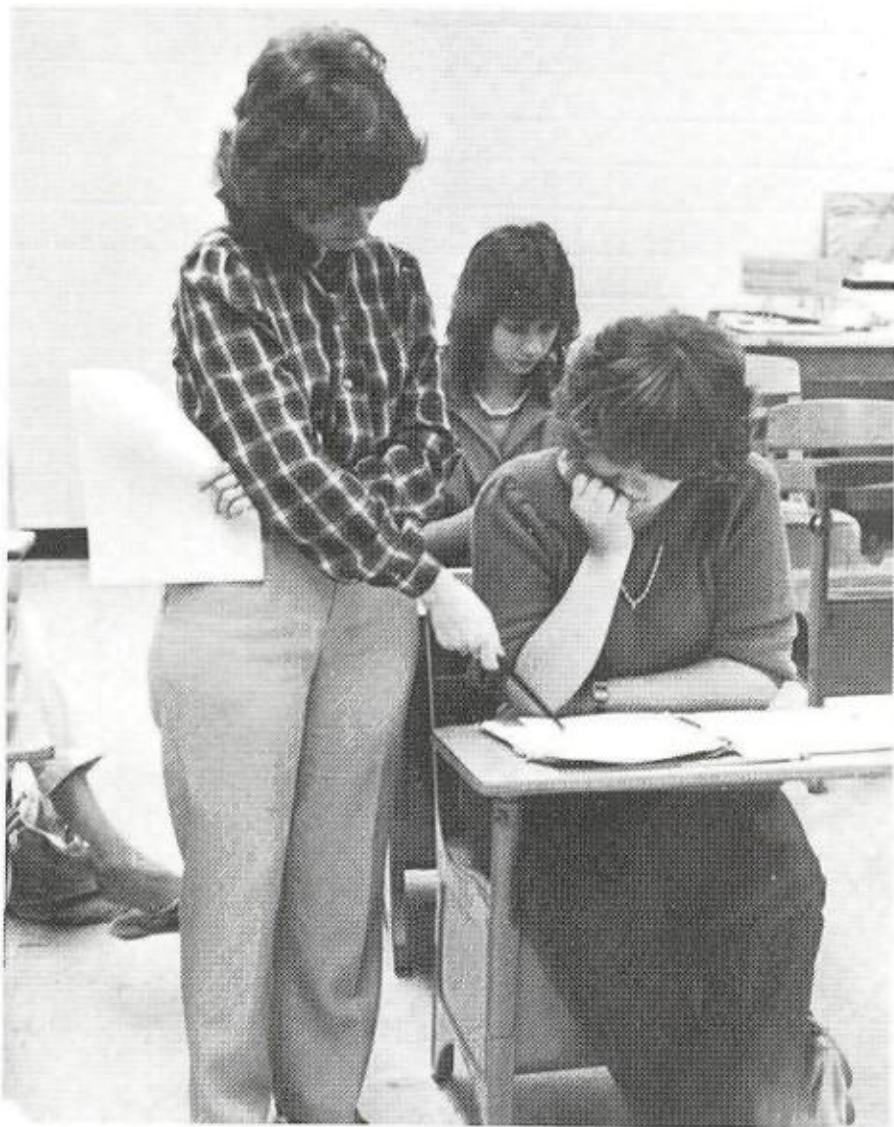

Keith Gresham observes Mr. Cooper's expertise on the computer.

Mrs. Bowers goes into great detail with her hand maneuvers as she talks to freshman GnT.

Languages, Nothing Like It in the World

Latin, French, Spanish, and German are the four foreign languages offered at Lamar High School. Students are taught to read and listen to the language while fully comprehending the context of it. Emphasis is placed on correct pronunciation and doing short written work such as conversations.

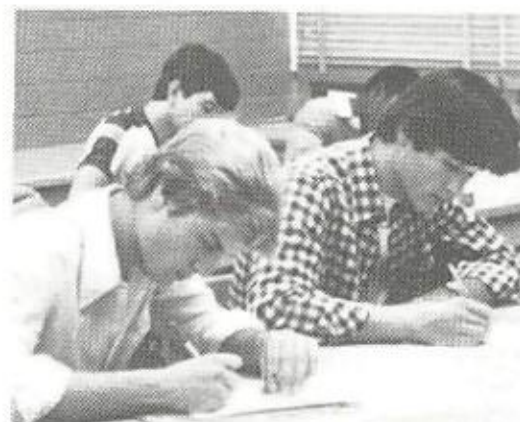

Mrs. Schumaker points out to Cheryl Vincent the right way to answer the question.

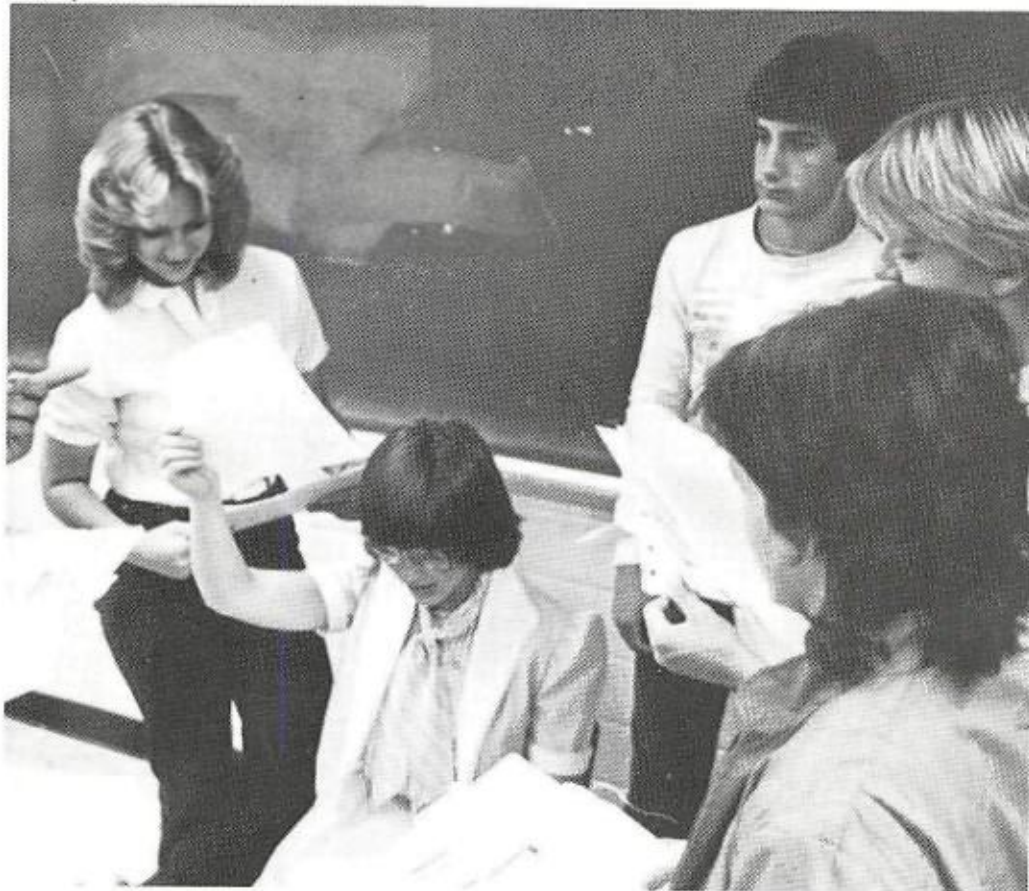

It takes group effort to make a piñata.

Carl Fries and Keith Edwards work on their German class work.

Mrs. Schumaker hands out papers to be put in the student's Latin folders.

Mrs. Feinstein watches her class as they wreck her desk.

Science, the Curiosity Satisfier

Physical Science, Biology, Chemistry and Physics are the science courses offered at Lamar High School. In each course students expand their knowledge on why things behave as they do. To graduate, students must acquire two years of science.

Laura Gritczek reads the lab procedure and directs Heather Slatter on how to set up the pulley system.

Randy Paiz and Priscilla Rodriguez stand aghast at the stinking fumes.

Kim Zwahr carefully does a lab on phorosisynthesis.

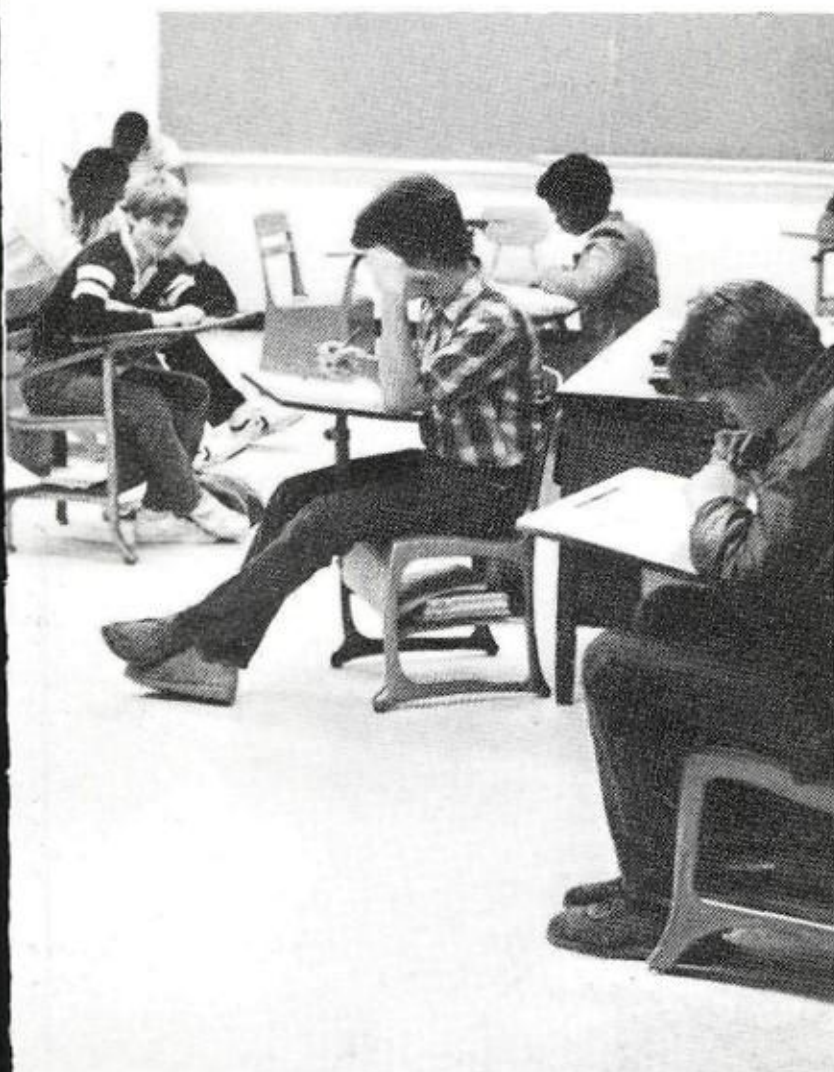

Miss Majors shows Cary Lamensky and Srven Zierke how to do their assigned work.

DiDi David attentively studies the microscope searching for the cork cell.

Historical Facts Become Student Memory Work

World History is taken freshman year. Students learn of events in historic periods of the past and to the present day. American History consists of the study of social, political and economic events and is taken in the junior year. Government is taken in the senior year and students acquire a strong understanding of the American political system.

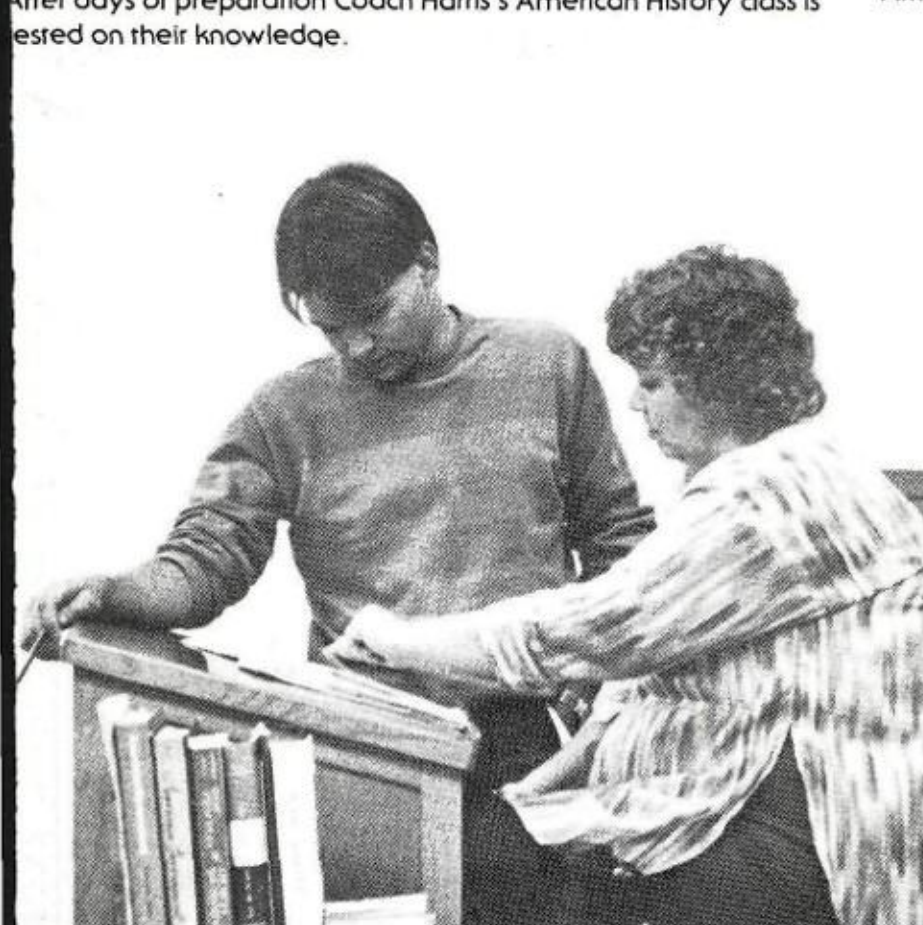

After days of preparation Coach Harris's American History class is rested on their knowledge.

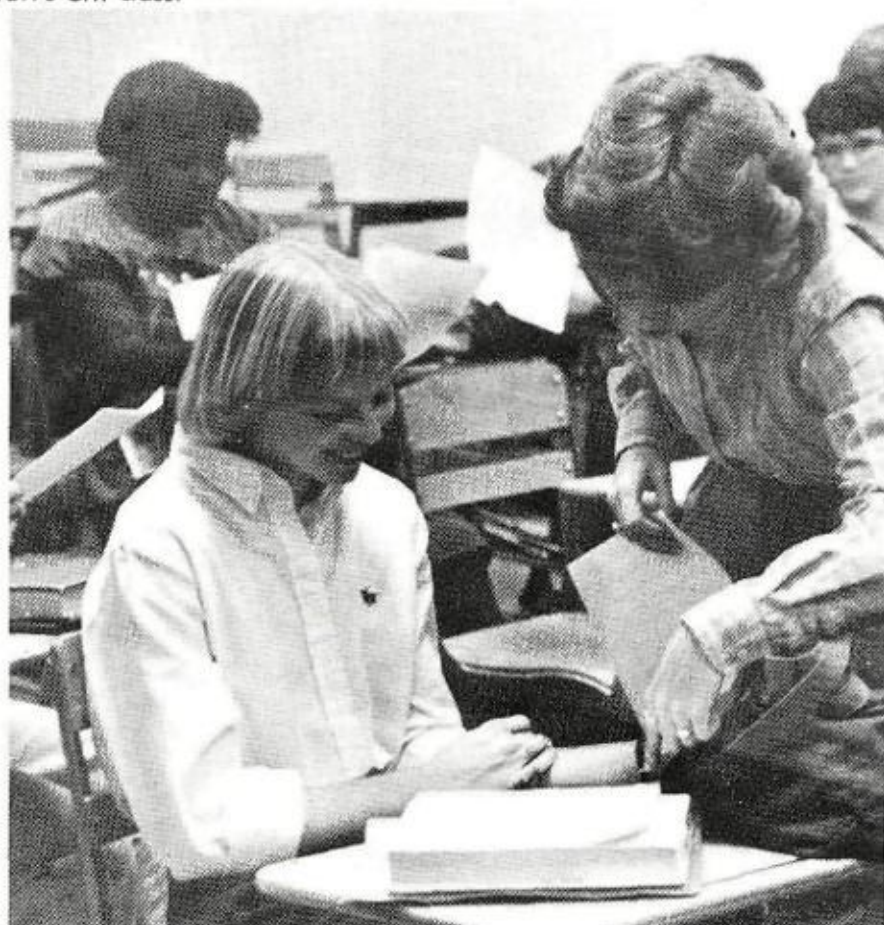

Mr. McDaniel class listens on as he lectures about the many problems in Government.

Receiving advanced knowledge on their American History is Mrs. Arrington's GnT class.

Mrs. Leischeski helping Donald Strainoha solve a puzzling question in Government.

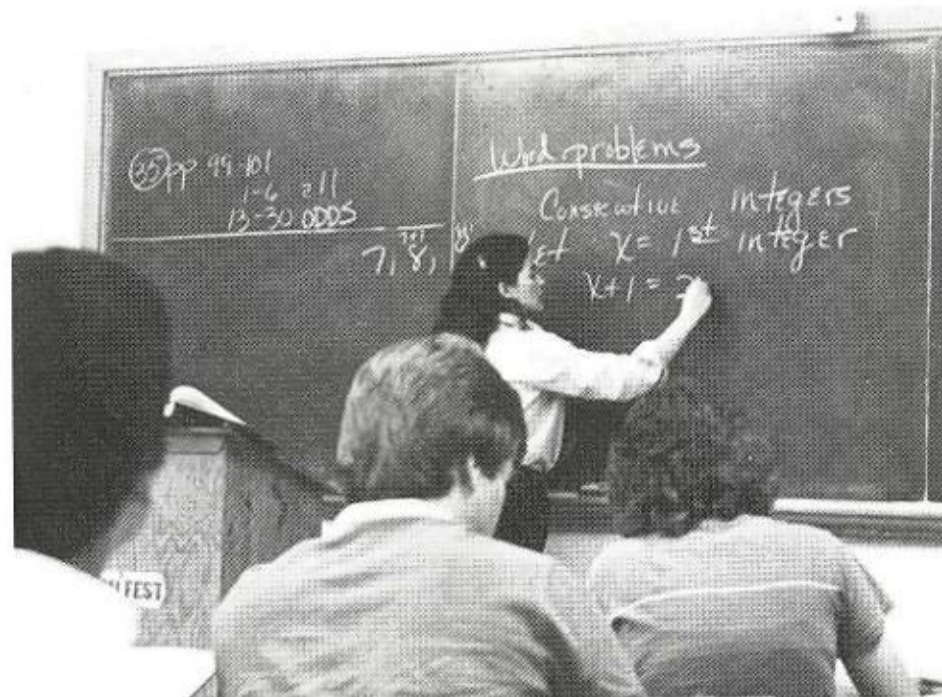

Kim Kilkhorst getting some important advice on World History from Mrs. Peschel.

Dealing With Variables, Angles, and Formulas

Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Elementary Analysis, and Calculus are some of the math courses offered to students. The various math subjects cover a wide range of topics including equations and factoring, polynomials, lines and planes, angles, and graphings. Students planning to attend college should take as many math courses as possible.

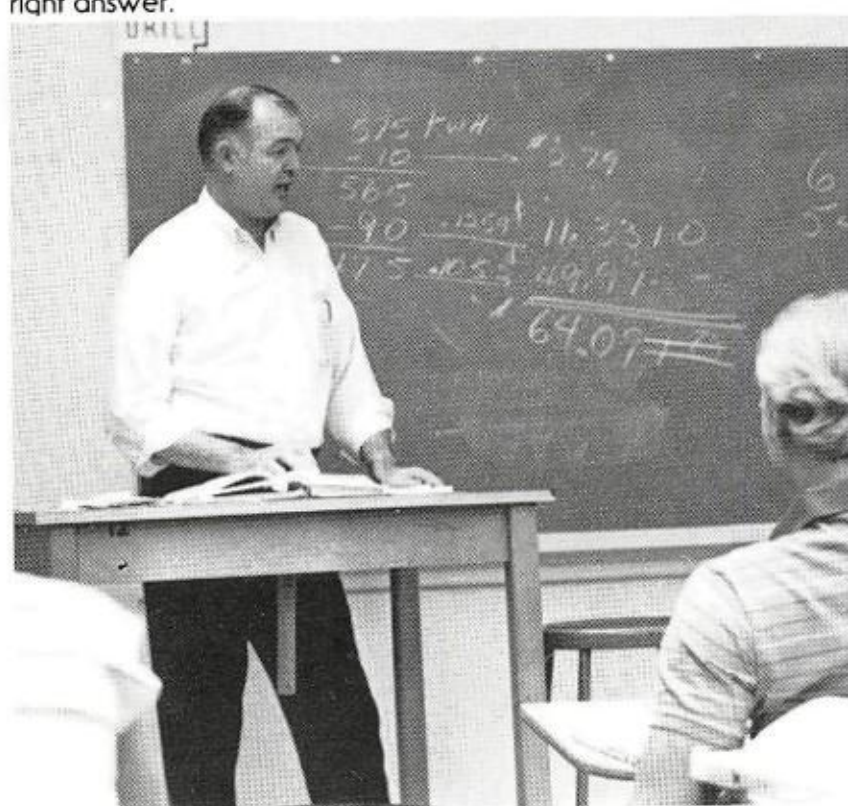

Janet Crosby erases her mistake after discovering the right answer.

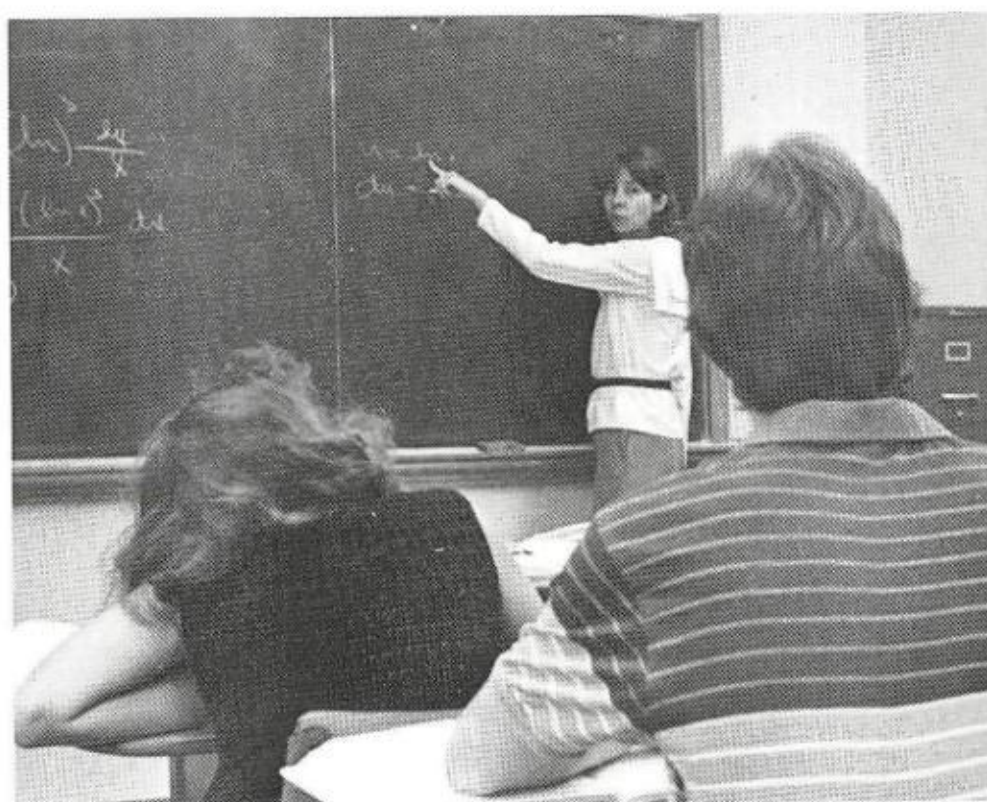

Miss Ramirez demonstrates the correct way to set up an consecutive integer story problem.

Forest Bible thinks out the difficult problem.

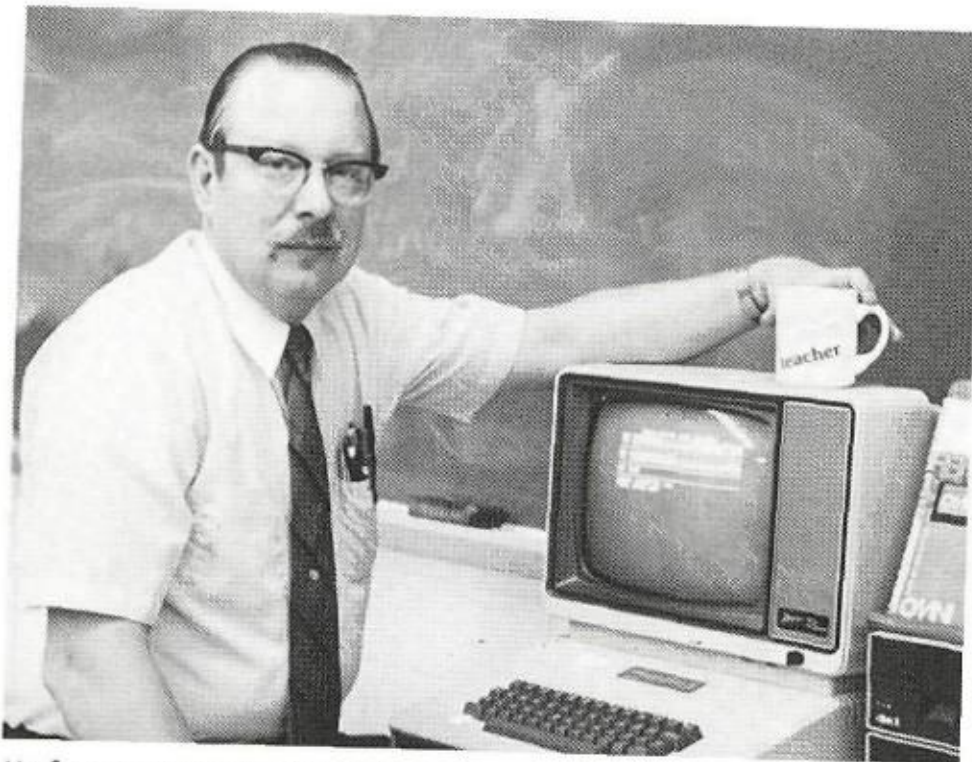

Mr. Hayes explains the F.O.M. lesson to his class.

Inside Our Administration, Competence

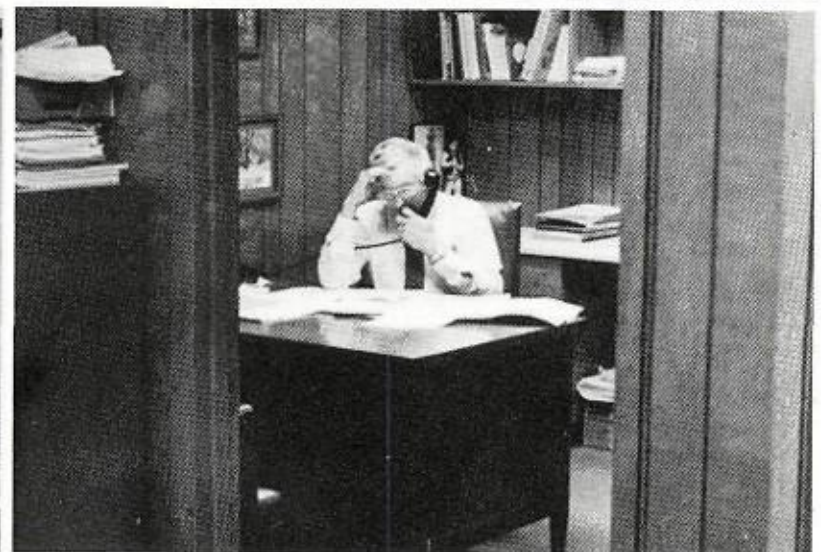

Superintendent of schools Mr. J. W. Booher stands tall and ready for action. A man who likes to know what is going on he stops off at Lamar High to check out the new computer room.

A few patrons look on as the Lamar School board goes on with the business of paying bills and going through a normal agenda. This year the board is under the direction of Mr. Dan Krenk (center).

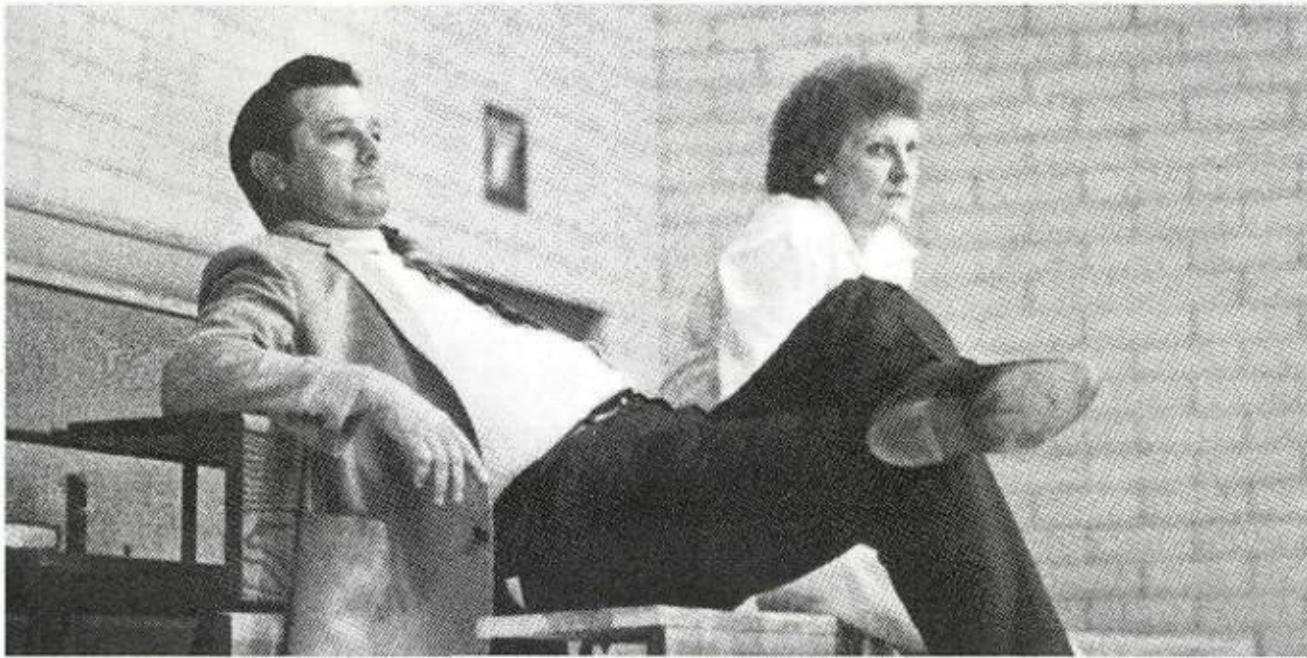

The pulse of the Lamar Independent School District calmly goes about its beat with the monthly meetings of the school board. Along with paying bills, an occasional patron (taxpayer) comes before the board for a voice and opinion. As it should be, the school board caters to the desires of the taxpayer within the guidelines from the state. The superintendent gets his directions from the board and works with his support personnel to make our district a smooth functioning organization. With HB. 246 and recommendations from the super state committee on education, chaired by H. Ross Perot, education from this point will be different.

Ancient Times Through Junior Classical League

Mrs. Morris exclaims her feelings about how much she is worth at the J.C.L. auction.

With her beauty and grace, Norma Toman was third runner-up in the Fair Beauty Queen Contest.

As usual the J.C.L. led an active year through the sponsorship of Mrs. Shumaker. Because of the prosperous group, they were able to have Ice Cream parties, nights-out and other fun activities.

J.C.L. Sponsor Mrs. Shumaker helps out at a bake sale.

With endless waving, Roann Ohl goes the distance with an endless smile.

Although there's not a line to prove it, the J.C.L. Love-A-Grams were a big success.

After selling tickets for the fair J.C.L. takes time to enjoy pizza at Rosarios.

Adding a special flavor of fun to the entertainment Gina Parthum became a colorful party delight.

German Club Sponsor, Mrs. Wagoner

GERMAN OFFICERS — (Row 1) Michael Beauchamp, William Johnson, Hist.; Arthur Chavarria. (Row 2) Susan Starrett, Treas.; Guy Brown, Pres.; Carl Fries, Vice Pres.; Keith Edwards; Laura Gritzcek, Sec.

SPANISH OFFICERS — Stacy Segers, Treas.; Ruth Allen, Sec.; Mrs. Ellefsen, Sponsor; Wendy Hoefke, Vice Pres.; Heather Mastererson, Pres.; Christine Uresti, Pub.

The foreign languages offered here at Lamar are German, Spanish, and French Club. It is soon to be required that in order for a student to graduate from high school they must take two years of a foreign language.

The German Club is for students interested in the language and culture. Along with the help of the sponsor, Mrs. Wagoner, the German Club had many outside activities such as trips, conventions, contests, and banquets.

The Spanish Club held many activities such as dining out at various places. They frequently participated in meetings and trips. With the help of the sponsor, Mrs. Ellefsen, the club had a spectacular year.

The French Club held their first annual Tour de France this year around the grounds of Lamar. The sponsor, Mrs. Feinstein led the French Club to an exciting year.

The Foreign Languages all helped in this year's Progressive Dinner as it was a huge success. Students from both Lamar and Terry participated in the Dinner and at the Volleyball game held in the Girl's Gym.

FRENCH OFFICERS — Mrs. Feinstein, Sponsor; Tammy Brewer, Pub.; Kari Granville, Pub.; Chris Coffing, Hist.; Keith Gresham, Treas.; Heather Mastererson, Hist.; Billy Spears, Pub.; Wendy Hoefke, Sec.

The Secret of Being International, Languages

The students all gather around the Student Lounge to watch while French Club entertains during Foreign Language Week.

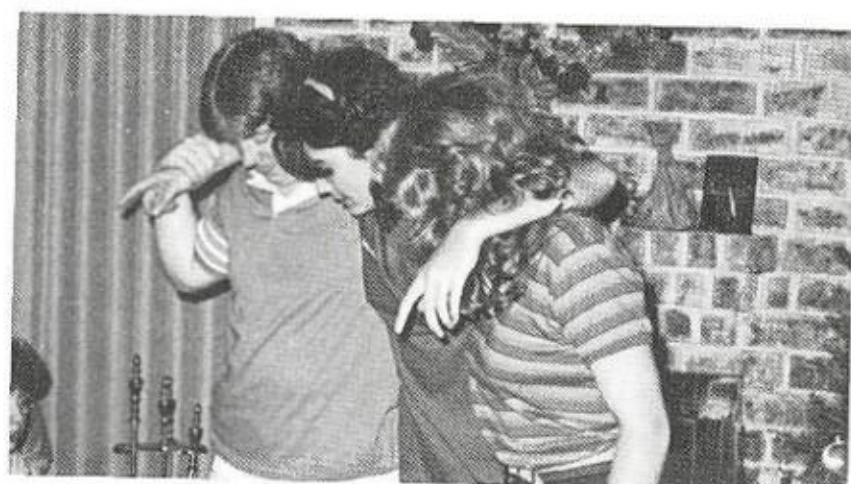

Mrs. Ellefsen assists Darrin Wheelles and Coco McCoulsky as they sing for the progressive dinner.

During the German rootbeer drinking contest Macky Amenderez and Curtis Grant quickly drink while blindfolded.

Mrs. Feinstein draws a sign that announces Viva la France.

Billy Spears, Dia Marrow, and Jill Pavlu join together at the French Club Christmas party.

LAMART! Puttling a Little Fun in Your Art.

LAMART Sponsor, Mrs. Haygood

The LAMART Club gives an opportunity for students to work together in an art oriented atmosphere, to bring art awareness to students, faculty and community, with the help of the LAMART sponsor Mrs. Haygood, the students had contests, speakers, and bake sales. Their motto: "To make beautiful all that is before me."

Writer's Refine Talent in Penman Group

A new addition to Lamar's clubs was the Young Writer's Club, a club to encourage creative writing among Lamar High students interested in writing. The full name of the club PENMAN (People Engaged in Novice Manuscripts and Novels) is to provide support for young writers, to gain information on publishing and to explore the future in writing. The club's motto: "Today's Novice writers become tomorrow's best sellers." With the help of the PENMAN Sponsor, Mrs. Haygood, the club members learned the pros and cons of the magazine world.

Thespians, a Joining Place for Drama Students

THESPIAN OFFICERS — (Front) Stephanie Zierke, Pres. (Back) Kristen Peterson, Sec.; Heidi Hancock, Vice Pres.; Laura Brittan, Soc. Chairman; Sharon Scopel, Clerk.

While entertaining at the Thespian Banquet Laura, Stephanie, Sharon, and Mrs. Slawinski enjoy singing to the members.

Heidi Hancock graciously receives her award for perfect attendance at the Thespian Banquet.

The Thespian club members devoted their time to working and practicing in plays. Some members were in this year's musical, while others helped during intermission. The members attended many meetings that were held throughout the year. To further the purpose of the advancement of the dramatic arts in secondary school's is what all the Thespians hope to accomplish.

Thespian Sponsor: Mrs. Slawinski.

Lions Club Award Winners

The Lion's Club Awards are recognition awards given by teachers for outstanding work in a given subject. If there are several teachers in an area the teachers will get together and decide which student rises above the rest. This can also be done through a series of tests in combination with the attitudes, and work habits of the students. These students are then invited by the Lions Club to a noon dinner at the country club where they are recognized and commended for their efforts.

Competition Gets Tough, and So Do We

U.I.L. competition occurs throughout the year, though most of the contests are held at the end of the school year. Contests range from sports to literary events. This year we had five literary contestants win the district title, and go on to regional competition. Pictured in the upper picture are these winners: Christie Ludwig, Typing; Lisa Gardovsky, Spelling; Lisa Landry, Ready Writing; and Kahla Oliver and Lisa Villers, Debate. In the lefthand picture is Christie Ludwig who was the only Lamar student represented in the state contest, there she came in fourth overall. Among our sports competitors were Melissa Blackburn and Elaine Acker (below), who went to regionals after winning the district crown for tennis. These as well as other U.I.L. winners should be congratulated on their success.

SEPARATE WAYS

(Worlds Apart)

Words and music by S. Perry and J. Cain

Here we stand
Worlds apart, hearts broken in two sleepless nights
losing ground
I'm reaching for you

Feelin' that it's gone
can change your mind
If we can't go on
To survive the Tide, Love divides

Someday love will find you
Break those chains that bind you
One night will remind you how we touched
And went our separate ways
If he ever hurts you
true love won't desert you
You know I still love you though we touched
and went our separate ways

Troubled times
caught between confusion and pain
Distant eyes
Promises we made were in vain

If you must go, I wish you love
you'll never walk alone
Take care my love
Miss you love

I still love you girl
I really love you girl
And if he ever hurts you
True love won't desert you
No — No —

You Can't Take Your Eyes Off It!

During a television interview for C-Span, Jan Harlen was able to ask William Colby, Former CIA director, a question.

The Lincoln Memorial was just one place on Cynthia Derr and Jill Henry's list of places to visit.

Some Lamar students gather in the hall of the Sheraton National to do some light reading and visiting before bedcheck.

Our Texas, Mr. R. McDaniel, misplaced from his group, listens to the guide about the historical galley of a ship.

The 10th annual Close-Up trip to Washington D.C. took place the week of December 11-17. A total of 36 students attended. Mr. W. Hicks, Mr. R. McDaniel, and Mr. B. Kell went as sponsors. The group participated in group discussions, lectures, and seminars. In Washington the students were able to eat at The Pavilion in the old post office and attend a dance in the Sheraton National. They also attended "A Christmas Carol" performed at Ford's Theater and took a group picture in front of the Capitol Reflecting Pool. Lamar was one of very few schools to attend a special visit to Virginia. The first stop in Virginia was Jamestown where the group visited the Jamestown National Park, Festival Park, and the Glasshouse of 1608. The second stop was in colonial Williamsburg where the students ate a colonial dinner. There was also a free day on December 16.

Max Rios, George Szymeczek, Dia Morrow, and Kim Sundstrom (from Oregon) pose on a statue of Albert Einstein in Washington D.C.

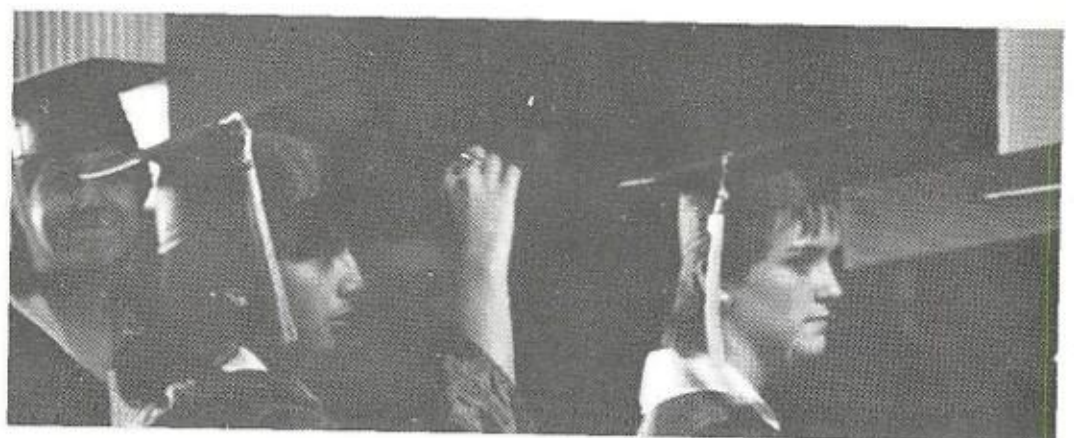

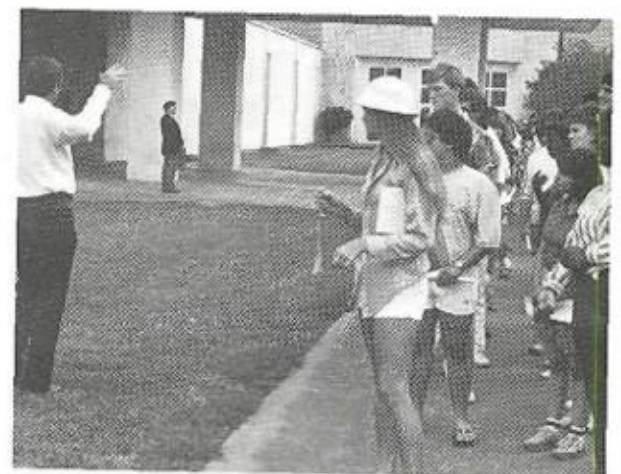

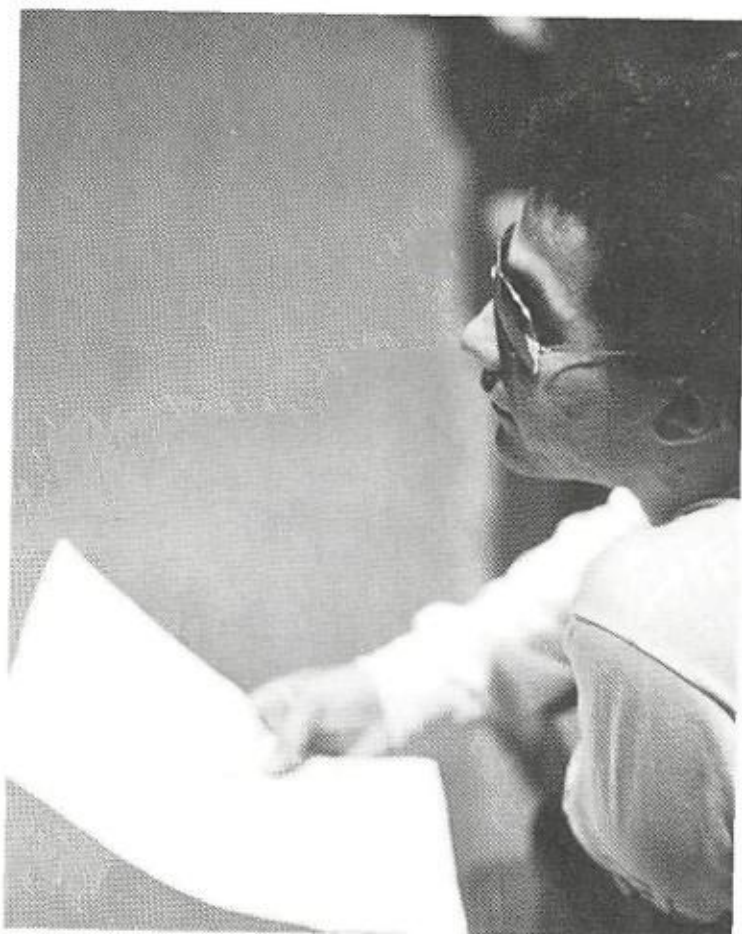

Anxiously awaiting for their departure from Intercontinental Airport in Houston, Jan Harlan and Nancy Chavarria make a last minute check through all of their luggage.

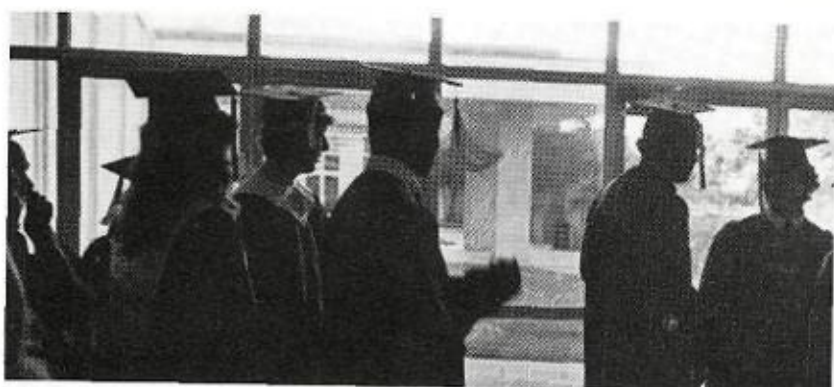

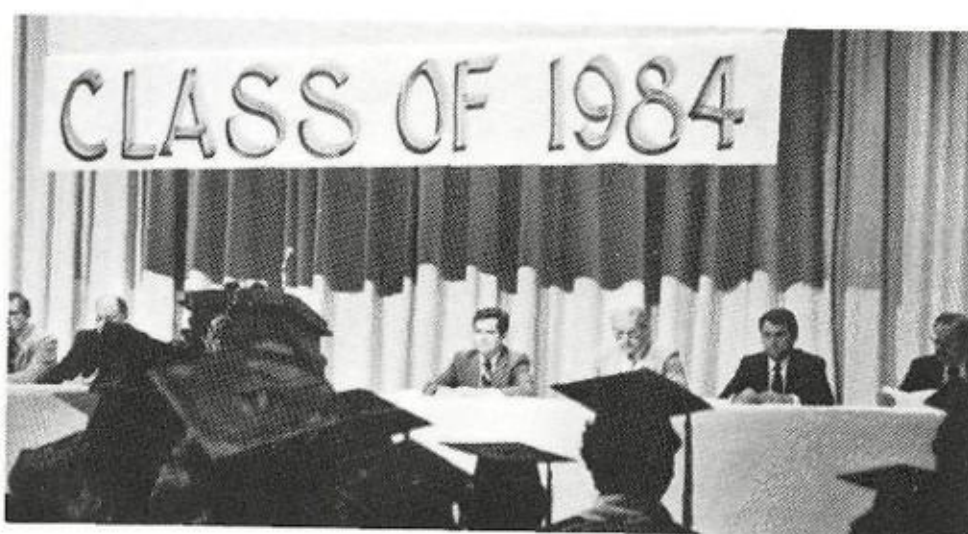

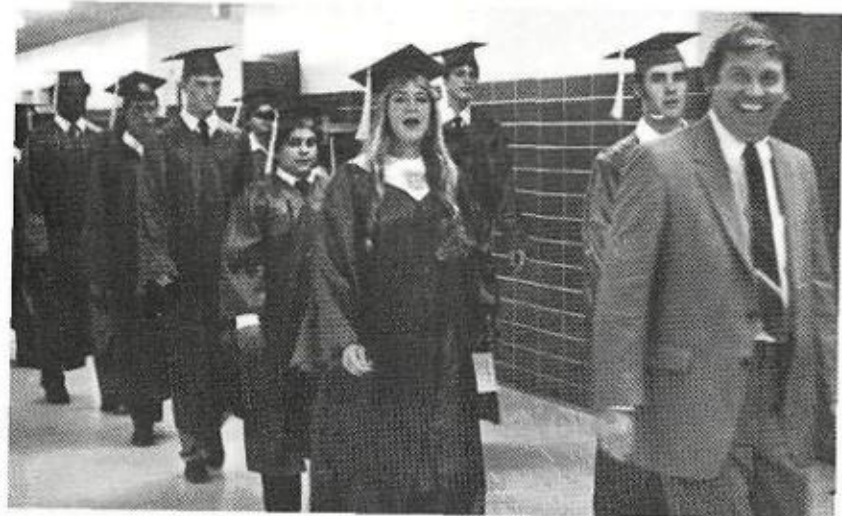

Sheltered from the Washington cold by the old post office, an almost excited Lamar group waits for their tour bus.

We Have Invested 4 Years of Our

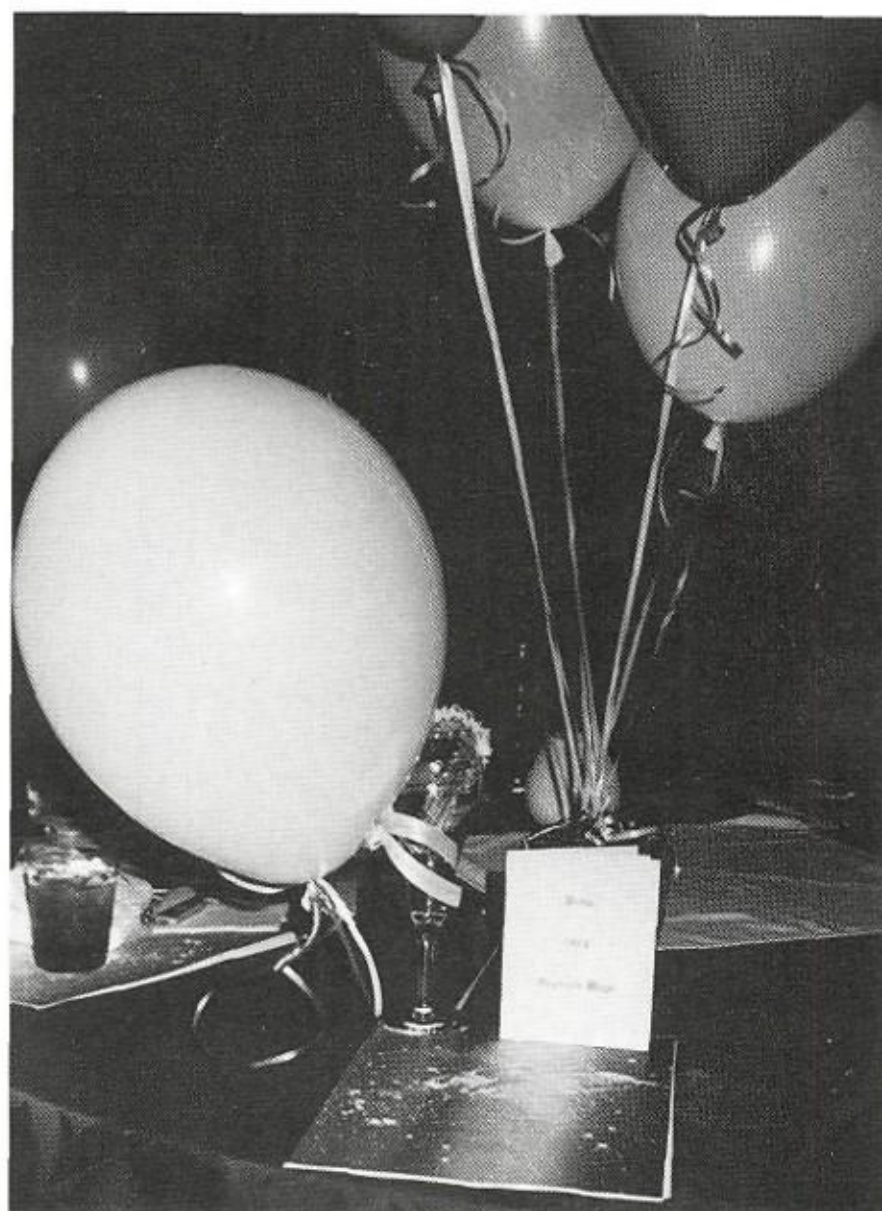

Life to Be Called a Lamar Senior

Oh! What a

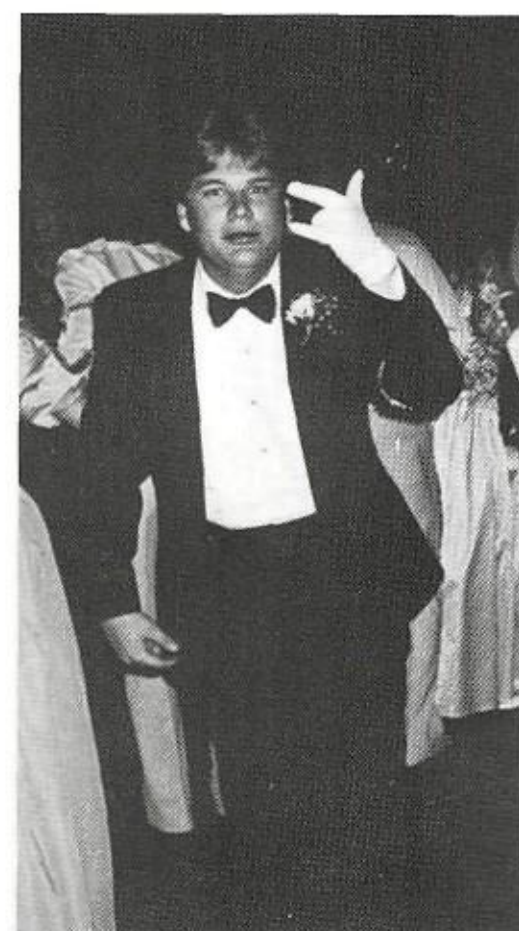

Miss Cynthia Derr and Mr. Shannon Lee were named prom queen and king at the 1983-84 junior-senior prom.

Given as you walked in was a long-stemmed glass with a garter and a copy of the senior wills. The tables were adorned with blue and white balloons and other assorted things. The prom was held at the Marriot by the Galleria on April 28, 1984.

The queen and king candidates patiently await the announcement of who will become the 1984 queen and king.

Kelly Walger shows off his one white glove which is the Michael Jackson look.

Night to Remember

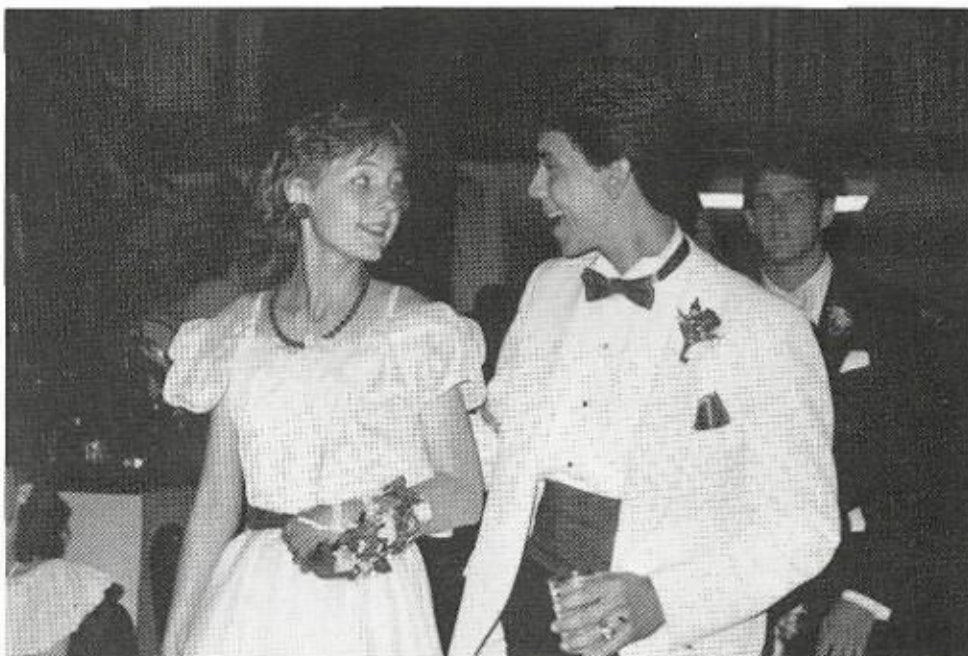

Mrs. Bowers greeted everyone as they walked in.

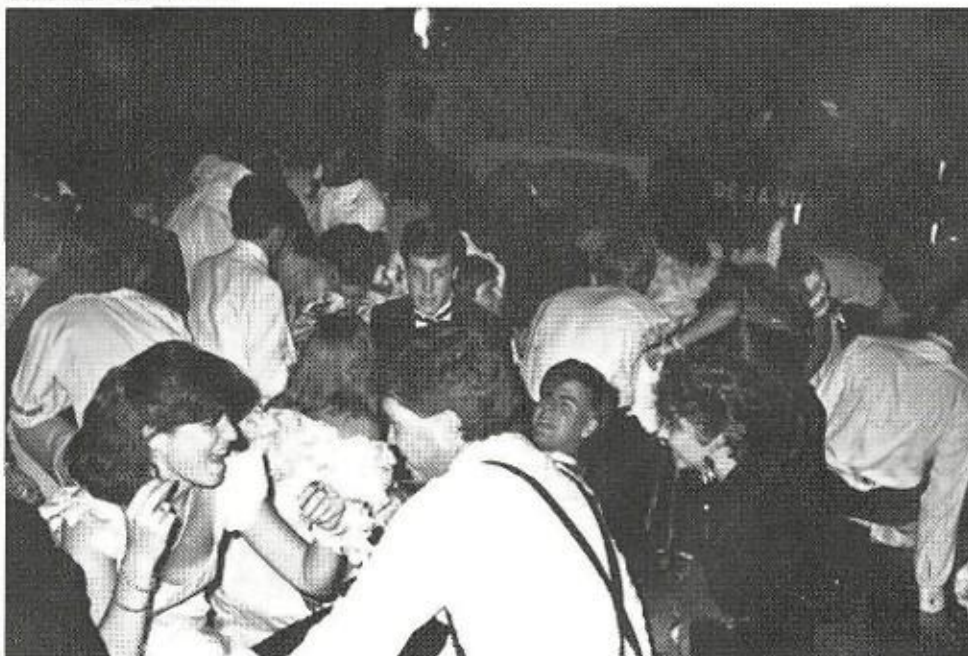

Mr. Smith, among all the teenagers, fits right in as he drinks a glass of punch.

Jill Henry, Andrew Lindblade, Allison Lindblade, and Jay Henry all had a terrific time as they dance the Cotton-eyed Joe.

Rene Moreno gazes romantically into his girlfriend's eyes, Lisa David as he asks her to dance.

As the couples danced the night away, they all knew it would end too soon.

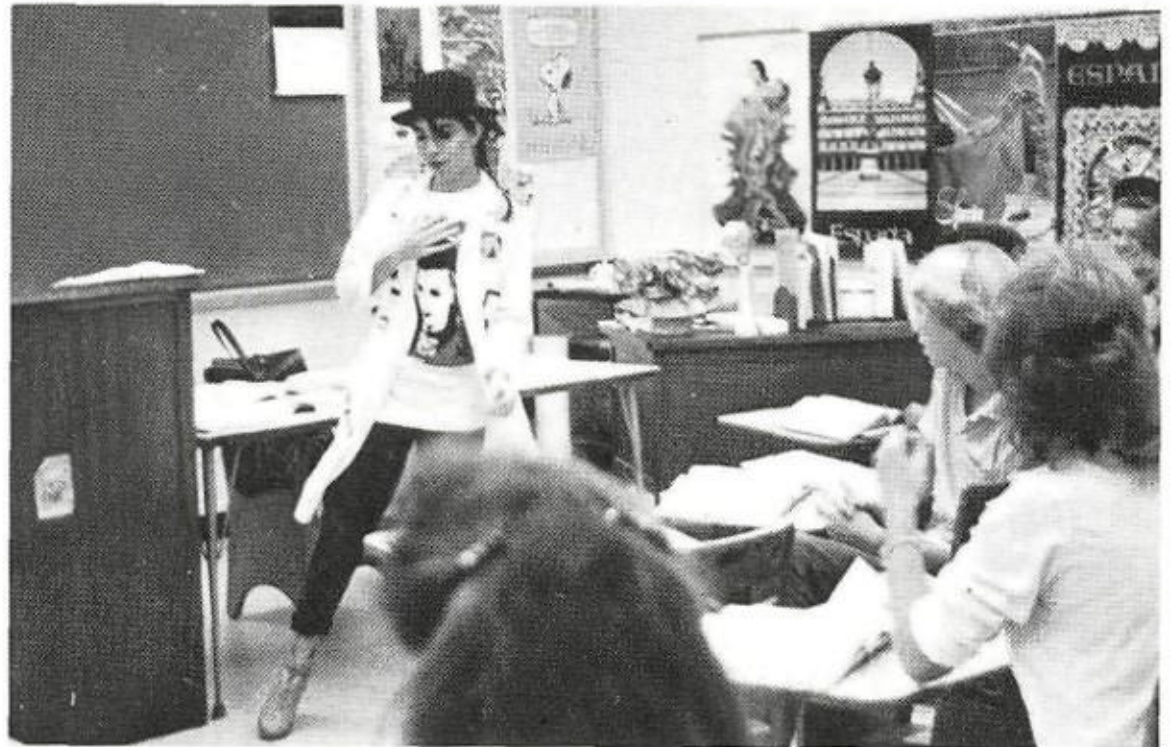

Little snacks were provided for people who were hungry or just needed something to nibble on.

SHOCKING! SHAMELESS! . . .

The last three days of school proved to be very interesting in the senior class. Seniors were given these days to dress up. The first day was punk rock day, the second day was beach day, and the third day was dress-up day. On these days seniors were allowed open campus and an hour for lunch.

Debbie Olive models one of her many styles.

Fay Mendoza demonstrates her version of Boy George's dancing to her classmates on punk rock day.

Mike Cooper's second period class takes time out of class to celebrate beach day.

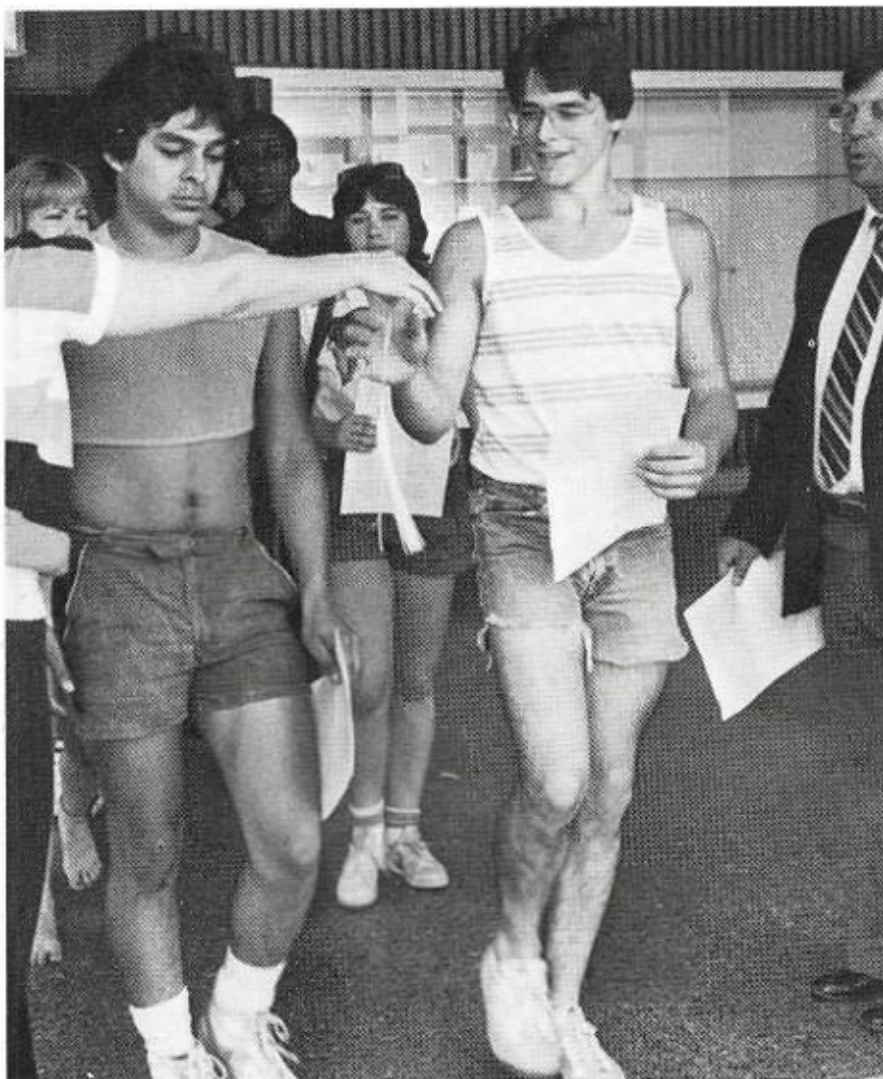

The true personalities of Heather Masterson, Keith Gresham, and Karhleen Ellison.

Beach day came in as seniors practiced for Baccalaureate.

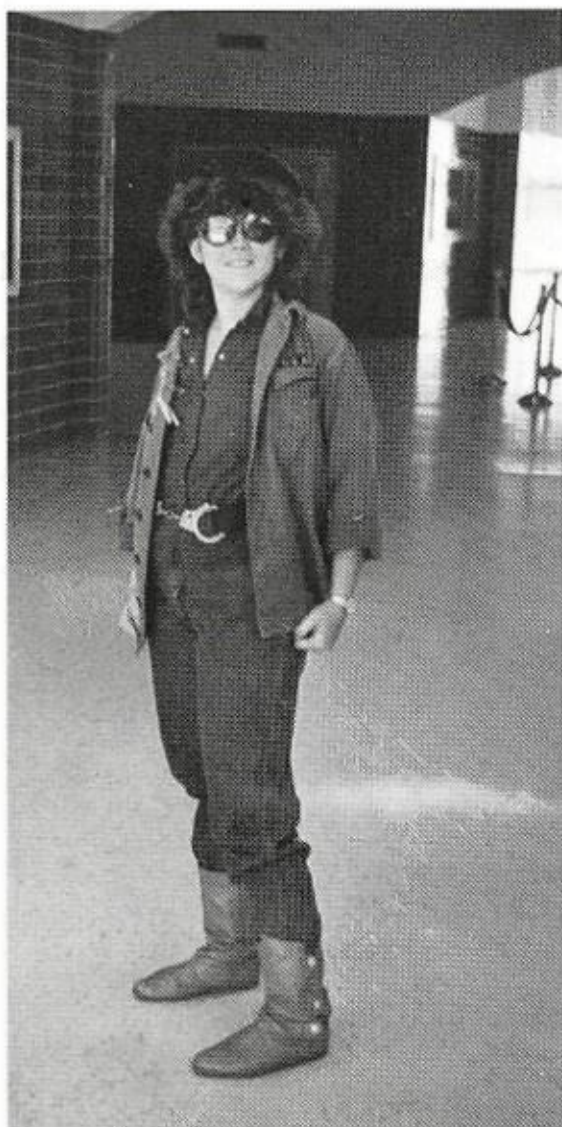

SINFUL! WICKED! . . .

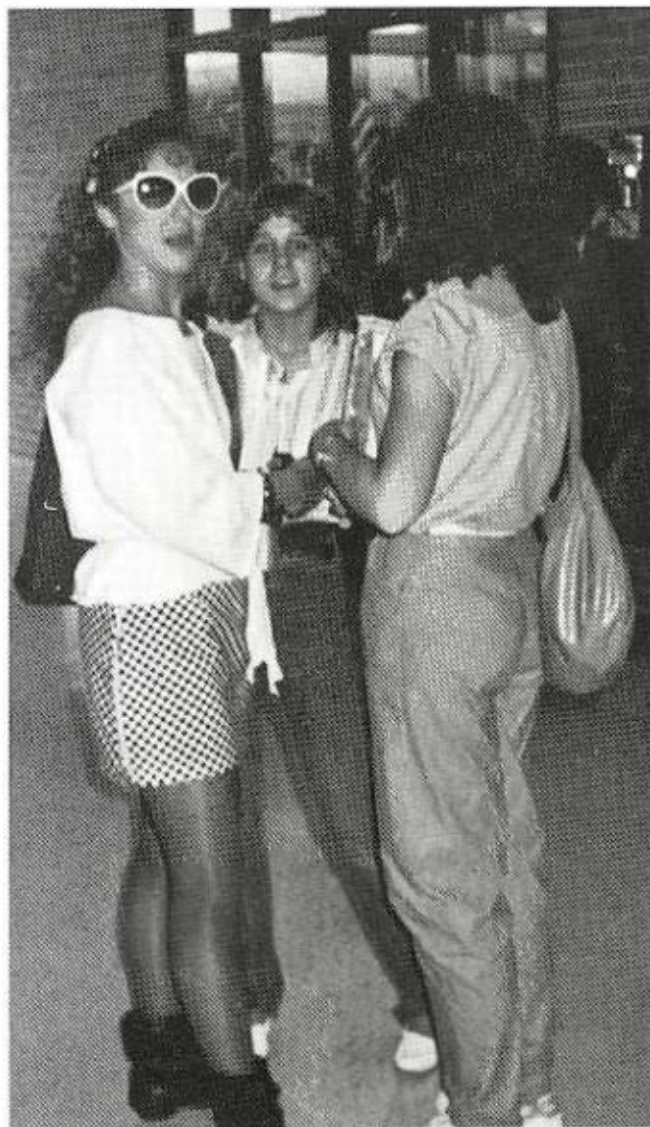

The excitement of baccalaureate practice brightened beach day especially for John Pylare who received his honor tassel.

Seniors gathered in the lobby of the auditorium to talk during beach day.

Robin Talasek brings out her tough side during senior week.

Melanie Edwards, Stephanie Zierke, and Tammy Brewer talk between classes.

Leslie and Lori Massey go all out on beach day.

AND THE PARTY HASN'T EVEN STARTED

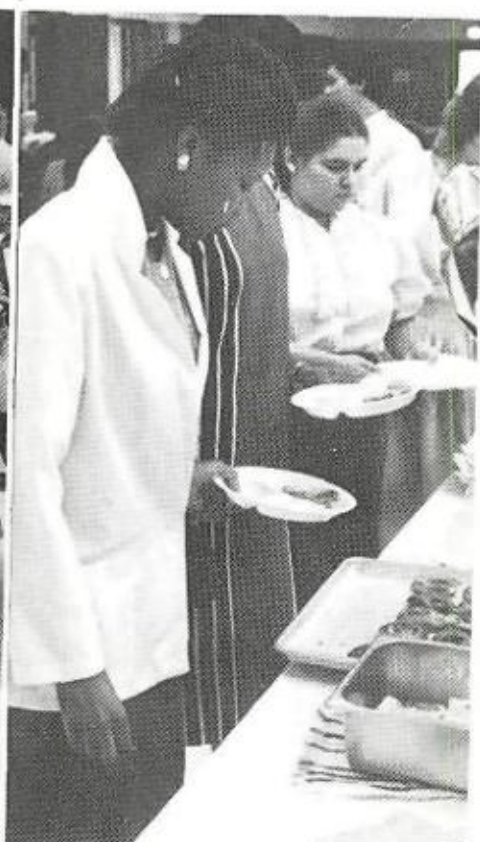

The last day of Senior Week was dress-up day. On this day the seniors were given a breakfast by the junior class.

Shirley Duran serves Yvonne Myers at the senior breakfast.

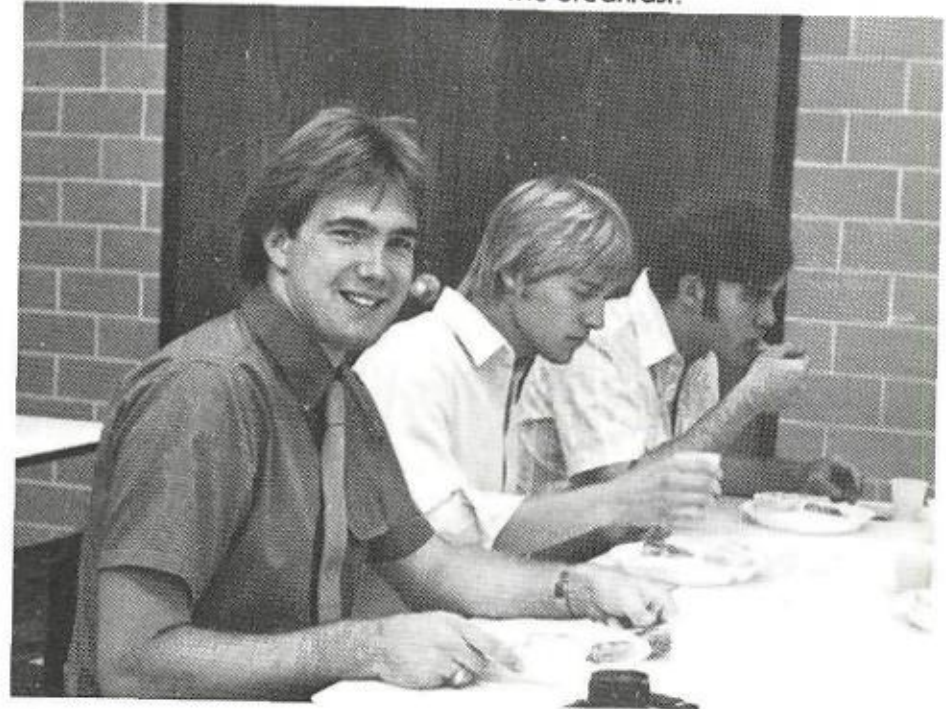

A rare sight to see is Sylvia Rodriguez in a dress.

A variety of food was served at the breakfast.

Ginny Dostal, Tammy Kramer, and Renee Divin enjoy a soda water with their breakfast.

Eating isn't the only thing Rodney Young, John Gerken, and Mitchell Bertin know how to do.

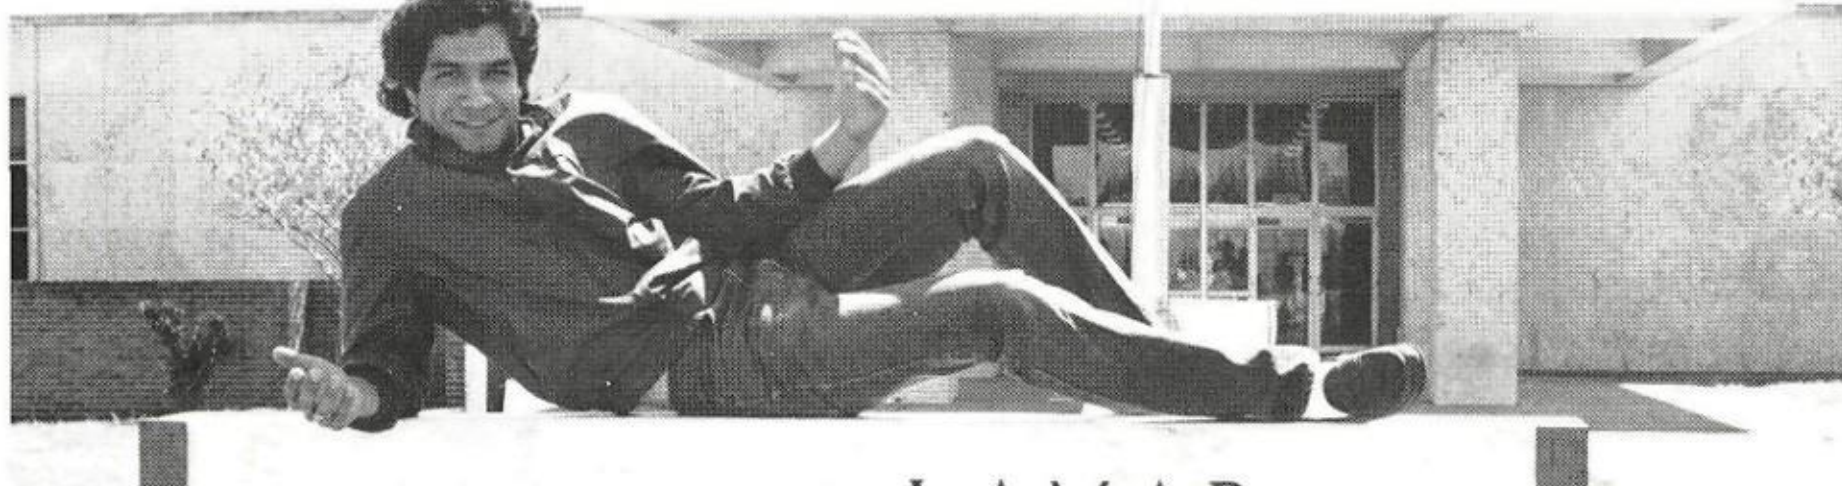

Lori and Leslie Massey dress for the occasion.

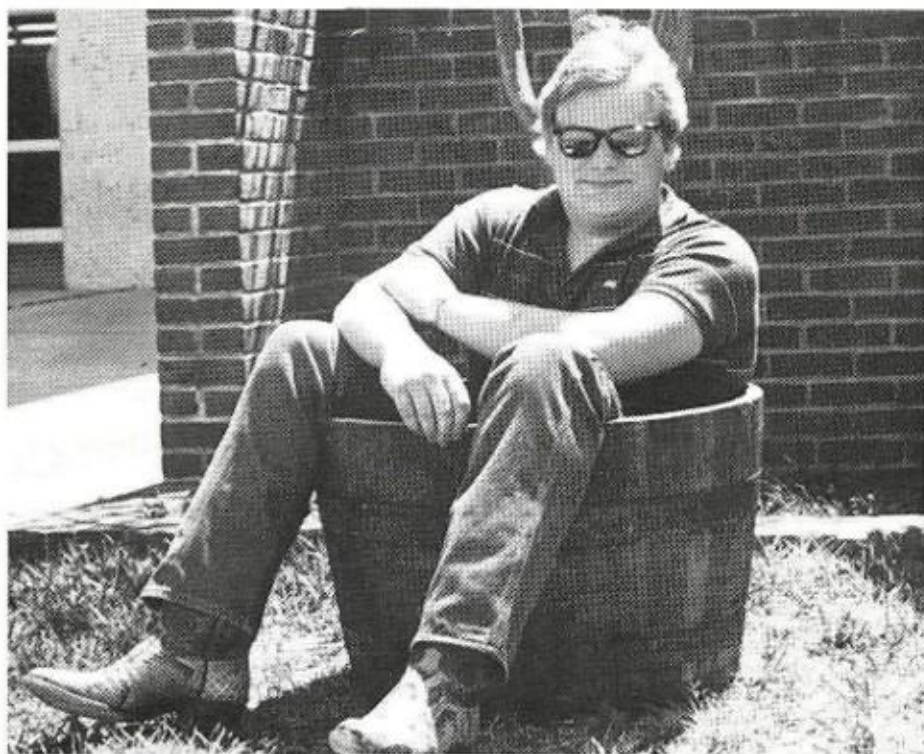

Debbie Olive and Kim Kaminsky look on at the table of treats to decide what to get.

A Cut Above the Rest!

LAMAR CONSOLIDATED HIGH SCHOOL

Russell Rodriguez is one of the friendliest guys at school, for this expert attentiveness he was named Class Flirt.

Some special people really brighten our days. Kelly Walger is one of those people and he was crowned Class Clown by his peers.

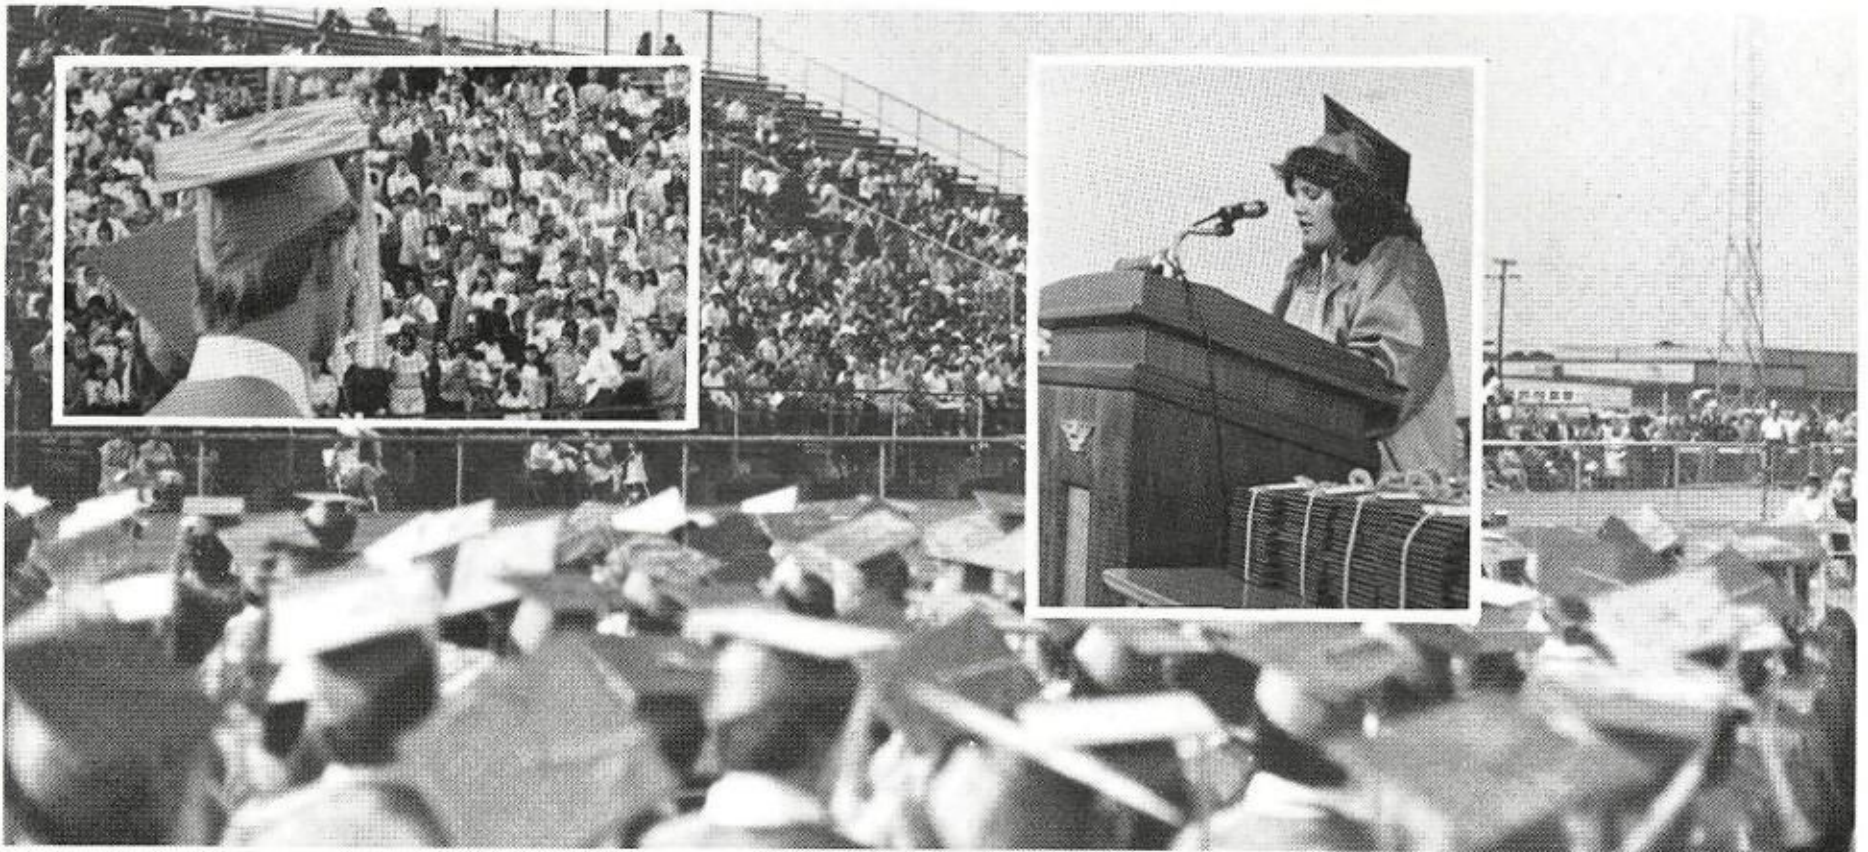

The University of Texas will be lucky to get our Most Likely to Succeed, Lisa Landry, a credit to Lamar's reputation.

The overall friendliest and most looked up to persons are Ms. LHS, Cynthia Derr and Mr. LHS, Shannon Lee.

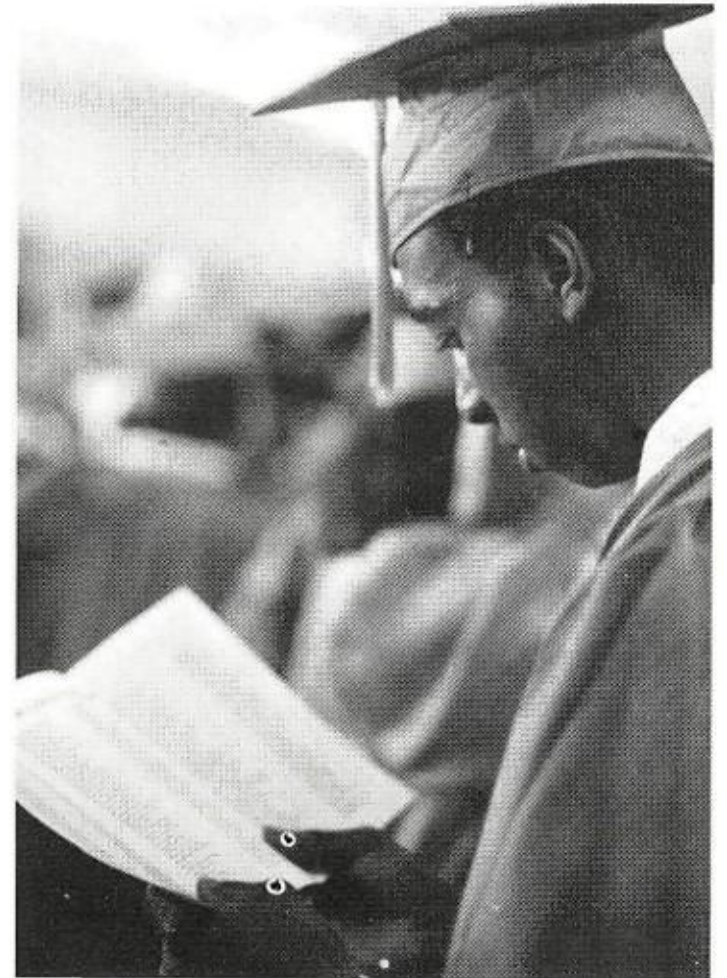

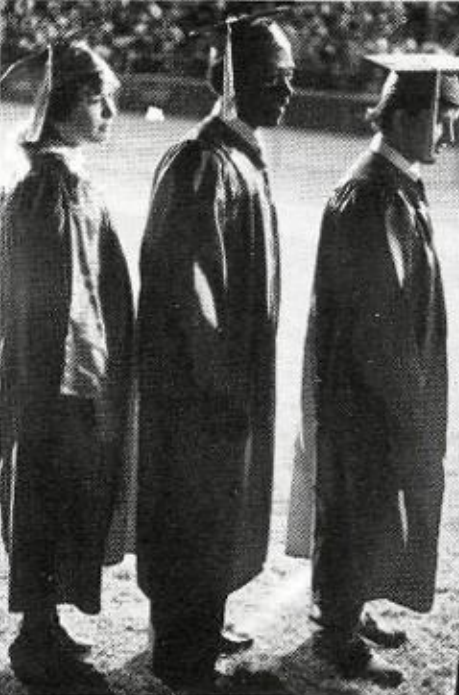

The Feeling of Being a Senior . . .

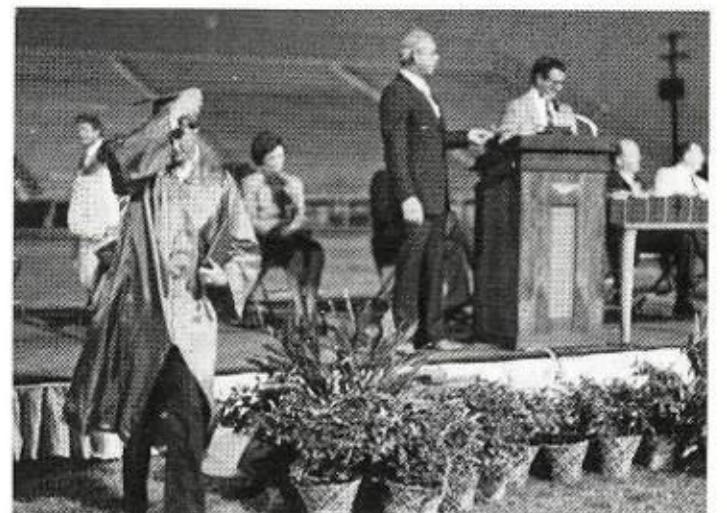

With fresh diplomas in the wings Cindy Derr, class President moves the audience.

John Llamas gets that last minute adjustment prior to line-up.

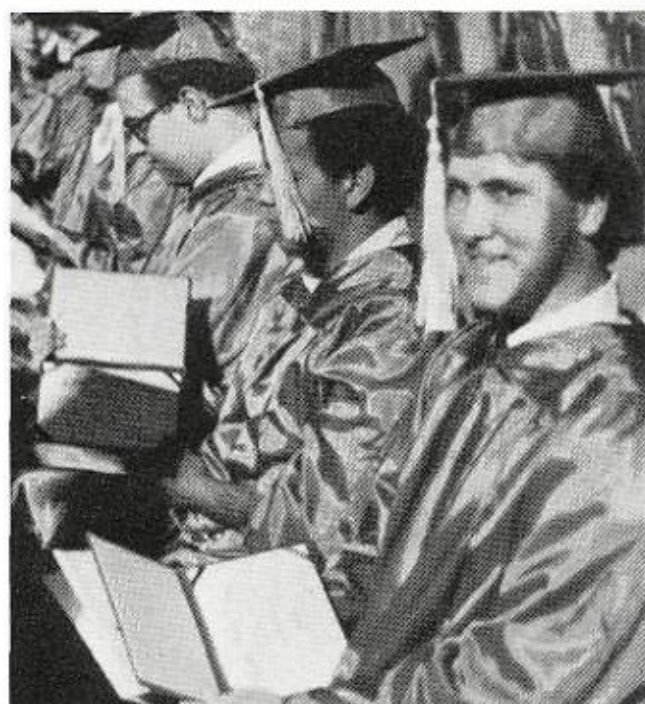

The first step is making sure that your name is on the program, the second is to check the spelling on the diploma.

Nothing Else Like It in the World

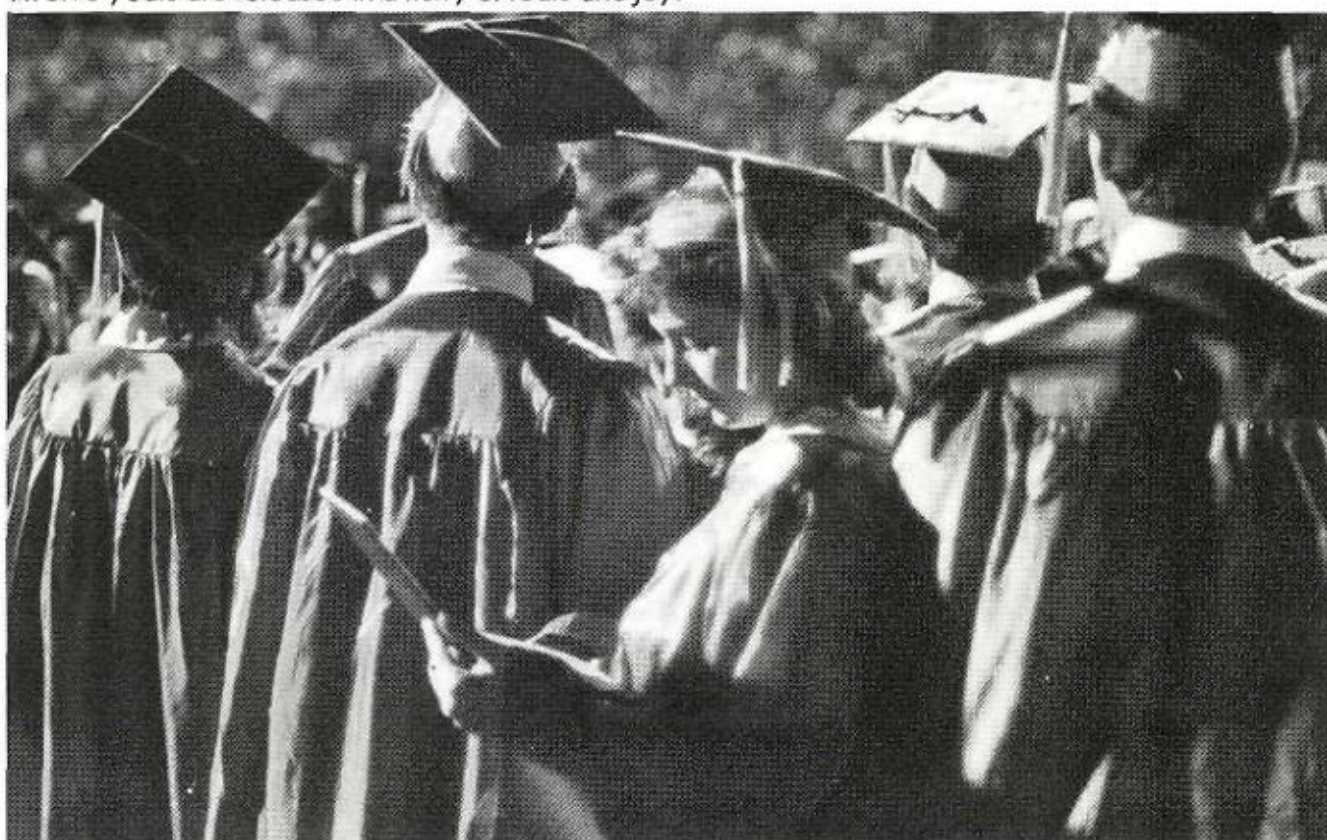

With sadness and delight Lori Massey and Rene Beach give their last performance.

The look of pride by Ronnie Hanzelka.

Twelve years are released in a flurry of tears and joy.

Seniors Have Their Final Say

- Peggy Preuss — Goodbye Lamar, hello life!
Jimmy Driskell — School is over with for me. What now?
Sonia Rulau — Be good or be good at it!
Stephanie Zierke — Wow! I made it!
Lisa Ransom — Party all the time.
Lee Weishierner — Party Down! How!!
David Edgar — Life Appears to remain sacred. But where is the fourth dimension. Can it only be found thru misunderstanding.
Chris Allio — I was really wasted!
Lary Hearn — Later Days!
Stephenie Grayum — Today's happenings is tomorrow's memories. Live everyday as if it were your last.
Laura Brittan — Can we talk?
Heather Masterson — Each happiness of yesterday is a memory for tomorrow.
Donna Garbs Moore — FINALLY!
Lisa Borak and Lisa Villers — Sometimes you just gotta say . . .!
Becky Carranza — Parting is such sweet sorrow!
Dawn Evans — School's out — but I'm sure life will go on!
Nick Johnson — High school is done, but the real fun has just begun!
Keith Gresham — Don't dream it — be it.
David Drabek — Duh! What now!! Lance Perryman — Gee I wish I could come back!!
George Szymeczek — We all get by with a little help from our friends.
Oscar Cervantes — Show me the way!
Roger Lawson — Let's Party!
Roger Snead — Later on Lamar penitentiary.
Marla Mahlman — Party hard for today because tomorrow there may not be a party worth going to!
Kyle Donham — Life is a beach!
Jackie Molina — It's about that time.
Billy Fagert — You get out of life what you put into it.
Kim Kaminsky — Party till you drop! Stay cool and let the Seniors rule!
Tammy Brewer — Life, here we come!
Carol Heugel — I spell relief G-R-A-D-U-A-T-I-O-N!
Kathy Webb — World get ready, here we come!
Kelly Walger — So, when do we learn something?
Janet Crosby — Go for it H. Ross Perot, 'cause the Seniors of '84 are bustin' out!!
Debbie Olive — Your only young once so live it up now!
Natalie Michulka — A lot of seniors say "I finally made it!" Well after what happened this year, I'm lucky to say "I barely made it!!"
John Lery — I missed something in school, can I start over?
Antonio Casares — Where have all the good times gone?
Russell Rodriguez — BYE!
Wiona McDonald — School days, later days!
Asenath Gonzalez — To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven.
Bernadette Heiman — "No Guts!, No Glory!"
David Macias — I finally made it but where do I go now? Decisions, Decisions.
Tommy Gonzales — There's only one thing better than getting into high — GRADUATING!
Carol Shiflett — Our 4 years of high school are almost past but I'm glad its over at last.
Duane Waddill — Graduation is the completion of twelve years of noise.
Laura Trevino — And I only thought this was the end.
Jennifer Parker — It went by slow but the memories were worth the wait. Thanks Leon for the past three years, I love you!
John Pylate — Those who trim themselves to suit others, soon whittle themselves away.
Robert Mersiovsky — Before I go out into this big bad world I would like to say, thanks for the experience.
Connie Charles — Good luck underclassmen! Don't give up, we finally made it!
Sandy Michulka — Know how doesn't do any good unless you know when.
Allen Houston — Don't worry about the future because the present may pass you by!
Jill Henry — I'll always be the fire you can't put out.
Gina Tomas — These have been the greatest four years of my life and I will always remember them.

It's Their Year!

Eagerly awaiting for the first day of school to begin, Seniors pile into the cafeteria to get their schedules.

Virginia Rodriguez carefully selects the pictures she wants from all of her proofs.

Heather Masterson and Tommy Brewer show off the Senior Tee shirt for this year.

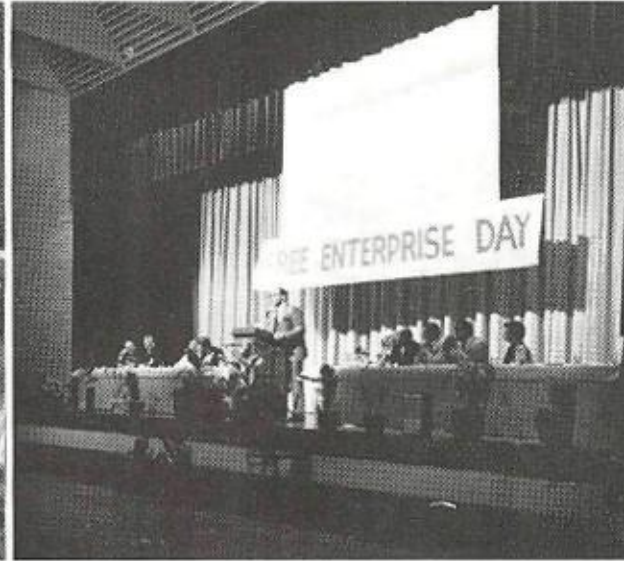

Seniors patiently wait in line to receive their invitations and Senior paraphernalia.

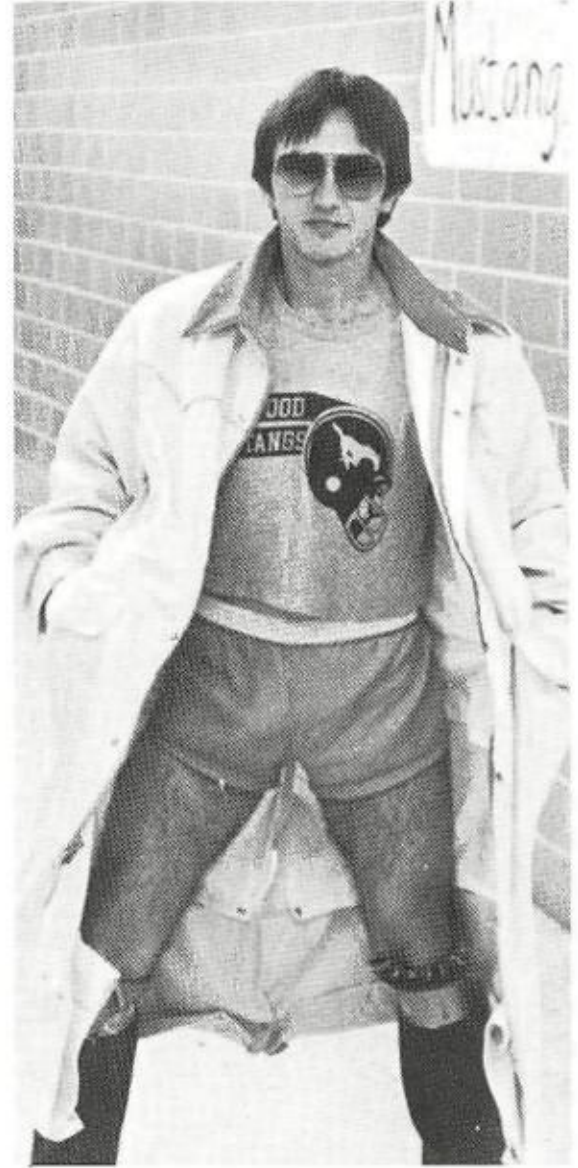

It's an eager moment when the day arrives when you can go to the cafeteria and pick up YOUR gown.

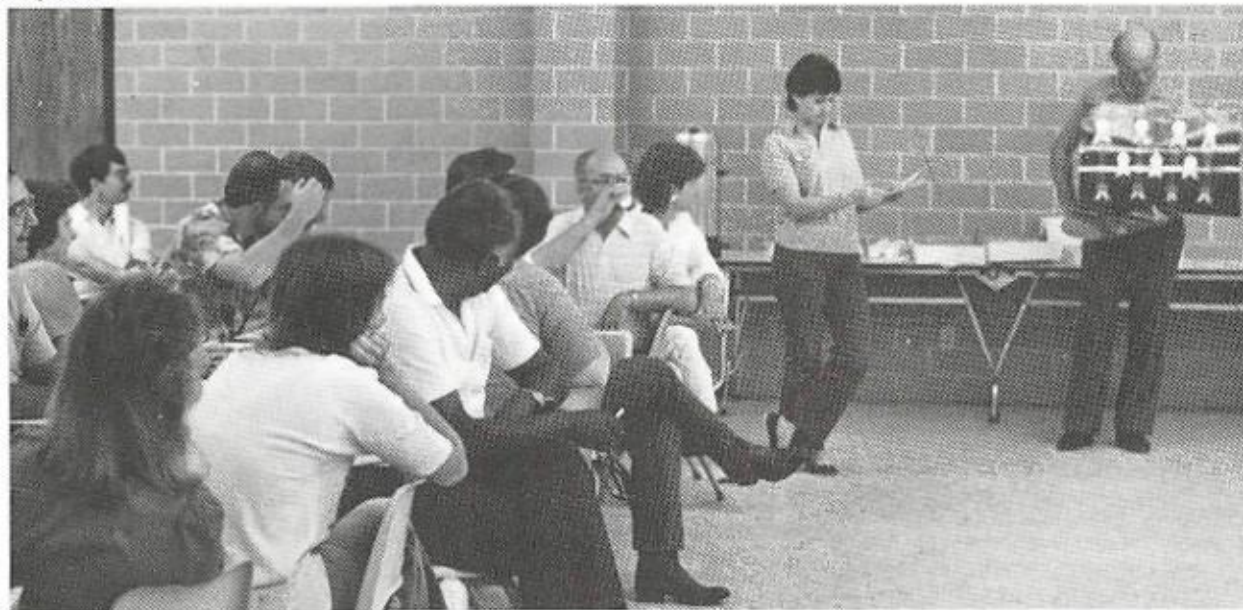

Helping hands measure Analia Lopez for her cap size.

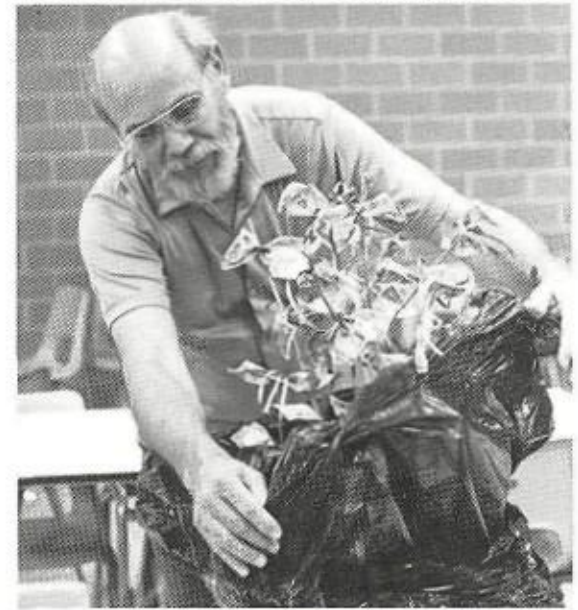

On April 24, students from Lamar, Needville, Kendleton and Terry participated in a Free Enterprise Day.

The Lamar Flasher, alias Roy Mixon, won the Halloween dress-up contest in 4A lunch.

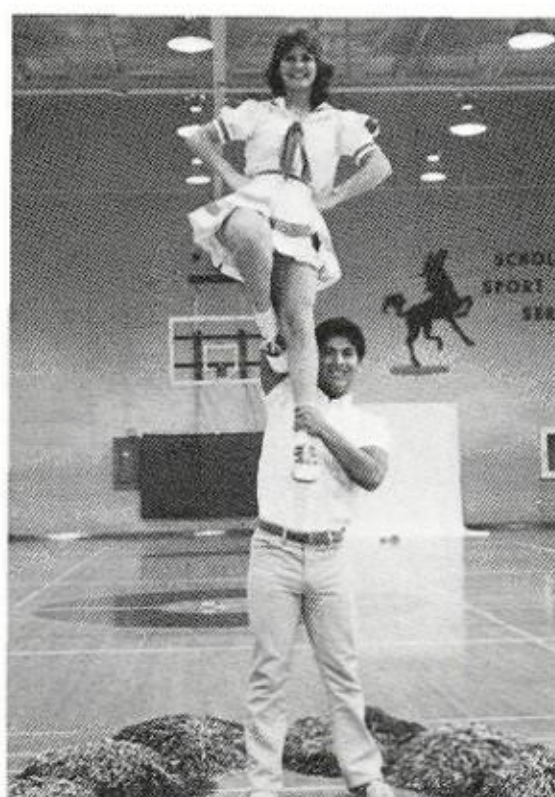

Roland Napps retires after 33 years in the classroom and is honored at the end of the year teacher meeting. Mr. Napps spent his first teaching year at Bovina, Tx. The next six years at Cameron, Tx. and from 1958 to the present (26) years at Lamar.

Roland uncovers a money tree given to him by Lamar teachers and friends.
